Poems at the Edge of Differences Renate Papke,2008 This study consists of two parts The first part offers an overview of feminism s theory of differences The second part deals with the textual analysis of poems about mothering by women from India the Caribbean and Africa Literary criticism has dealt with the representation of mothering in prose texts The exploration of lyrical texts has not yet come Since the late 1970s the acknowledgement of and the commitment to difference has been foundational for feminist theory and activism This investigation promotes a differentiated locational feminism Friedman The comprehensive theoretical discussion of feminism s different concepts of gender race ethnicity and mothering builds the foundation for the main part the presentation and analysis of the poems The issue of mothering foregrounds the communicative aspect of women s experience and wants to bridge the gap between theory and practice This study however does not intend to specify mothering as a universal and unique feminine characteristic It underlines a metaphorical use and discusses the concepts of nurturing maternal practice and social parenthood Regarding the extensive material this study understands itself as an explorative not concluding investigation placed at the intersections of gender studies postcolonial and classical literary studies Most of all it aims at initiating a dialogue and interchange between scholars and students in the Western and the Third World Postcards from Heaven Claire Cloninger,2004 This collection of postcards offering messages of hope healing comfort encouragement and affirmation is written as if God were speaking directly to the reader

Religion, Spirituality, and Aging Harry R Moody,2012-12-06 Learn how to make a more positive impact with your social work with the aged Religion is an important coping mechanism for many aging adults Religion Spirituality and Aging A Social Work Perspective presents the latest research that shows how religion and spirituality can improve quality of life for elders Respected social work researchers and scholars provide insight and practical methods for fostering positive aging while also considering how spirituality and religion can affect practitioners themselves The full range of advantages and ethical implications are discussed in clear detail from a social work viewpoint Case studies plainly illustrate the positive impact that the inclusion of spirituality and religion in an aging person s life may have on their physical and mental welfare Organized social work in the early twentieth century actively tried to distance itself from its roots as a form of religious charity in favor of becoming a scientific and professional endeavor Religion Spirituality and Aging once again bridges the gap between social work and spiritual matters by presenting penetrating articles that discusses the issues of the aging soul while examining ways to improve care Creative strategies are offered to contribute to the spiritual side of aging while considering every implication and ethical question The compilation is extensively referenced and includes helpful figures and tables to clearly illustrate data and ideas Religion Spirituality and Aging discusses the latest social work trends and attitudes toward spirituality prayer meditation and acts of altruism as interventions an empirical study of how social workers use religion and spirituality as an intervention ethical considerations and best practices religion and spirituality during long term care the Postcards to God project dreams and their relationship to the search for meaning in later life a spiritual approach to positive aging through autobiography dementia and spirituality creating new rituals for sacred aging spiritual master Henri Nouwen s principles of aging and his approaches to caring for older people an interview study on elders spirituality and the changes manifested in their views of religion Religion Spirituality and Aging is a remarkable reminder that elders are our future selves This erudite well reasoned examination of aging and spirituality from a social work perspective is crucial reading for social workers human service professionals who work with the aged and gerontology scholars you'll never believe what God was wearing when times got tough and the mall closed "sam" seymour, annie "baba" pitts, 2010-01-26 Thirteen of us hanging out at the mall on Saturdays having sleepovers every other weekend sharing histories working through our diversities our problems with our moms with boys with zits and being fat we were pretty sure we had it all together Until our losses began to stack up in the form of a close friend s death diversities that threatened to split us up parents losing their jobs in the deepening recession some of us losing our homes some losing our way on top of that the mall our favorite hangout haven on the planet closing its doors And then out of nowhere our lives began to change Mostly because of the mysterious woman that showed up toward the end of our eighth grade year and the way she shook up our lives forever

Postcards from the Edge Ian Coffey, 2015-07-17 In Postcards from the Edge Ian Coffey will help you learn from eight Bible characters about how God can meet you in the hardest moments of your life God often seems most distant when we are going through our hardest times And yet many people have found that it is exactly at the moments of their greatest struggle that they have met God most closely Through vivid retellings of the stories of eight biblical characters who met God at points of extremity in their lives Ian Coffey offers us inspirational ways of making the struggles we face an opportunity for growth By sharing both modern examples of people who have faced the same sorts of struggles and events in his own life he gives us practical help and hope in our hardest moments Esther and courage Jeremiah and inadequacy John and doubt Paul and fear Peter and imprisonment Ruth and loss Elijah and despair Mark and failure Full of rich reflection and thought provoking questions it will help us to discover the God who walks with his people through their darkest moments
