New Dictionary of South African Biography E. J. Verwey, 1995 This series of publications aims to fill the gaps in our history highlighting in particular the significant roles played by black leaders from all walks of life New Dictionary of South African Biography E. J. Verwey, 1995

New Dictionary of South African Biography E. J. Verwey, Nelly E. Sonderling, 1995

Many South Africans who have contributed to South African history were overlooked in the earlier five volume series entitled the Dictionary of South African Biography DSAB The compendium series the new dictionary of South African biography NDSAB aims to right this wrong Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15

As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02

From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918

The New Imperial Histories Reader Stephen Howe, 2020-07-24 In recent years imperial history has experienced a newfound vigour dynamism and diversity There has been an explosion of new work in the field which has been driven into even greater prominence by contemporary world events However this resurgence has brought with it disputes between those who are labelled as exponents of a new imperial history and those who can by default be termed old imperial historians This collection not only gathers together some of the most important influential and controversial work which has come to be labelled new imperial history but also presents key examples of innovative recent writing across the broader fields of imperial and colonial studies This book is the perfect companion for any student interested in empires and global history

The Last Word? Jeffrey Grey, 2003-11-30 Official history is a misunderstood genre of historical writing which attracts much negative comment from non official historians but about which very little detail is actually known This book examines the development of official history programs in Canada South Africa Australia and New Zealand over the course of the twentieth century looking at the ways in which they developed and the contributions each made to their respective national historiography The second part of the work develops some themes from the first and takes the official histories of the Second World War as case studies Drawing on programs in Australia Britain and the United States these essays examine the relationship between the histories the historians and their sponsoring institutions They assess the impact of the histories on historical understanding of the Second World War They also consider the impact that contemporary events during the Cold War had on the writing of the official history

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid

Unstable Ground Rosalind C. Morris,2025-03-04 What has gold done to people What has it made them do The Witwatersrand in South Africa once home to the world s richest goldfields is today scattered with abandoned mines into which informal miners known as zama zamas venture in an illicit often deadly search for ore Based on field research conducted across more than twenty five years around these mines Unstable Ground reveals the worlds that gold made possible and gold s profound costs for those who have lived in its shadow and dreamt of its transformative power From the vantage point of the closure of South Africa s gold mines Rosalind C Morris reconsiders their histories beginning in the present and descending into the pasts that shaped them Anchored in evocative descriptions of mining in the ruins this book explores the social worlds built on gold and the lives that were remade and sometimes undone by the industry over a century and a half Viewing this industry from its margins against the backdrop of the cyanide revolution the gold standard s demise and recurrent sinkholes as well as the insurrectionary protests and violence that continue to this day it recasts the history of South Africa and the incomplete effort to overcome apartheid amid the transformations of the global economy In writing that is by turns immersive incisive and poetic Morris unearths a history that was born of imperial aspiration and that persists as a speculative mirage Interweaving ethnography history personal testimony and political thought with striking readings of South African literary texts Unstable Ground is a work of extraordinary ambition and depth The People's Paper Peter Limb,2012-09-01 This much awaited volume uncovers the long lost pages of the major African multilingual newspaper Abantu Batho Founded in 1912 by African National Congress ANC convenor Pixley Seme with assistance from the Swazi Queen it was published up until 1931 attracting the cream of African politicians journalists and poets Mqhayi Nontsisi Mqgqeth and Grendon In its pages burning issues of the day were articulated alongside cultural by ways The People s Paper comprising both essays and an anthology explores the complex movements and individuals that emerged in the almost twenty years of its publication The essays contribute rich new material to provide clearer insights into South African politics and intellectual life The anthology unveils a judicious selection of never before published columns from the paper spanning every year of its life and drawn from repositories on three continents Abantu Batho had a regional and international focus and by examining all these dynamics across boundaries and disciplines The People s Paper transcends established historiographical frontiers to fill a lacuna that scholars have long lamented Film Criticism in Cape Town 1928-1930 Michael Eckardt,2004-04-01 This book examines the development of film criticism in Cape Town s daily press from 1928 to 1930

using film reviews from the Cape Times and Die Burger The character of film criticism in the period under discussion is explained by describing the general function of film criticism as well as comparing the local with the international film press The basis for the comparative analysis is a list of films screened in three selected cinemas in Cape Town

The Oxford History of the British Empire: Volume V: Historiography Robin Winks, 2001-07-26 The Oxford History of the British Empire is a major new assessment of the Empire in the light of recent scholarship and the progressive opening of historical records From the founding of colonies in North America and the West Indies in the seventeenth century to the reversion of Hong Kong to China at the end of the twentieth British imperialism was a catalyst for far reaching change The Oxford History of the British Empire as a comprehensive study helps us to understand the end of Empire in relation to its beginning the meaning of British imperialism for the ruled as well as for the rulers and the significance of the British Empire as a theme in world history This fifth and final volume shows how opinions have changed dramatically over the generations about the nature role and value of imperialism generally and the British Empire more specifically The distinguished team of contributors discuss the many and diverse elements which have influenced writings on the Empire the pressure of current events access to primary sources the creation of relevant university chairs the rise of nationalism in former colonies decolonization and the Cold War They demonstrate how the study of empire has evolved from a narrow focus on constitutional issues to a wide ranging enquiry about international relations the uses of power and impacts and counterimpacts between settler groups and native peoples The result is a thought provoking cultural and intellectual inquiry into how we understand the past and whether this understanding might affect the way we behave in the future

Nauhaus Frieda Honiball, 2013-01-09 It is not often that genealogical details make for easy reading In this book the authors present more than 500 years of their family history in an interesting informative yet easily readable manner This family history is set out in the context of the origins of Protestantism of the Moravian Missionary Movement and of the activities of the Berlin Missionary Society in Southern Africa Also included are the biographies of the Moravian missionary Carl Friedrich Nauhaus and his three nephews the Berlin missionaries Carl Theodor Nauhaus Friedrich Wilhelm Nauhaus and Carl August Ferdinand Nauhaus all of whom left Germany in the nineteenth century for mission services in Southern Africa

Illuminating Lives Bill Nasson, Vivian Bickford-Smith, 2018-09-01 In this fresh and highly readable collection of South African biographical essays a distinguished group of authors illuminate the lives of eleven colourful and complex men and women whose personal experiences throw fascinating light on the times in which they lived The individuals whose stories are told here are very different in time in place and in work and at play but are united by an abundantly rich humanity and by the fascinatingly different ways in which they navigated their existence through the uneven waters of South Africa's distant and more recent past Including administrators and activists sportsmen and teachers a missionary a pilot a painter and a poet Illuminating Lives is a wide ranging and moving book which provides readers with striking and unexpected insights into history Here are
