The A to Z of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry,Venise T. Berry,2009-09-02 On 4 July 1910 in 100 degree heat at an outdoor boxing ring near Reno Nevada film cameras recorded and thousands of fans witnessed former heavyweight champion Jim Jeffries reluctant return from retirement to fight Jack Johnson a black man After 14 grueling rounds Johnson knocked out Jeffries and for the first time in history there was a black heavyweight champion of the world At least 10 people lost their lives because of Johnson s victory and hundreds more were injured due to white retaliation and wild celebrations in the streets Public screenings received instantaneous protests and hundreds of cities barred the film from being shown Congress even passed a law making it a federal offense to transport moving pictures of prizefights across state lines and thus the most powerful portrayal of a black man ever recorded on film was made virtually invisible This is but one of the hundreds of films covered in The A to Z of African American Cinema which includes everything from The Birth of a Nation to Crash In addition to the films brief biographies of African American actors and actresses such as Sidney Poitier James Earl Jones Halle Berry Eddie Murphy Whoopi Goldberg Denzel Washington and Jamie Foxx can be found in this reference Through a chronology a list of acronyms and abbreviations an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards film credits and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history

Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema S. Torriano Berry, Venice T. Berry, 2015-05-07 As early as 1909 African Americans were utilizing the new medium of cinema to catalogue the world around them using the film camera as a device to capture their lives and their history The daunting subject of race and ethnicity permeated life in America at the turn of the twentieth century and due to the effect of certain early films specific television images and an often biased news media it still plagues us today As new technologies bring the power of the moving image to the masses African Americans will shoot and edit on laptop computers and share their stories with a global audience via the World Wide Web These independently produced visions will add to the diverse cache of African American images being displayed on an ever expanding silver screen This wide range of stories topics views and genres will finally give the world a glimpse of African American life that has long been ignored and has yet to be seen This second edition of Historical Dictionary of African American Cinema covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1400 cross referenced entries on actors actresses movies producers organizations awards and terminology this book provides a better understanding of the role African Americans played in film history This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about African American cinema The Worcester Magazine compilation now includes recordings by groups such as the Fisk Jubilee Singers the Pace Jubilee Singers and the Tuskegee Institute Singers who although they employed African American materials and musical devices were designed to appeal to a predominantly white audience Early cylinder recordings of gospel music from the 1890s are included for the first time Previous editions of this work are applauded for their completeness accuracy and reliability This has now been enhanced by the addition of new information from record labels and from record company files and by listening to a wide selection of titles and detailed cross checking
