M. Opal,2013-04-19 During the first half century of American independence a fundamental change in the meaning and morality of ambition emerged in American culture Long stigmatized as a dangerous passion that led people to pursue fame at the expense of duty ambition also raised concerns among American Revolutionaries who espoused self sacrifice After the ratification of the U S Constitution and the creation of the federal republic in 1789 however a new ethos of nation making took hold in which ambition properly cultivated could rescue talent and virtue from the parochial needs of the family farm Rather than an apology for an emerging market culture of material desire and commercial dealing ambition became a civic project a concerted reply to the localism of provincial life By thus attaching itself to the national self image during the early years of the Republic before the wrenching upheavals of the Industrial Revolution ambitious striving achieved a cultural dominance that future generations took for granted Beyond the Farm not only describes this transformation as a national effort but also explores it as a personal journey Centered on the lives of six aspiring men from the New England countryside the book follows them from youthful days full of hope and unrest to eventual careers marked by surprising success and crushing failure Along the way J M Opal recovers such intimate dramas as a young man s abandonment by his self made parents a village printer s dreams of small town fame and a headstrong boy s efforts to both surpass and honor his family By relating the vast abstractions of nation and ambition to the everyday milieus of home work and school Beyond the Farm reconsiders the roots of American individualism in vivid detail and moral complexity

Forest and Crag Laura Waterman, Guy Waterman, 2019-02-28 A compelling story of our ever evolving relationship with the mountains and wilderness Thirty years after its initial publication this beloved classic is back in print Superbly researched and written Forest and Crag is the definitive history of our love affair with the mountains of the Northeastern United States from the Catskills and the Adirondacks of New York to the Green Mountains of Vermont the White Mountains of New Hampshire and the mountains of Maine It s all here in one comprehensive volume the struggles of early pioneers in America s first frontier wilderness the first ascent of every major peak in the Northeast the building of the trail networks including the Appalachian Trail the golden era of the summit resort hotels and the unforeseen consequences of the backpacking boom of the 1970s and 80s Laura and Guy Waterman spent a decade researching and writing Forest and Crag and in it they draw together widely scattered sources What emerges is a compelling story of our ever evolving relationship with the mountains and wilderness a story that will fascinate historians outdoor enthusiasts and armchair adventurers alike Just like a good map is essential equipment for any backcountry adventure Forest and Crag is an essential read for anyone who enjoys spending time in or is charged with the stewardship of the Northeast s trails and mountains

Michael DeBonis Executive Director Green Mountain Club Forest and Crag stands as the most important history of Northeastern mountain exploration I marvel at the depth of the Watermans exhaustive research and the skill in which they synthesized it Anyone who cares about and writes about mountains laps up these chapters regularly I reach for this book all the time The added photographs and prefaces make this new edition from SUNY even better Christine Woodside editor of Appalachia Journal and author of Libertarians on the Prairie Laura Ingalls Wilder Rose Wilder Lane and the Making of the Little House Books No other volume weaves together across landscapes and time both the individual stories and broad themes of the history of hiking in the Northeast It is not however its breadth and depth which makes Forest and Crag unique Rather it is the Watermans gift for storytelling which makes the reader feel that he or she has been invited to pull up a chair and listen spellbound to two masters of their craft In sharing the stories of those who came to the mountains before the Watermans invite all to join in preserving the future of these iconic landscapes

Julia Goren Education Director and Summit Steward Coordinator Adirondack Mountain Club PRAISE FOR FOREST AND CRAG This is a superb monumental history The Watermans are adept at the capsule profile whether of peaks or persons A gallery of characters unrolls as diverse as those in a novel by Dickens Paul Jamieson former editor The Adirondack Reader Written with grace style and good humor seasoned with a refreshing sense of wonder Forest and Crag reads more like a gripping novel than the serious research work it really is Magnetic North In its quality comprehensiveness and regional orientation Forest and Crag is unprecedented in American letters It will become a classic in social intellectual and environmental history Roderick Frazier Nash author of Wilderness and the American Mind Fifth Edition Forest and Crag presents an incredible gift for today s hikers the opportunity to take a thoughtful and vigorous ramble into the past and to explore the Northeastern mountains of yesteryear What an adventure and what better way to contemplate how we shape the region s future Peter Crane Mount Washington Observatory Forest and Crag traces the Northeast s human and natural history by following the hiking experience from the early adventurers to the more recent development of an environmental ethic The Watermans tell this story with clear respect and deep joy for the mountains that shaped the stories of the region s hikers and hiking clubs Mary Margaret Sloan Chief Operating Officer Positive Tracks The Watermans true genius is their ability to string all the facts together in a narrative so lively that even the footnotes and endnotes are read as eagerly as one would devour dessert at the end of a good meal Tony Goodwin coeditor of High Peaks Trails 14th Edition Views and Viewmakers of Urban America John William Reys,1984 Union list catalog of the lithographic views of cities and towns made during the 19th century The New England Historical and Genealogical Register ,1990 Bulletin - Association of Canadian Map Libraries Association of Canadian Map Libraries,1997
