heads and brain remain the same Lancaster jail is a tough place to be incarcerated It contains five hundred prisoners all serving life sentences and is under strict control Then the Government decides that with the new invention they intend to exchange prisoners at the jail with very old eminent people who contributed greatly to society thereby extending their lives by thirty forty or fifty years It mean that a thirty five year old prisoner would exchange his body with an eighty eight year old man The reasoning was that the inmates in the prison were simply rotting away uselessly Although their lives would be very much shortened after the exchange the recipients of their bodies would be able to live many years longer and continue to benefit the community The equipment is set up at Lytham St Annes and prisoners are sent there regularly to undergo the body exchange At the same time well known celebrities and people of rank were invited to gain a new lease of life However problems soon arise Firstly the number of prisoners serving life sentences become used up and the Government has to seek donors from mental institutions Secondly because of its horrendous nature the Government insists that it remains totally secret However a television news reporter by the name of Sky Summers investigates and will not let go People are assassinated by the Government for interfering in the process and Lancaster jail becomes empty and is scheduled to close Bill Preston its Governor is in despair The controller of the project Alan Jordan eventually realises the inhumane nature of the project and he decides to revolt against it There are many twists and turns in this tale but it instils horror in the reader for there is worse to come

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
