Martindale, 2007-07-10 Addressing key topics in child custody evaluation this book provides essential knowledge for practitioners who want to meet the highest standards for both scientific validity and legal admissibility The authors are leading experts who describe the latest data based approaches to understanding and assessing relevant child parent and family factors Going beyond the basics the book gives in depth attention to challenging frequently encountered issues such as how to evaluate allegations of domestic violence child sexual abuse and child alienation Also covered are the complexities of interviewing children effectively and working in the adversarial forensic context A user friendly appendix contains sample letters and statements of understanding with permission to photocopy

Rethinking Inclusive Education: The Philosophers of Difference in Practice Julie Allan, 2007-11-07 One of the important responsibilities that advocates of inclusion need to continually practise is that of self criticism This includes examining and re examining the assumptions informing our perspectives the concepts that we use including inclusive education and our intentions especially in relation to the question of change We need to beware of the danger of unexamined orthodoxies the possibilities of adopting inclusive language with little if any changes in our thinking and practice and a sterile and insensitive position with regard to the pursuit of new or alternative ideas In this very important book Allan powerfully reminds us of the necessity and centrality of these concerns and provides a direct perceptive and thoughtful examination and critique of the varied barriers to the task of how to make inclusion happen Allan challenges the reader to step back and re-examine the rationale for inclusion through an alternative mindset She challenges the varied attacks upon inclusion including those in the education business to stop using economic it costs too much and pedagogical it is bad for the other children in the class and traumatic for the disabled children and social just too much for the teacher's workload reasons for closing the door and doing the right thing and those who argue that inclusion was an experiment that did not work
