Rifleman A Novel:

The Rifleman Oliver North, 2019-12-10 This is a war story It s about real people and events before and during the American Revolution The central characters in this work Daniel Morgan George Washington Patrick Henry Charles Mynn Thruston and Generals Arnold Knox Greene Lee Gates and a host of others actually did the deeds at the places and times described herein So too did their accurately identified foreign and native adversaries Though this is a work of fiction readers may be surprised to discover the American Revolution was also one of the most un civil of Civil Wars If Daniel Morgan were alive today he would be my near neighbor in Virginia s beautiful Shenandoah Valley While visiting a nearby gristmill Daniel Morgan and Nathaniel Burwell a fellow Revolutionary War veteran built in the late 1700s now restored and operated by the Clarke County Historical Association I became fascinated by this unsung American hero My good friend Oliver North has spent his life in the company of heroes In this great read he tells the stories of some of my personal heroes the Riflemen you will meet in this book LTG William G Jerry Boykin former commander U S Army Special Forces and author of six books including his autobiography Never Surrender

The Rifleman Cole Fannin, 2019-10-22 The Rifleman was a classic Western television program starring Chuck Connors as rancher Lucas McCain and Johnny Crawford as his son Mark McCain Set in the 1870s and 1880s in the fictional town of North Fork New Mexico Territory the show was filmed in black and white in half hour episodes The Rifleman aired on ABC from September 30 1958 to April 8 1963 as a production of Four Star Television It was one of the first prime time series on US television to show a single parent raising a child Here is the official Rifleman novel

The Rifleman Christopher Sharrett, 2005 A comprehensive analysis of what many consider to be television s most intelligent western The Rifleman is perhaps the most significant and intelligent of the TV westerns from the late 1950s an era when the western was the dominant television genre With its story of a single father raising a son in 1880s New Mexico The Rifleman offered many alternatives to the conventions of the western It also embodied many of the genre s contradictions setting its ideas about domesticity and level headedness alongside the gun violence adopted by westerns as central to the settling of the West and the creation of America With its initial episodes written and directed by celebrated auteur Sam Peckinpah and the overall series produced by veteran Dick Powell and the pioneering television production team of Jules Levy Arthur Gardner and Arnold Laven The Rifleman is distinguished by its stewardship of some of the most talented minds of early television In his succinct study of this television milestone Christopher Sharrett uses television studies psychoanalytic criticism gender studies and American studies to place The Rifleman within the TV western genre and early television culture While discussing the intelligence and lasting value of this series Sharrett also challenges the reader to consider the broader role of 1950s television in shaping the consciousness of the postwar generation The Rifleman remains one of the great examples of the stalemates within American mass culture the struggle between reason and violence The Rifleman's Rifle Roger C. Rule, 2009-07 The Military Novel Russell S. Spindler, 1964 Rifleman Dodd C. S.

Forester,2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1943 edition Transnational Politics in the Post-9/11 Novel Joseph Conte,2019-11-22 Transnational Politics in the Post 9 11 Novel suggests that literature after September 11 2001 reflects the shift from bilateral nation state politics to the multilateralism of transnational politics While much of the criticism regarding novels of 9 11 tends to approach these works through theories of personal and collective trauma this book argues for the evolution of a post 9 11 novel that pursues a transversal approach to global conflicts that are unlikely to be resolved without diverse peoples willing to set aside sectarian interests These novels embrace not only American writers such as Don DeLillo Dave Eggers Ken Kalfus Thomas Pynchon and Amy Waldman but also the countervailing perspectives of global novelists such as J M Coetzee Orhan Pamuk Mohsin Hamid and Laila Halaby These are not novels about terrorism nor do they seek comfort in the respectful cloak of national mourning Rather they are instances of the novel in terror which recognizes that everything having been changed after 9 11 only the formally inventive presentation will suffice to acknowledge the event s unpresentability and its shock to the political order Current Literature ,1921 Tim Murphy, Rifleman Roy F.
