Love In The Mortar Joints:

Love in the Mortar Joints Millard Fuller, Diane Scott, 1980 Habitat for Humanity Jerome P. Baggett, 2000 Habitat for humanity is an American house building ministry founded by evangelical Christians it has constructed 85 000 homes using volunteers Baggett tells the story of its development and argues that it is a particular social form of religion a paradenominational organization Specifications, Field Office and Record Storage Building, Ernest A. Love Field Airport, Prescott, Arizona ,1990 Making Housing Happen, 2nd Edition Jill Suzanne Shook, 2012-09-19 The growing housing crisis cries out for solutions that work As many as 3 5 million Americans experience homelessness each year half of them women and children One in four renters spends more than half of their income on rent and utilities more than 30 percent is considered unaffordable With record foreclosures and 28 percent of homes underwater middle and low income homeowners are suffering Many congregations want to address this daunting problem yet feel powerless and uncertain about what to do The good news is that churches are effectively addressing the housing crisis from Washington State to New York City where an alliance of sixty churches has built five thousand homes for low income homeowners with virtually no government funding or foreclosures This book not only presents solid theological thinking about housing but also offers workable solutions to the current crisis true stories by those who have made housing happen Each story features a different Christian denomination geographic area and model adaptive reuse cohousing cooperative housing mixed income mixed use inclusionary zoning second units community land trusts sweat equity and more Making Housing Happen is about vision and faith relationships and persistence Its remarkable stories will inspire and challenge you to action This new edition includes significant new material especially in light of the ongoing mortgage crisis Building in the Margins of Shacks Ananta Kumar Giri, 2002 This Unusual Study Combines Anthropology And Theories Of Global Transformations In Novel And Creative Ways The Author Describes The Global Work Of Habitat For Humanity A U S Based Transnational Socio Religious Movement It Describes How Habitat Builds In The Margins Of Shacks In Communities In The U S A And In India One Of More Than Fifty Countries Around The Globe Where This Movement Is At Work This Book Is A Significant Contribution To The Study Of Religion Social Movements And Globalization Seniors for Habitat Effective Practices Manual Corporation for National Service (U.S.), 2001 Love is a 4 Legged Word Robert X. Leeds, 2001 Wonderfully funny and endearing stories about guests and their owners at the American Pet Motel in Prairie View Illinois God Will Provide Patricia Treece, 2011-11-01 A specialist in human goodness divine providence and recent saints Patricia Treece offers the fruits of years of research on how God meets the financial needs in varying ways or his people Mother Teresa of Calcutta for instance refused to let anyone raise money in her name insisting if God wanted something done through her he d send the money Other friends of God did seek donations and got them in amazing ways In this lively book she offers copious examples of miracles answered prayers and nine universal principles to live by so you can join those who know in good times or bad God will provide The Species with a Call Drexel Rayford, 2013-10-25 Maybe you feel like you've got your life all figured out you have all the answers and you know for sure that you're living your authentic call in life But if you feel like there's a life meant for you that you haven't yet lived The Species with a Call can help Author Drexel Rayford assures us that we are never entirely without choices no matter how old we are or what has gone before Anything we've experienced can be fuel for growth and move us toward an authentic life filled with meaning and purpose After nearly four decades of pastoral ministry Rayford has had the privilege of working with hundreds of people who've sought his counsel Their sacred stories have brought him to the conclusion that the most deeply spiritual question one can consider is What would you do with your life if money were no object In fact that's the whole point of religious conversion to guide each of us to be the person we were uniquely created to be This guide takes us on a journey through the narratives of ordinary people in order to help us discover that we are each an integral part of the species with a call The Target; Love, Death and Airline Deregulation J. R. Hauptman, 2008 Novel set in the late nineteen eighties recounting first years of airline deregulation and the effects it had on that industry and its employees Corporate raider Carlo Clemenza is the chief villain of the piece He uses junk bonds uncompromising Soviet styled negotiation tactics sham bankruptcies and ruthless abrogation of union contracts to crush competing airlines and to bring airline workers to heel His methods earn him countless death threats Thousands of professional pilots find themselves compelled to start their careers over or with no careers at all One pilot decides to take direct action and makes Clemenza The target But his pursuit of the well protected Clemenza makes him a target in turn A Simple, Decent Place to Live Millard Fuller, 1995-11-06 Readers will be moved by this exciting story of real life good Samaritans in this uplifting story of Habitat for Humanity Fuller tells how he came to be touched with the needs of others for affordable housing He incorporates testimonies from celebrities Jimmy Carter Tom Brokaw Paul Newman and others who tell what Habitat for Humanity means to them The Theology of the Hammer Millard Fuller, 1994 Millard Fuller had come face to face with the reality of the American dream a millionaire workaholic with a marriage on the skids The cure the Fullers sold their business donated all the money to charity and went in search of a new dream Today Fuller and his wife are sharing that dream Habitat for Humanity Jesus Goes to Washington Douglas J. Miller, 2013-10-10 This book explores how Christian spirituality and the political ethic of Christianity's founder Jesus of Nazareth might contribute to the most looming emergency of our day ending human misery while reducing the planet's woes It advances the new ethical paradigm of sustainability that bespeaks the longings of this remarkable Jewish peasant who elbowed his way into a world filled with social misery shame and land exploitation Donning the mantle of a prophet lawgiver he disgraced the justifying ethic of the prevailing Roman oligarchies that finds its active counterpart in today's political landscape He offered a different political path a Progressive one that led to respecting Creation and all its inhabitants Jesus helps us to cherish humane values and he urges us all Democrats and Republicans Independents and Greens religious and nonreligious to be united in fulfilling them

Jesus Goes to Washington celebrates the international Earth Charter the most significant moral document of our generation Given the urgency of world calamity the charter implores us to muster every spiritual force at our disposal for immediate action Being history s most influential moral authority Jesus provides the needed impetus for achieving a just and sustainable global society

Anthony Joseph Stanonis,2008 The ten essays in this collection focus on how southerners have marketed themselves to outsiders and identify spaces services and products that construct various Souths that exaggerate refute or self consciously safeguard elements of southernness Simultaneous Destiny and Decision Fred R. Zimmerman,2013-08-06 In this autobiography of a Christian minister Fred R Zimmerman tells the story of his life on the stage of world events that affected him either directly or indirectly Born to be a minister he first became aware of his calling early on in his boyhood Orphaned at eighteen months during the flu pandemic of 1918 19 he was fortunate enough to be adopted by a childless couple In their capacity as committed church going Christians he was wisely nurtured in his mission to become a minister During his college and seminary years crises accompanying this destiny began to arise As his ministry developed through the years destiny and decision became the yoke Matthew 11 27 30 under which he exercised the burden of being a pastor This is therefore a story not primarily of a person but of a God appointed ministry Explorations In Global Ethics Sumner B Twiss,2018-03-08

Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue The contributors draw from both communities of discourse in addressing questions of method and theory and global moral issues such as human rights distributive justice politics of war international business the environment and genocide in a cross cultural context Inspired by the 1993 Parliament of the Worlds Religions this volume for the first time brings the scholarly discipline of comparative religious ethics into constructive collaboration with the community of interreligious dialogue Its design is premised on two important insights First interreligious dialogue offers to comparative religious ethics a new more persuasive rationale agenda of issues and practical orientation Second comparative religious ethics offers to interreligious dialogue an arsenal of critical tools and methods which will enhance the sophistication of its practical work In this way both theory a dominant concern and strength of comparative religious ethics and praxis a dominant concern and strength of interreligious moral dialogue are joined together in mutual effort each contributing to the benefit of the other The volumes contributors share this vision of collaboration drawing explicitly from both communities of discourse in a manner that crosses disciplinary and professional boundaries to deal creatively and constructively with important methodological and global moral issue

Although theory and practice cannot easily be separated in such a collaborative project for the purpose of clarity the volume is divided into two main parts The first specifically engages questions of method theory and the social role of the public intellectual the second on substantive moral themes and issues many of which were raised at the 1993 Parliament Taken together the volumes essays articulate and illustrate new ways of approaching contemporary moral concerns cross culturally yet with a rigor appropriate to our complex and pluralistic world
