Love Poetry in the Spanish Golden Age Isabel Torres,2013 This work engages with a broader evaluation of early modern poetics that foregrounds the processes rather than the products of thinking The locus of the study is the Imperial home space where love poetry meets early modern empire at the inception of a very conflicted national consciousness and where the vernacular language Castilian emerges in the encounter as a strategic site of national and imperial identity The political is therefore a pervasive presence teased out where relevant in recognition of the poet s sensitivity to the ideologies within which writing comes into being But the primary commitment of the book is to lyric poetry and to poets individually and in their dynamic interconnectedness Moving beyond a re evaluation of critical responses to four major poets of the period Garcilaso de la Vega Herrera G ngora and Quevedo this study disengages respectfully with the substantial body of biographical research that continues to impact upon our understanding of the genre and renegotiates the Foucauldian concept of the epistemic break often associated with the anti mimetic impulses of the Baroque This more flexible model accommodates the multiperspectivism that interrogated Imperial ideology even in the earliest sixteenth century poetry and allows for the exploration of new horizons in interpretation Cover page 4

Queer God de Amor Miguel H. Díaz,2022-09-13 Queer God de Amor explores the mystery of God and the relationship between divine and human persons It does so by turning to the sixteenth century writings of John of the Cross on mystical union with God and the metaphor of sexual relationship that he uses to describe this union Juan s mystical theology which highlights the notion of God as lover and God s erotic like relationship with human persons provides a fitting source for rethinking the Christian doctrine of God in John s own words as un no s qu an I know not what In critical conversations with contemporary queer theologies it retrieves from John a preferential option for human sexuality as an experience in daily life that is rich with possibilities for re sourcing and imagining the Christian doctrine of God Consistent with other liberating perspectives it outs God from heteronormative closets and restores human sexuality as a resource for theology This outing of divine queerness that is the ineffability of divine life helps to align reflections on the mystery of God with the faith experiences of queer Catholics By engaging Juan de la Cruz through queer Latinx eyes Miguel D az continues the objective of this series to disrupt the cartography of theology latinamente
