Working Across Generations Frances Kunreuther, Helen Kim, Robby Rodriguez, 2008-12-03 The authors provide a range of ideas on how to approach generational shifts in leadership so that the contributions of long time leaders are valued new and younger leaders talent is recognized and groups are better prepared to work across generational divides Giving context to these differences they explore the current assumptions about the upcoming transition between generations in the social sector introduce new ideas or frames for thinking about generational leadership change and examine how this change poses individual organizational and systemic challenges for those in the social sector In addition they provide numerous examples and practical exercises to show how to address these issues The book concludes with critical advice on how to communicate across generations and key recommendations for future research and action Designing Transformative Change Bori Fehér, Janka Csernák, 2025-02-08 Design as a discipline has historically demonstrated responsiveness to societal developments and crises However amidst the multifaceted challenges of our times there is a growing discourse surrounding the potential for design to not only react but also serve as a catalyst for transformative change This discourse raises pivotal questions about the role of design in fostering hope generating realistic solutions and mitigating global and local crises Drawing upon interdisciplinary perspectives and empirical research as well as case studies the contributors to this volume critically examine the evolving role of designers in responding to contemporary crises

Reforming European Data Protection Law Serge Gutwirth, Ronald Leenes, Paul de Hert, 2014-11-17 This book on privacy and data protection offers readers conceptual analysis as well as thoughtful discussion of issues practices and solutions It features results of the seventh annual International Conference on Computers Privacy and Data Protection CPDP 2014 held in Brussels January

2014 The book first examines profiling a persistent core issue of data protection and privacy It covers the emergence of profiling technologies on line behavioral tracking and the impact of profiling on fundamental rights and values Next the book looks at preventing privacy risks and harms through impact assessments It contains discussions on the tools and methodologies for impact assessments as well as case studies The book then goes on to cover the purported trade off between privacy and security ways to support privacy and data protection and the controversial right to be forgotten which offers individuals a means to oppose the often persistent digital memory of the web Written during the process of the fundamental revision of the current EU data protection law by the Data Protection Package proposed by the European Commission this interdisciplinary book presents both daring and prospective approaches It will serve as an insightful resource for readers with an interest in privacy and data protection Transcultural Marketing Marye Tharp, 2014-12-17

Because American consumers transmigrate between social identities in expressing their values and affiliations marketers must apply transcultural marketing methods and offer a cultural values proposition to build long term customer relationships This unique book weaves these topics into profiles of 9 influential American subcultures currently shaping their members marketplace choices Leading in a VUCA World Jacobus (Kobus) Kok, Steven C. van den Heuvel, 2018-11-28 This open access book brings together works by specialists from different disciplines and continents to reflect on the nexus between leadership spirituality and discernment particularly with regard to a world that is increasingly volatile uncertain complex and ambiguous VUCA The book spells out first of all what our VUCA world entails and how it affects businesses organizations and societies as a whole Secondly the book develops new perspectives on the processes of leadership spirituality and discernment particularly in this VUCA context These perspectives are interdisciplinary in nature and are informed by e g management studies leadership theory philosophy and theology The Copyright / Trademark Interface Martin Senftleben, 2020-12-10

The Copyright Trademark Interface How the Expansion of Trademark Protection Is Stifling Cultural Creativity Martin Senftleben The registration of cultural icons as trademarks has become a standard protection strategy in the field of contemporary cultural productions and plays an ever increasing role in the area of cultural heritage Attempts to register and evergreen the protection of cultural signs ranging from Mickey Mouse to the Mona Lisa are no longer unusual This phenomenon characterized by the EFTA Court as trademark registrations motivated by commercial greed has become typical of an era where trademark law is employed strategically to withhold or remove cultural symbols from the public domain In an extraordinary analysis of the clash between culture and commerce and imbalances caused by protection overlaps arising from cumulative copyright and trademark protection this book draws attention to the corrosive effect of indefinitely renewable trademark rights and underscores the necessity to safeguard central preconditions for the proper functioning of the copyright system in society at large the freedom to use pre existing works as reference points for the artistic discourse and building blocks for new creations and the need to ensure the constant enrichment of the public domain Emphasizing how overlapping copyright and trademark protection endangers the proper functioning of intellectual property rights in the literary and artistic domain the author examines whether the intellectual property system is capable of mitigating the risks arising from cumulative protection Such issues and topics as the following are treated in depth the different configuration of intellectual property rights in accordance with different policy objectives and societal functions in particular the cultural imperative in copyright law and the market transparency imperative in trademark law problems arising from the registration of cultural icons for use on souvenir and merchandising articles lack of sufficient safeguards in trademark law against cultural heritage branding current scope of trademark rights including the protection of brand value and communication functions and the deterrent effect of trademark protection on cultural creativity possibility of a categorical exclusion of contemporary cultural icons and cultural heritage material from trademark protection development of a strict gatekeeper requirement of use as a mark to prevent unjustified trademark infringement claims development of robust culturally based defences against trademark infringement claims and general guidelines for the regulation of protection overlaps in intellectual property law based on insights derived from the analysis of copyright trademark overlaps Drawing on aesthetic sociological and economic theories that support initiatives to safeguard the autonomy of the literary and artistic domain and support remix activities of artists the author suggests sound criteria for identifying signs with cultural significance that should be excluded from trademark registration The book shows how intellectual property law can make rights cumulation strategies less attractive and avoid the loss of inner consistency and social legitimacy easing the tension between indefinitely renewable trademark rights and the need to preserve and cultivate the public domain of cultural expressions and other intellectual creations that enjoy protection for a limited period of time such as industrial designs and technical know how Its assessment criteria will assist and enable trademark examiners and judges to identify relevant cultural signs and its proposals for regulatory responses to protection overlaps in intellectual property law will prove of great and lasting value to lawyers policymakers and scholars dealing with intellectual property law Xero For Dummies Heather Smith,2015-03-10
