Responsa From The Holocaust:

Responsa from the Holocaust Efraim Oshry, 1983 Rabbinic Responsa of the Holocaust Era Robert S. Kirschner, 1985 A translation of 14 rabbinic responsa halakhic rulings issued during and immediately after the Holocaust which reveal the tragic situations occurring daily at this time The issues discussed include whether one is obliged to object to the sterilization of a mentally ill woman whether it is permissible to stun an animal before ritual slaughter the status of Jewish prisoners ashes which were returned to their families after Kristallnacht whether one must repent for inadvertently suffocating a crying infant while hiding from the Nazis the status of Jews who converted to Christianity in order to avoid deportation whether one may ransom a family member at the expense of another's life and whether one may volunteer to die in order to save a Torah scholar Holocaust Responsa in the Kovno Ghetto (1941-1944) Ephraim Kaye, 2009

Shoah and Torah David Patterson, 2021-11-18 Shoah and Torah systematically takes up the task of reading the Shoah through the lens of the Torah and the Torah through the lens of the Shoah The investigation rests upon 1 the metaphysical standing that the Nazis ascribed to the Torah 2 the obliteration of the Torah in the extermination of the Jews 3 the significance of the Torah for an understanding of the Shoah and 4 the significance of the Shoah for an understanding of the Torah The basis for the inquiry lies not in the content of a certain belief but in the categories of a certain mode of thought Distinct from all other studies this book is grounded in the categories of Jewish thought and Judaism the categories of creation revelation and redemption that the Nazis sought to obliterate in the Shoah Thus the investigation is itself a response to the Nazi project of the extermination of the Jews and the millennial testimony of the Jews to the Torah Health Care and the Ethics of Encounter Laurie Zoloth, 1999 The last several years have seen a sharpening of debate in the United States regarding the problem of steadily increasing medical expenditures as well as inflation in health care costs a scarcity of health care resources and a lack of access for a growing population Jewish Law and American Law, Volume 2 Samuel J.

Levine, 2021-02-16 This volume contributes to the growing field of comparative Jewish and American law presenting twenty six essays characterized by a number of distinct features The essays will appeal to legal scholars and at the same time will be accessible and of interest to a more general audience of intellectually curious readers These contributions are faithful to Jewish law on its own terms while applying comparative methods to offer fresh perspectives on complex issues in the Jewish legal system Through careful comparative analysis the essays also turn to Jewish law to provide insights into substantive and conceptual areas of the American legal system particularly areas of American law that are complex controversial and unsettled The Routledge Handbook to Auschwitz-Birkenau Sarah M. Cushman, Joanne Pettitt, Dominic Williams, 2025-08-12 This handbook examines Auschwitz Birkenau as both a site and a symbol of Nazi genocide Scholars from a range of disciplinary perspectives consider Auschwitz's history by engaging with Holocaust historiography and its place in Holocaust memory and representation illustrating their mutual influence The chapters bring new insights to topics that other studies of Auschwitz have explored before such as the Sonderkommando the Czech family camp and literary representations of Auschwitz Other chapters cover recent developments and more neglected areas such as the experience and memory of Romani prisoners the fate of Soviet prisoners of war and Auschwitz's presence on social media The handbook also responds to a number of recent trends and new paradigms in Holocaust Studies including contributions from the fields of Environmental Studies Spatial Studies and Gender Studies As a crucial overview of the topic of Auschwitz Birkenau and an introduction to its most recent and fruitful scholarly approaches this handbook will be a valuable resource for undergraduates from second year and up as well as for graduate students and researchers seeking a survey of the field

Jewish Responses to Persecution: 1938-1940 Alexandra Garbarini, 2011-08-16 Published in association with the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum Jewish Responses to Persecution Volume II 1938-1940 is the second volume of the five volume set within the series Documenting Life and Destruction Holocaust Sources in Context This volume brings together in an accessible historical narrative a broad range of documents including diaries letters speeches newspaper articles reports Jewish identity cards and personal photographs from Jews in Nazi dominated Europe and beyond Europe's borders The volume skillfully illuminates the daily lives of a diverse range of Jews who suffered under Nazism their coping strategies and their efforts to assess the implications for the present and future of the persecution they faced during this period Volume II begins with Kristallnacht in 1938 and continues through the Jewish flight out of Germany the onset of World War II the forced relocation of the Jews of Europe to the East and the formation of Jewish ghettos particularly in Poland The twelve chapters divided into four parts track the trajectory of German expansion and anti Jewish policies chronologically attesting to a clear progression of persecution over time and space At the same time they reflect the vast differences in the responses of Jewish communities groups and individuals within and beyond the Germans grasp differences that resulted both from the unevenness of the Reich's policy toward Jews as well as the varied backgrounds traditions expectations and life histories of Jews affected by German policy This volume raises essential questions such as What was the spectrum of Jewish perceptions and actions under Nazi domination How did Jews affected directly or others standing on the outside view the situation In what ways were Jews able to influence their own fate under persecution What role did Jewish tradition play in how the present and future were interpreted The answers inherent in the documents are often varied or inconclusive nonetheless these sources add considerably to our understanding of the Holocaust

"We are Here" Avinoam J. Patt, Michael Berkowitz, 2010 Collects groundbreaking research on displaced persons (DPs) in Europe in the period after World War II and before the establishment of Israel By the spring of 1947 less than two years after Nazi Germany's defeat some 250 000 Jewish refugees remained in the displaced persons camps of Germany Italy and Austria Yet many Jews did not know whether to return to their home countries or move on to someplace else As a result these stateless displaced persons (DPs) created a unique space for political cultural and social rebirth that was tempered by the complications of overcoming recent trauma In

We Are Here editors Avinoam J Patt and Michael Berkowitz present current research on DPs between the end of the war and the creation of the State of Israel in order to present a more complete and nuanced picture of the DP experience challenging many earlier assumptions about this group Contributors to this volume analyze art music and literature of the DPs as well as historical records of specific DP communities to explore the first reactions of survivors to liberation and their understanding of place in the context of postwar Germany and in Europe more generally A number of the contributions in this volume challenge prior interpretations of Jewish DPs and Holocaust survivors including the supposedly unified background of the DP population the notion of a general reluctance to confront the past the idea of Zionism as an inevitable success after the war and the suggestion that Jews despite their presence in Germany strenuously avoided contact with Germans Far from constituting a monolithic whole then We Are Here demonstrates that the DPs were composed of diverse groups with disparate wartime experiences Responding to burgeoning scholarship on DPs and related issues We Are Here sifts through the copious records DPs left behind to shed light on the many facets of a vibrant DP society Scholars of the Holocaust and all readers concerned with the Jewish experience immediately after World War II will be grateful for this volume

Jewish Responses to Persecution: 1938-1940 Jürgen Matthäus, Mark Roseman, Alexandra Garbarini, Emil Kerenji, Jan Lambertz, Avinoam Patt, 2010 Volume II begins with Kristallnacht in 1938 and continues through Jewish flight out of Germany the onset of World War II the forced relocation of the Jews of Europe to the East and the formation of Jewish ghettos particularly in Poland
