my sad ness
below a
companionable sun
and he told me
not to worry
because i
would not see
this sorrow
anymore
when he
set himself
down
so soft
in his sleepy Western bed

of the Austin Project and a sourcebook for those who would like to use creative writing and performance to energize their artistic scholarly and activist practices Reflections and New Perspectives on Virgil's Georgics Nicholas Freer, Bobby Xinyue, 2019-02-21 Virgil's Georgics the most neglected of the poet's three major works is brought to life and infused with fresh meanings in this dynamic collection of new readings The Georgics is shown to be a rich field of inherited and varied literary forms actively inviting a wide range of interpretations as well as deep reflection on its place within the tradition of didactic poetry The essays contained in this volume contributed by scholars from Australia Europe and North America offer new approaches and interpretive methods that greatly enhance our understanding of Virgil's poem In the process they unearth an array of literary and philosophical sources which exerted a rich influence on the Georgics but whose impact has hitherto been underestimated in scholarship A second goal of the volume is to examine how the Georgics with its profound meditations on humankind nature and the socio political world of its creation has been re interpreted and appropriated by readers and critics from antiquity to the modern era The volume opens up a number of exciting new research avenues for the study of the reception of the Georgics by highlighting the myriad ways in which the poem has been understood by ancient readers early modern poets explorers of the New World and female translators of the twentieth and twenty first centuries

The Comparative Study of Traditional Asian Literatures Vladimir Braginsky, 2013-10-11 This book represents the first ever published introduction to the comparative study of traditional Asian literatures embracing three vast literary zones Arab Islamic Indo South East Asian and Sino Far Eastern The aim of the book is to outline the main properties of Asian literatures in the period of reflective traditionalism the early centuries CE to the first half of the 19th century when the creation of a vast body of aesthetically significant works was coupled with the emergence of literary self awareness when the nature of the creative process the poetics and functions of the literary works and the ways of their influence on the reader were thoroughly comprehended and committed to writing for the first time The book is intended for specialists in Asian literatures comparative literature and literary theory and for students of these topics Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology's wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics

Catalogue of Books Added to the Library of Congress ,1861 New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression Marcel Cornis-Pope,2014-11-15 Begun in 2010 as part of the Histories of Literatures in European Languages series sponsored by the International Comparative Literature Association the current project on New Literary Hybrids in the Age of Multimedia Expression recognizes the global shift toward the visual and the virtual in all areas of textuality the printed verbal text is increasingly joined with the visual often electronic text This shift has opened up new domains of human achievement in art and culture The international roster of 24 contributors to this volume pursue a broad range of issues under four sets of questions that allow a larger conversation to emerge both inside the volume s sections and between them The four sections cover 1 Multimedia Productions in Theoretical and Historical Perspective 2 Regional and Intercultural Projects 3 Forms and Genres and 4 Readers and Rewriters in Multimedia Environments The essays included in this volume are examples of the kinds of projects and inquiries that have become possible at the interface between literature and other media new and old They emphasize the extent to which hypertextual multimedia and virtual reality technologies have enhanced the sociality of reading and writing enabling more people to interact than ever before At the same time however they warn that as long as these technologies are used to reinforce old habits of reading writing they will deliver modest results One of the major tasks pursued by the contributors to this volume is to integrate literature in the global informational environment where it can function as an imaginative partner teaching its interpretive competencies to other components of the cultural landscape Reflective Primary Teaching Tony Ewens,Paul Cammack,2025-02-28 This essential text helps student teachers classroom teachers at all stages in their careers school mentors and teacher educators develop their effectiveness by analysing and improving their practice in the light of a deeper understanding of the professional Teachers Standards Each aspect of the Standards is dealt with in a chapter of its own where the central topic is presented as both complex and contested in a way that invites readers to formulate their own interpretations The approach accentuates the importance of reflection as a key professional attribute and readers are encouraged to reflect on their own experiences and on their responses to case studies and quotations as a means of helping them to develop their understandings This new edition takes account of the current educational context with an emphasis on evidence based practice and includes extension tasks to address M level demands fully revised and updated chapters on SEND and assessment and a completely new final chapter highlighting CPD and appraisal for serving teachers Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini,Julia Novak,2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character's story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link springer.com Virginia Woolf's Experiments with Consciousness, Time, and Social Values Marjorie H. Hellerstein, 2001 There were many paradoxes Virginia Woolf had to resolve in her fiction writing how to bring readers into close touch with life and yet keep them at a distance by means of the special life in fiction how to follow the details of real life and yet symbolize meaning how to write prose and yet discharge some of the functions of poetry Consciousness was her way of contending with the paradoxes consciousness by the characters of their unique selves of the influence and interaction of other characters a flow of inner consciousness The consciousnesses are not abstract they are always connected to a phenomenal world of action environment and time This examination of the major themes and style of Woolf's writing covers all her major works Poetry, Practical Theology and Reflective Practice Mark Pryce, 2019-03-13 This groundbreaking study offers an innovative critical analysis of poetry as a resource for reflective practice in the context of continuing professional development In the contemporary drive in all professions for greater rigour in education training and development little attention is paid to the inner shape of learning and meaning making for individuals and groups especially ways in which individuals are formed for the task of their work Building on empirical research into the author's professional practice the book takes the use of poetry in clergy continuing ministerial development as a case study to examine the value of poetry in professional learning Setting out the advantages and limitations of poetry as a stimulant for imaginative critical reflexivity and formation within professional reflective practice the study develops a practical model for group reflection around poetry distilling pedagogical approaches for working effectively with poetry in continuing professional development Drawing together a number of strands of thinking about poetry Practical Theology and reflective practice into a tightly argued study the book is an important methodological resource It makes available a range of primary and secondary sources offering researchers into professional practice a model of ethnographic research in Practical Theology which embraces innovative methods for reflexivity and theological reflection including the value of auto ethnographic poetry The new Popular educator, 1901 The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature Joe Bray, Alison Gibbons, Brian McHale, 2012-07-26 What is experimental literature How has experimentation affected the course of literary history and how is it shaping literary expression today Literary experiment has always been diverse and challenging but never more so than in our age of digital media and social networking when the very category of the literary is coming under intense pressure How will literature reconfigure itself in the future The Routledge Companion to Experimental Literature maps this expansive and multifaceted field with essays on the history of literary experiment from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present the impact of new media on literature including multimodal literature digital fiction and code poetry the development of experimental genres from graphic narratives and found poetry through to gaming and interactive fiction experimental movements from Futurism and Surrealism to Postmodernism Avant Pop and Flarf Shedding new light on often critically neglected terrain the contributors introduce this vibrant area define its current state and offer exciting new perspectives on its future This volume is the ideal introduction for those approaching the study of experimental literature for the first time or looking to further their knowledge Wallace Stevens In Theory Thomas Gould,Ian Tan,2023-07-15 The modernist poetry of

Wallace Stevens is replete with moments of theorizing Stevens regarded poetry as an abstract medium through which to think about and theorize not only philosophical concepts like metaphor and reality but also a unifying thesis about the nature of poetry itself At the same time literary theorists and philosophers have often turned to Stevens as a canonical reference point and influence In the centenary year of Wallace Stevens s first collection Harmonium 1923 this collection asks what it means to theorize with Stevens today Through a range of critical and theoretical perspectives this book seeks to describe the myriad kinds of thinking sponsored by Stevens s poetry and explores how contemporary literary theory might be invigorated through readings of Stevens Practical Criticism Ivor Armstrong Richards,1929 Myself and My Aims Kurt

Schwitters,2021-03-10 Kurt Schwitters was a major protagonist in the histories of modern art and literature whose response to the contradictions of modern life rivals that of Marcel Duchamp in its importance for artists working today His celebrated Merz pictures collaged and assembled from the scrap materials of popular culture and the debris of the studio such as newspaper clippings wood cardboard fabric and paint reflect a lifelong interest in collection fragmentation and abstraction techniques he also applied to language and graphic design As the first anthology in English of the critical and theoretical writings of this influential artist Myself and My Aims makes the case for Schwitters as one of the most creative thinkers of his generation Including material that has never before been published this volume presents the full range of his prolific writing on the art and attitudes of his time joining existing translations of his children s stories poetry and fiction to give new readers unprecedented access to his literary imagination With an accessible introduction by Megan R Luke and elegant English translations by Timothy Grundy this book will prove an exceptional resource for artists scholars and enthusiasts of his art

Asian North American Identities Eleanor Ty,Donald C. Goellnicht,2004-04-29 The nine essays in Asian North American Identities explore how Asian North Americans are no longer caught between worlds of the old and the new the east and the west and the south and the north Moving beyond national and diasporic models of ethnic identity to focus on the individual feelings and experiences of those who are not part of a dominant white majority the essays collected here draw from a wide range of sources including novels art photography poetry cinema theatre and popular culture The book illustrates how Asian North Americans are developing new ways of seeing and thinking about themselves by eluding imposed identities and creating spaces that offer alternative sites from which to speak and imagine Contributors are Jeanne Yu Mei
