Reframing Abstract Expressionism Michael Leja, 1993 In this original and wide ranging study Michael Leja argues that Jackson Pollock Mark Rothko and other abstract expressionist artists were part of a culture wide initiative to reimagine the self Modernism's Masculine Subjects Marcia Brennan, 2004 Rejecting the typical view of formalism's exclusive engagement with essentialized and purified notions of abstraction and its disengagement from issues of gender and embodiment Brennan explores the ways in which these categories were intertwined Historically and theoretically Jacket

REFRAMING ABSTRACT EXPRESSIONISM. Michael Leja, 1993 Acrobatic Modernism from the Avant-garde to Prehistory Jed Rasula, 2020 Moving through a vast geographical cultural and artistic terrain and juxtaposing numerous modernist works this volume explores the multiplicity of modernism and provides in depth case studies including of James Joyce's Finnegans Wake the reception of jazz music in Europe and the Cubist movement in the visual arts Pollock and After Francis Frascina, 2000 This revised edition features ten new articles and is fully updated to take account of new critical approaches to post war American art Body Art/performing the Subject Amelia Jones, 1998 With great originality and scholarship Amelia Jones maps out an extraordinary history of body art over the last three decades and embeds it in the theoretical terrain of postmodernism The result is a wonderful and permissive space in which the viewer can wander Moira Roth Trefethen professor of art history Mills College The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman, 2012-03-26 In The Poetics of Slumberland Scott Bukatman celebrates play plasmatic possibility and the life of images in cartoons comics and cinema Bukatman begins with Winsor McCay's Little Nemo in Slumberland to explore how and why the emerging media of comics and cartoons brilliantly captured a playful rebellious energy characterized by hyperbolic emotion physicality and imagination The book broadens to consider similar animated behaviors in seemingly disparate media films about Jackson Pollock Pablo Picasso and Vincent van Gogh the musical My Fair Lady and the story of Frankenstein the slapstick comedies of Jerry Lewis and contemporary comic superheroes drawing them all together as the purveyors of embodied utopias of disorder Barnett Newman and Heideggerian Philosophy Claude Cernuschi, 2012-03-22 As a major member of the New York School Barnett Newman is celebrated for his radical explorations of color and scale and as a precursor to the Minimalist movement for his significant contribution to the development of twentieth century American art But if his reputation and place in history have grown progressively more secure the work he produced remains highly resistant to interpretation His paintings are rigorously abstract and his writings full of references to arcane metaphysical concepts Frustrated over their inability to reconcile the works with what the artist said about them some critics have dismissed the paintings as impenetrable The art historian Yve Alain Bois called Newman the most difficult artist he could name and the philosopher Jean Fran ois Lyotard declared that there is almost nothing to consume in his work or if there is I do not know what it is In order to advance interpretation this book investigates both Newman's writings and paintings in light of ideas articulated by one of Germany's most important and influential philosophers Martin Heidegger. Many of the themes explored in Newman's statements and echoed in the titles of his paintings betray numerous points of intersection with Heidegger's philosophy: the question of origins, the distinctiveness of human presence, a person's sense of place, the sensation of terror, the definition of freedom, the importance of mood to existence, the particularities of art and language, the impact of technology on modern life, the meaning of time and the human being's relationship to others and to the divine. When examined in the context of Heideggerian thought, these issues acquire greater concreteness and in turn their relation to the artist's paintings becomes clearer. It is the contention of this book that at the intersection of art history and philosophy, an interdisciplinary framework emerges wherein the artist's broader motivations and the specific meanings of his paintings prove more amenable to elucidation.

Reframing Modernism: Painting from Southeast Asia, Europe and Beyond Low Sze Wee, Horikawa Lisa, Phoebe Scott, 2016-03-31 What is modernism in Southeast Asia? What is modern art as embodied in the paintings of Southeast Asia? These questions and more are answered in Reframing Modernism: Painting from Southeast Asia, Europe and Beyond, published in conjunction with the exhibition of the same name. Featuring 217 works in full colour by 51 Southeast Asian and European artists from the Centre Pompidou and National Gallery Singapore, as well as other Southeast Asian collections in the region and beyond, this catalogue tells the compelling story of modernism as it developed across continents and reveals artists' powerful and sometimes surprising responses to modernity.

Think Tank Aesthetics Pamela M. Lee, 2020-03-17 How the approaches and methods of think tanks, including systems theory, operational research and cybernetics, paved the way for a peculiar genre of midcentury modernism. In Think Tank Aesthetics, Pamela Lee traces the complex encounters between Cold War think tanks and the art of that era. Lee shows how the approaches and methods of think tanks, including systems theory, operations research and cybernetics, paved the way for a peculiar genre of midcentury modernism and set the terms for contemporary neoliberalism Lee casts these shadowy institutions as sites of radical creativity and interdisciplinary practice in the service of defense strategy Describing the distinctive aesthetics that emerged from such institutions as the RAND Corporation she maps the multiple and overlapping networks that connected nuclear strategists mathematicians economists anthropologists artists designers and art historians Lee recounts among other things the decades long colloquy between Albert Wohlstetter a RAND analyst and his former professor the famous art historian Meyer Schapiro the anthropologist Margaret Mead s deployment of innovative visual aids that recall midcentury abstract art and the combination of cybernetics and modernist design in an Opsroom for the short lived socialist government of Salvador Allende in 1970s Chile and its restaging many years later as a work of art Lee suggests that we think of these connections less as disciplinary border crossings than as colonization of the specific interests of arts by the approaches and methods of the sciences Hearing the echoes of think tank aesthetics in today s pursuit of the interdisciplinary and in academia s science infused justification of the humanities Lee wonders what territory has been ceded in a laboratory approach to the arts rescuing it from picturesque depictions of the English countryside and resituating it as an art form capable of expressing radical ideas The old European tradition of landscape mostly concerned with ownership and leisure and not the daily life of the working class was of no interest to Lanyon His work instead reframed the consequences of war and industrialization upon a rapidly changing coastal landscape In Peter Lanyon Andrew Causey sets out to explain just how this transformation occurred Lanyon s family resided in West Cornwall for generations and Causey asserts that the artist s concern with regional identity along with his resistance to what he saw as a history of outsider exploitation of St Ives and the surrounding areas were integral to his art Drawing on recent work by cultural geographers anthropologists and archeologists Causey makes sense of Lanyon s relationship to the landscape and the pre capitalist economy of his region Provocative and insightful Peter Lanyon is a thoroughly illuminating examination of the modern life of a landscape artist Men Only.
