Imagining God Garrett Green, 1998 Garrett Green examines the point at which divine revelation and human experience meet where the priority of grace is acknowledged while allowing its dynamics to be described in analytical and comparative terms as a religious phenomenon A Man of Many Parts Eugene E. Lemcio, 2015-03-19

This collection of essays by colleagues former students and friends illustrates something of the breadth and depth of subjects that have engaged the life and thought of the Reverend Doctor John Westerdale Bowker His clerical and academic appointments in Cambridge Lancaster London and North America further illustrate the integrative nature of his spiritual and intellectual way of being and acting The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology Alan Richardson, John Bowden, 1983-01-01

The Westminster Dictionary of Christian Theology is an important reference for any pastor scholar or student of theology The articles are clearly written historically informative and conceptually clarifying The entries are arranged alphabetically for ease of use Approaches to the Study of Religion Peter Connolly, 2001-11-30 It has been argued that religious studies is a polymethodic discipline and that the student of religion should be familiar with the approaches of the major disciplines concerned with understanding the nature of religion not least because the approach adopted has profound influence on the phenomena chose for investigation and the conclusions reached This book is the first textbook specifically designed for undergraduate students that provides the essential background on methods of the major relevant disciplines Presenting each of the significant approaches to religion in an informed manner the book brings together experienced researchers from feminism anthropology sociology phenomenology psychology philosophy and theology It presents a consistent approach throughout with each chapter dealing with the same themes the historical development of the approach the characteristics of the approach and the surrounding issues and debates Poetry and the Religious

Imagination Dr David Lonsdale, Dr Francesca Bugliani Knox, 2015-01-28 What is the role of spiritual experience in poetry How do poetic imagination and religious beliefs interact Exploring such questions through the concept of the religious imagination this book integrates interdisciplinary research in the area of poetry on the one hand and theology philosophy and Christian spirituality on the other Established theologians philosophers literary critics and creative writers explain the primary role of imagination in the writing and reading of poetry Deeper Than Darwin John Haught, 2018-05-04 In his acclaimed book God After Darwin John Haught argued that religious belief is wholly compatible with evolutionary biology Now in Deeper Than Darwin he advances his argument further by saying that religious belief is even more revealing about life than Darwinism

Haught looks hard at the question of how after Darwin religions may plausibly claim to be bearers of truth and not just of meaning and adaptive consolation While he assumes the fundamental correctness of evolutionary biology he firmly rejects the non scientific belief that evolutionary biology amounts to an adequate explanation of living phenomena Even though Darwinism is illuminating Haught argues it by no means tells us everything we need to know about life even in principle To find the deepest though certainly not the clearest understandings of life and the universe we may still profitably consult the religions of the world Deeper Than Darwin takes up where God After Darwin left off arguing that Darwin s vision is important and essentially correct but that we can still dig deeper in our understanding of what is going on in the life story

The Role of Death in Life Fr. John Behr, Conor Cunningham, 2015-08-31 The relation between life and death is a subject of perennial relevance for all human beings and indeed the whole world and the entire universe in as much as according to the saying of ancient Greek philosophy all things that come into being pass away Yet it is also a topic of increasing complexity for life and death now appear to be more intertwined than previously or commonly thought Moreover the relation between life and death is also one of increasing urgency as through the twin phenomena of an increase in longevity unprecedented in human history and the rendering of death dying and the dead person all but invisible people living in the industrialized and post industrialized Western world of today have lost touch with the reality of death This radically new situation and predicament has implications medical ethical economic philosophical and not least theological that have barely begun to be addressed This volume gathers together essays by a distinguished and diverse group of scientists theologians philosophers and health practitioners originally presented in a symposium sponsored by the John Templeton Foundation
