Goodwin,2014-08-05 From the speechwriter and top adviser to presidents Kennedy and Johnson A behind the scenes history of the most momentous decade in American politics Richard N

Goodwin entered public service in 1958 as a law clerk for Supreme Court Associate Justice Felix Frankfurter. He left politics ten years later in the aftermath of Senator Robert F. Kennedy's assassination. Over the course of one extraordinary decade, Goodwin orchestrated some of the noblest achievements in the history of the US government and bore witness to two of its greatest tragedies. His eloquent and inspirational memoir is one of the most captivating chronicles of those turbulent years ever published. From the Twenty One quiz show scandal to the heady days of John F. Kennedy's presidential campaign to President Lyndon Johnson's heroic vote wrangling on behalf of civil rights legislation, Remembering America brings to life the most fascinating figures and events of the era. As a member of the Kennedy administration, Goodwin charted a new course for US relations with Latin America and met in secret with Che Guevara in Uruguay. He wrote Johnson's historic civil rights speech, "We Shall Overcome," in support of the Voting Rights Act of 1965 and formulated the concept of the Great Society and its programs which sought to eradicate poverty and racial injustice. After breaking with Johnson over the president's commitment to the Vietnam War, Goodwin played a pivotal role in bringing antiwar candidate Eugene McCarthy to within a few hundred votes of victory in the 1968 New Hampshire primary. Three months later, he was with his good friend Robert F. Kennedy in Los Angeles the night that the young senator's life and the progressive movement that had rapidly brought about such significant change came to a devastating end. Throughout this critical decade, Goodwin held steadfast to the passions and principles that had first led him to public service. Remembering America is a thrilling account of the breathtaking victories and heartbreaking disappointments of the 1960s and a rousing call to action for readers committed to justice today.

The US, NATO and Military Burden-Sharing Stephen J. Cimbala, Peter Forster, 2005-10-21. This study establishes that the political, economic, and military technological changes that transform the international system also alter the way in which a state views its and others' responsibilities and burdens for responding to international crises. It assesses the distribution of the costs of raising and supporting arms of service, the risks of deploying them overseas and using them in combat or peace operations, and the extent to which members have a responsibility for maintaining international order in the context of three instances of multinational military intervention: the Multinational Force deployment in Lebanon in 1982-83, the first Persian Gulf War in 1990-91, and the UN and NATO intervention in Bosnia Herzegovina. Early Modern Exchanges Helen Hackett, 2016-03-09. Marcus Gheeraerts's portrait of a Persian lady, probably in fact an English lady in masquing costume, exemplifies the hybridity of early modern English culture. Her surrounding landscape and the embroidery on her gown are typically English, but her head dress and slippers are decidedly exotic; the inscriptions beside her are Latin, and her creator was an incomer artist. She is emblematic of the early modern culture of exchange, both between England and its neighbours and between Europe and the wider world. This volume presents fresh research into such early modern exchanges, exploring how new identities, subjectivities, and artefacts were forged in dialogues and encounters between diverse cultures, nations, and language communities. The early modern period was a time of creative interactions between cultures and disciplines, and accordingly this is a multidisciplinary volume drawing together international experts in literature history modern and ancient languages and art history It understands cultural exchange as encompassing both the geographical mobilities of travel and trade and the transmission of ideas across borders and between languages as enabled by the new technology of print Sites of exchange were located not only in distant and unfamiliar lands but also in the bookseller's shop and the scholar's study The volume also explores the productive and complex dialogues between early modern culture and the classical past The types of exchanges discussed include the linguistic transactions of translation and imitation interactions between cultural elites such as monarchs courtiers and diplomats and the catalytic influences of particularly mobile or outward looking individuals and groups Ranging from the neo Latin poetry of an English author to the plays of a nun in seventeenth century New Spain from royal portraits exchanged in diplomatic negotiations to travelling companions in the Ottoman Empire the volume sheds new light Miss Churchill Christian Reid,1887

Founding Gardeners Andrea Wulf,2012-04-03 A groundbreaking look at the Founding Fathers and their obsession with gardening agriculture and botany by the author of Magnificent Rebels and New York Times bestseller The Invention of Nature Illuminating and engrossing The New York Times Book Review For the Founding Fathers gardening agriculture and botany were elemental passions a conjoined interest as deeply ingrained in their characters as the battle for liberty and a belief in the greatness of their new nation Founding Gardeners is an exploration of that obsession telling the story of the revolutionary generation from the unique perspective of their lives as gardeners plant hobbyists and farmers Acclaimed historian Andrea Wulf describes how George Washington wrote letters to his estate manager even as British warships gathered off Staten Island how a tour of English gardens renewed Thomas Jefferson's and John Adams's faith in their fledgling nation and why James Madison is the forgotten father of environmentalism Through these and other stories Wulf reveals a fresh nuanced portrait of the men who created our nation The Edinburgh Review,1827 *Post-Brexit.
