Joseph Ruane, Jennifer Todd, 2014-06-11 Religion has regained political prominence in the twenty first century and not least for the manner in which it intersects with ethnicity Many ethnic conflicts have a strong religious dimension and religion appears as a powerful force for mobilisation solidarity and violence Religion and ethnicity can each act as a powerful base of identity group formation and communal conflict They can also overlap with ethnic and religious boundaries coinciding partially or completely internally nested or intersecting This volume maps the different forms of intersection cases where religion is prioritised in private life and ethnicity in public where each coexists in tension in political life and where the distinctions reinforce each other with dynamic effects It maps the different patterns with case studies and comparisons from Ireland Northern Ireland France Zimbabwe Ghana and Malaysia It shows how ordinary people construct their solidarities and identities using both ethnic and religious resources This opens up analysis of the socially transformative as well as politically antagonistic potential of religion in situations of ethnic division This book was published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics

Religion, Ethnicity and Social Change L. Fawcett, 2000-03-02 In Religion Ethnicity and Social Change the author argues that the recent focus on religious fundamentalism in ethnic conflict has obscured the ambiguous role of mainstream Western religion The book examines the relationship between the religious and secular spheres at a time of rapid transition in South Africa and Northern Ireland Religion, Ethnicity and Xenophobia in the Bible Brian Rainey, 2018-11-21 Religion Ethnicity and Xenophobia in the Bible looks at some of the Bible's most hostile and violent anti foreigner texts and raises critical questions about how students of the Bible and ancient Near East should grapple with ethnicity and foreignness conceptually hermeneutically and theologically The author uses insights from social psychology cognitive psychology anthropology sociology and ethnic studies to develop his own perspective on ethnicity and foreignness Starting with legends about Mesopotamian kings from the third millennium BCE then navigating the Deuteronomistic and Holiness traditions of the Hebrew Bible and finally turning to Deuterocanonicals and the Apostle Paul the book assesses the diverse and often inconsistent portrayals of foreigners in these ancient texts This examination of the negative portrayal of foreigners in biblical and Mesopotamian texts also leads to a broader discussion about how to theorize ethnicity in biblical studies ancient studies and the humanities This volume will be invaluable to students of ethnicity and society in the Bible at all levels Ethnicity,

Horrell, 2018-06-28 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Religion ethnicity and race are facets of human identity that have become increasingly contested in the study of the Bible largely due to the modern discipline of biblical studies having developed in the context of Western Europe concurrent with the emergence of various racial and imperial ideologies The essays in this volume address Western domination by focusing on historical facets of ethnicity and race in antiquity the identities of Jews and Christians and the critique of scholarly ideologies and racial assumptions which have shaped this branch of study The contributors critique various Western European and North American contexts and bring fresh perspectives from other global contexts providing insights into how biblical studies can escape its enmeshment in often racist notions of ethnicity race empire nationhood and religion Covering issues ranging from translation and racial stereotyping to analysing the significance of race in Genesis and the problems of an imperialist perspective this volume is vital not only for biblical scholars but those invested in Christian Jewish and Muslim identity Religion, Ethnicity, and Identity in Ancient

BOOK JACKET This Side of Heaven : Race, Ethnicity, and Christian Faith PhD Program in Intercultural Studies Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Robert J. Priest Director,Illinois Alvaro L. Nieves Professor of Sociology Wheaton College,2006-11-10 In recent years Christian scholars have become increasingly aware of their responsibility to recognize and respond to the challenges posed by ethnic and racial diversity Similarly historically white Christian colleges universities seminaries and congregations are struggling to transform themselves into communities that are welcoming to minorities and sensitive to their needs This collection of all new essays is meant to enable those who are engaged in these initiatives to understand the historical linkage of race ethnicity and Christianity and to explore the ways in which constructive change can be achieved The volume is the product of a long term study funded by the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology In the course of this study it emerged that many Christian institutions now offer courses on race and ethnicity but that there is very little relevant literature written from the standpoint of rigorous Christian scholarship This book is intended to fill that gap The authors address such questions as What has been the history of Christian churches and leaders in relation to slavery segregation and apartheid Which biblical texts and doctrines have historically been employed on behalf of racial projects and which are relevant to the racial and ethnic crises of our day How have religious leaders constructively engaged such crises How do congregations shape the values civic commitments understandings and sensitivities of their membership How can local congregations be sites for racial reconciliation and justice initiatives Are there positive models for how churches and other religious institutions have helped to bring healing to racial and ethnic tensions and divides How might Christians in the professions work to bring justice to business education government and other areas of society When good intentions fail to accomplish desired ends how do we analyze what went wrong Written by an interracial and interethnic team of scholars representing diverse disciplines this book will meet a pressing need and set a new standard for the discussion of race and ethnicity in the Christian context Ethnicity, Politics, and Society in Northeast Africa Mohammed Ali,1996 This book deals with the dimensions of ethnicity and ethnic interaction in Northeast Africa It proposes a mechanism to establish a condition of peaceful co existence among ethnic groups in the region Contents List of Tables and Diagrams Foreword Preface Acknowledgements Language and Ethnicity Religion and Ethnicity Territory and Ethnicity Conflict History Conflict Management Systems Peace Democracy and Regulation of Conflict References Index Faith and Ethnicity Borght,Dirk van Keulen,Martien Brinkman,2019-12-30 In writing In Christ there is neither Jew nor Greek the apostle Paul touched on a topic that still is hotly debated among christians today the relationship between faith and ethnicity The Reformed Churches usually organised along regional or national lines are no exception and wrestle world wide with the issue This volume offers Asian and African perspectives especially exploring the Indonesian and South African context This and the next volume of Studies in Reformed Theology contain contributions to the fourth international conference of the International Reformed Theological Institute IRTI held in Princeton N J U S A 2001 on the theme of Faith and Ethnicity The ^AOxford Handbook of Religion and Race in American History Kathryn Gin Lum,Paul Harvey,2018-03-01 In The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Race in American History thirty six scholars investigate the complex interdependencies of religion and race through American history The volume covers the religious experience social realities theologies and sociologies of racialized groups in American religious history as well as the ways that religion contributed to and challenged their racialization The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell,Stefan Wolff,2016-01-22 A definitive global survey of the interaction of ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends rigorous theoretically grounded analysis with empirically rich illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today Fully updated for the second edition the book includes a new section which offers detailed analyses of contemporary cases of conflict such as in Ukraine Kosovo the African Great Lakes region and in the Kurdish areas across the Middle East thus providing accessible examples that bridge the gap between theory and practice The contributors offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a particular place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed The Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain a better insight into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegration of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences the genocide in Rwanda and the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of their prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict Karl Cordell, Stefan Wolff, 2010-10-18 A definitive global survey of the interaction of race ethnicity nationalism and politics this handbook blends theoretically grounded rigorous analysis with empirical illustrations to provide a state of the art overview of the contemporary debates on one of the most pervasive international security challenges today The contributors to this volume offer a 360 degree perspective on ethnic conflict from the theoretical foundations of nationalism and ethnicity to the causes and consequences of ethnic conflict and to the various strategies adopted in response to it Without privileging any specific explanation of why ethnic conflict happens at a specific place and time or why attempts at preventing or settling it might fail or succeed the Routledge Handbook of Ethnic Conflict enables readers to gain better insights into such defining moments in post Cold War international history as the disintegrations of the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia and their respective consequences and the genocide in Rwanda as well as the relative success of conflict settlement efforts in Northern Ireland Macedonia and Aceh By contributing to understanding the varied and multiple causes of ethnic conflicts and to learning from the successes and failures of its prevention and settlement the Handbook makes a powerful case that ethnic conflicts are neither unavoidable nor unresolvable but rather that they require careful analysis and thoughtful and measured responses

Faith and Race in American Political Life Robin Dale Jacobson, Nancy D. Wadsworth, 2012-02-02 Drawing on scholarship from an array of disciplines this volume provides a deep and timely look at the intertwining of race and religion in American politics The contributors apply the methods of intersectionality but where this approach has typically considered race class and gender the essays collected here focus on religion too to offer a theoretically robust conceptualization of how these elements intersect and how they are actively impacting the political process Contributors
