Non-State Actors and Transnational Governance in Southeast Asia Shaun Breslin, Helen E.S. Nesadurai, 2020-04-28 While the focus on national governments as the main providers of different forms of transnational governance in Southeast Asia is entirely understandable such a focus can significantly underestimate the roles played by non state actors This comprehensive collection provides five different case studies that explore in detail how these governance forms work in different policy arenas While previous studies have noted the way that non state actors act as pressure or advisory groups lobbying or advising states and regional organisations this book explores how they are now more actively involved in a variety of cross border networked forms of coordination providing standards rules and practices that other actors voluntarily abide by The chapters in this volume reveal variations in the architecture of transnational governance why they emerge the modes of social co ordination through which they work to shape actor behaviour and achieve impact their normative implications and how these governance schemes intersect with state and national regulatory frameworks The authors point to the importance of looking beyond arrangements established through intergovernmental mechanisms in order to gain a full understanding of how international interactions are organised in Southeast Asia This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary Asia

New European Approaches to Long-term Unemployment Germana Di Domenico, Silvia Spattini, 2008-01-01 This ground breaking book presents incisive studies by sixteen leading academics labour policymakers employment services professionals and employment researchers from Italy the United Kingdom Spain Germany Belgium and Poland The articles provide an excellent overview of employment services experience throughout the EU and demonstrate that careful application of active labour market measures can produce positive results in combating long term unemployment Notable for its emphasis on the proven power of cooperation among various stakeholders in reducing unemployment New European Approaches to Long Term Unemployment will be a welcome resource for employment services both public and private other public labour and employment organisations and employers as well as to academics lawyers and other interested professionals Provided by publisher

Networks for Water Policy Hans Bressers, Laurence J. O'Toole Jr, Jeremy Richardson, 2024-04-03 Network models for analysing public policy have become widely used in recent years This volume originally published in 1995 assesses the network idea by applying a common perspective on network analysis to the constellations involved in water policy formation and implementation in England and Wales Germany Hungary the Netherlands the USA and at the level of the EU Water policy addressing basic human needs for the supply of adequate surface and groundwater as well as for the maintenance and improvement of water quality is an increasingly salient subject Each case covered in this volume treats the issues of water policy network composition and structure and determinants of network characteristics as well as documenting the influence of the networks on policy developments towards more network openness emulation of business behaviour and less domination by traditional professional groups such as engineers Essays by the editors provide a common analytical perspective and offer both explicitly comparative conclusions and evidence based assessments of the strengths and limitations of the network perspective
