Carr,Vernell E. Stewart Britton,Laurita M. Burley,Frances Hanks Cook,Catherine Cowell,Wilma Ardine L. Kirchhofer,2017-06-05 In the unique work Six Eves Prevail through the Garden of Nutrition six African American nutrition professionals share their individual stories about becoming nutritionists and dietitians during the 60s and 70s These professions have typically seen low numbers of African Americans The women whose stories make up this book formed close personal and professional associations that have lasted over decades The book documents the mentoring professional guidance and wisdom they each received from trailblazers in their respective professions The importance of nutrition to the overall health of the population has been well documented Though their career paths were different each of these professional women made tremendous contributions to the health wellbeing and safety of their many patients clients students and family members Because of their backgrounds they were able to bring a level of sensitivity to health care that was unsurpassed Narrated through first person accounts the book is filled with humorous and heart warming anecdotes personal and local history recipes and photographs Journey with these special women along their remarkable paths that demonstrate the power of perseverance the importance of family and community and lifting others as we are lifted

Ecopoetics Angela Hume,Gillian Osborne,2018-03-15 Ecopoetics Essays in the Field makes a formidable intervention into the emerging field of ecopoetics The volume s essays model new and provocative methods for reading twentieth and twenty first century ecological poetry and poetics drawing on the insights of ecocriticism contemporary philosophy gender and sexuality studies black studies Native studies critical race theory and disability studies among others As a volume this book makes the compelling argument that ecopoetics should be read as coextensive with post 1945 poetry and poetics rather than as a subgenre or movement within it It is essential reading for any student or scholar working on contemporary literature or in the environmental humanities today Back cover How Education Policy Shapes Literacy Instruction Rachael

Gabriel,2022-09-28 Reading instruction is the most legislated area of education and the most frequently referenced metric for measuring educational progress This book traces the trajectories of policy issues with direct implications for literacy teaching learning and research in order to illustrate the dynamic relationships between policy research and practice as they relate to perennial issues such as retention in grade remediation intervention instruction for English learners early literacy instruction coaching and leadership Using policy documents and peer reviewed articles published from the 1960s to the present the editor and authors illustrate how issues were framed what was at stake and how policy solutions to persistent questions have been understood over time In doing so the book link a generation of scholars with research that illustrates trajectories of development for ideas strategies and solutions Rose Colored 50s Ruth Anna Hobday, Sunlight Hugh Anthony Levine,2019-02-08 How odd she reflected to need to protect ourselves against something we cannot live without the sun something millions of miles away yet can harm us Even kill us This innovatively crafted novel tracks the lives of a girl and boy who as next door neighbors and lifelong friends confront sunlight in a way that wins the attention of the federal government at its highest levels and impacts modern aviation Both of them face adversities threatening but not derailing their life quests while readers take a fact driven flight with them that begins in a tiny hamlet in rural New Jersey and touches down in the Colorado Rockies war torn Vietnam Japan Turkey South Korea Arizona Maryland Saudi Arabia Kuwait and the Oval Office of the President of the United States Sunlight spans the half century plus from 1946 to 2001 recounting real events of that tumultuous era through fictional characters so realistic and credible that readers may need to remind themselves they are holding a novel Shining throughout is the author s skill honed during decades as a trial lawyer at weaving an engrossing plot tapestry threaded with flying both in combat and for sport as well as dreams and romance success and tragedy triumph and misgivings lessons both taught and learned Beginning to Read Marilyn Jager Adams,1994-02-03 Beginning to Read reconciles the debate that has divided theorists for decades over what is the right way to help children learn to read Beginning to Read reconciles the debate that has divided theorists for decades over the right way to help children learn to read Drawing on a rich array of research on the nature and development of reading proficiency Adams shows educators that they need not remain trapped in the phonics versus teaching for meaning dilemma She proposes that phonics can work together with the whole language approach to teaching reading and provides an integrated treatment of the knowledge and process involved in skillful reading the issues surrounding their acquisition and the implications for reading instruction A Bradford Book Catalog of Copyright Entries.
