The Moscow Notebooks Osip Mandel'shtam, 1991 Mandelstam was one of the great Russian poets of the twentieth century with a prophetic understanding of its suffering This contains the poems of his years of persecution from his journey to Armenia in 1930 until 1934 when he was arrested and exiled to the Urals for writing an unflattering poem about Stalin Written and preserved by a miracle his poems have become in Peter Levi's description all gems and ingots in the McKanes translations This edition is now out of print but the whole book is reprinted as part of The Moscow and Voronezh Notebooks

The Voronezh Notebooks Osip Mandel'shtam, 1996 Osip Mandelstam was one of the great poets of the twentieth century with a prophetic understanding of its suffering which he transformed into luminous poetry Childish and wise joyous and angry at once complex and simple he was sustained for 20 years by his wife and memoirist Nadezhda Mandelstam who became with Anna Akhmatova the saviour of his poetry In May 1934 after years of persecution Mandelstam was arrested for writing an unflattering poem about Stalin and subjected to gruelling interrogations and torture He attempted suicide twice slashing his wrists in prison and jumping from a hospital window in Cherdyn Exiled to Voronezh he seemed crushed A friend described him then as in a state of numbness His eyes were glassy His eyelids were inflamed and this condition never went away His eyelashes had fallen out His arm was in a sling But it was to be four more years before Mandelstam was completely beaten In Voronezh he broke a silence of 18 months after a concert by the young violinist Galina Baranova Her music released him into the most fertile phase of his writing his last two years in exile when he wrote the ninety poems of the three Voronezh Notebooks Nadezhda's memoir Hope Against Hope includes a moving account of their time in Voronezh and Anna Akhmatova's poem Voronezh describes her visit there in 1936 when in the room of the exiled poet fear and the Muse stand duty in turn and the night is endless and knows no dawn This edition is now out of print but the whole book is reprinted as part of The Moscow and Voronezh Notebooks Actor Training Alison Hodge, 2010-01-29 Presents an introduction to how actor training shapes modern theatre Reference Guide to Russian Literature Neil Cornwell, 2013-12-02 First Published in

Pradip Baksi, 2020-11-01 This collection of various texts on Karl Marx and Mathematics is the revised and extended second edition of the Special Supplement to Karl Marx Mathematical Manuscripts 1994 Calcutta Viswakos titled Marx and Mathematics The sources of the texts included in the three parts of this collection and some biographical information about their respective authors have been indicated at the end of each text The emergence and development of the Ethnomathematics movement continue to change our understanding of the history of evolution of plural mathematics on planet earth since the Neolithic age Rediscovery and study of some of the neglected source texts have further energized investigations on the subsequent history of mathematical cultures including those on the histories of algebra and analysis in some of the ancient and medieval languages of Asia like Sanskrit Arabic and Malayalam Consequently it is now possible to indicate some of the larger gaps in the dominant understanding of history of mathematics not only in Marx's time but also at the time of editing Marx's mathematical manuscripts in the twentieth century and even today Finally the emergence and development of mathematical and statistical software packages are vigorously reshaping our ways of conceptualizing and doing mathematics towards an unknown future It is time now for taking yet another look at all mathematical text from the past and that includes the mathematical manuscripts of Marx These texts have been divided into three parts Part one contains some topical texts related to the history of emergence development editing publication and reception of the mathematical manuscripts of Karl Marx Part two contains a selection of five articles reflecting some of the investigations inspired by these manuscripts in Russia India and France Part three contains five articles on plural mathematics before and after Karl Marx 1818 1883 The texts in this collection are followed by two appendices containing two bibliographies one on Hegel and mathematics and the other on mathematics and semiotics Please note This title is co published with Aakar Books Bew Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print edition in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan Maldives or Bhutan The Gulag in Writings of Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn and Varlam Shalamov, 2021-08-16

Alexander Solzhenitsyn and Varlam Shalamov are two of the best known Gulag writers After a short period of personal acquaintance their lives and views on literature took different paths Solzhenitsyn did not see a literary program in Shalamov's works which he describes as a result of exhaustion after years of hard labour in the camp By understanding the text as a result Solzhenitsyn critically touched on a concept of evidence which Shalamov several times emphasized as important to his own works According to Shalamov instead of the text being a representation it should be an extract from or substitute for the real or the factual by which his Gulag experience became present once again Concepts such as document thing and fact became important for Shalamov's self identification as a modernist At the same time Solzhenitsyn viewing his own task as one of restoring historical experiences of the Russian people and trying to explain the slow course of history and what sort of one it has been assumed the dual role of writer and historian which inevitably raises the question of what characterizes the borders between fact and fiction in his works It also raises question about dichotomies of historical and fictional truth

Poetry Katharine Hodgson, Joanne Shelton, Alexandra Smith, 2017-04-21 The canon of Russian poetry has been reshaped since the fall of the Soviet Union A multi authored study of changing cultural memory and identity this revisionary work charts Russia's shifting relationship to its own literature in the face of social upheaval Literary canon and national identity are inextricably tied together the composition of a canon being the attempt to single out those literary works that best express a nation's culture This process is of course fluid and subject to significant shifts particularly at times of epochal

change This volume explores changes in the canon of twentieth century Russian poetry from the 1991 collapse of the Soviet Union to the end of Putin s second term as Russian President in 2008 In the wake of major institutional changes such as the abolition of state censorship and the introduction of a market economy the way was open for wholesale reinterpretation of twentieth century poets such as Iosif Brodskii Anna Akhmatova and Osip Mandel shtam their works and their lives In the last twenty years many critics have discussed the possibility of various coexisting canons rooted in official and non official literature and suggested replacing the term Soviet literature with a new definition Russian literature of the Soviet period Contributions to this volume explore the multiple factors involved in reshaping the canon understood as a body of literary texts given exemplary or representative status as classics Among factors which may influence the composition of the canon are educational institutions competing views of scholars and critics including figures outside Russia and the self canonising activity of poets themselves Canon revision further reflects contemporary concerns with the destabilising effects of emigration and the internet and the desire to reconnect with pre revolutionary cultural traditions through a narrative of the past which foregrounds continuity Despite persistent nostalgic yearnings in some quarters for a single canon the current situation is defiantly diverse balancing both the Soviet literary tradition and the parallel contemporaneous literary worlds of the emigration and the underground Required reading for students teachers and lovers of Russian literature Twentieth Century Russian Poetry brings our understanding of post Soviet Russia up to date Max Euwe Isaak Linder, Vladimir Linder, 2017-04-10 The Gentleman Champion The fifth book of the World Chess Champions series focuses on the life and career of the Dutchman Max Euwe This soft spoken professor of mathematics rocked the chess world in 1935 when he defeated the seemingly irresistible force Alexander Alekhine to become world champion Many chessplayers thought this was an upset of the first magnitude Hardly Euwe was at his prime and the best in the world at the time In fact Euwe posted a plus score against Alekhine in the four games they played between the 1935 and 1937 matches As noted by Andy Soltis in his foreword These pages are rich in detail and not just about Euwe There are extensive mini biographies of Alekhine Botvinnik Bogoljubow Spielmann Capablanca Paul Keres G za Mar czy Flohr Vera Menchik and R ti as well as less known players such as Edgard Colle Jan Hein Donner and Salo Landau The photos and drawings and those caricatures are also remarkable The venerable fifth world champion was also a first class arbiter author and chess diplomat As an author he is regarded as one of the two or three finest chess writers for the average player He was also president of the International Chess Federation FIDE at the time of the Fischer Spassky title match in 1972 Were it not for Euwe s persuasive patient handling of the difficult negotiations between the Russians and Americans it is very likely that the match would not have taken place at all Join Russian historians Isaak and Vladimir Linder as they take you on a journey exploring the life and games of the gentleman world champion Max Euwe The Good Listener Neil Belton, 2012-05-15 Essential reading A horrifying account of the worst that human beings can do to each other Neil Belton s synthesis of biography and history is masterly Anthony Storr

Sunday Times Helen Bamber went to Belson in 1945 to work with survivors of the camp She was just twenty Since then her life has been involved with the worst side of the last half century In 1985 at the age of sixty she set up an organisation devoted to helping victims of torture and to bearing witness against the fact of torture This is her story It is also a haunting unusual narrative of the post war world This 2012 edition offers a new introduction by the author The story of Bamber s life acts as a framework or prism through which some of the worst events of this century of horrors are addressed Times Literary Supplement Belton writes beautifully about an ugly subject with compassion but also with clarity Scotsman Osip

Mandelstam Ralph Dutli,2023-05-30 The personal and political life of the iconic Russian poet Osip Mandelstam is graphically portrayed in this lavishly illustrated book This is the first full scale biography of Osip Mandelstam to combine an analysis of his poetry with a description of his personal life from his beginnings as a young intellectual in pre revolutionary Russia to his final fate as a victim of Stalinism The myth has grown up that Mandelstam was a gloomy miserable figure Dutli deconstructs this stressing Mandelstam s enjoyment of life There are several underlying themes here One is Mandelstam s Jewish background in pre 1914 Russia which he rejected as a young man but reaffirmed in later life Another is the inescapable impact of Russia s political and social transformation His evolution as a poet naturally occupies a large place in the biography which quotes many of his most famous poems including his devastating anti Stalin epigram He produced wonderful poetry before the October Revolution but did not reach his full poetic stature until the 1930s when in exile in Voronezh He was never an official Soviet poet and it was only thanks to the intervention of Bukharin that he was brought back from utter impoverishment The biography gives full weight to his emotional life beginning with his friendship with two other Russian poets Marina Tsvetaeva and Anna Akhmatova followed by love and marriage to Nadezhda Khazina
