New Headway English Course, 2005 Developing Materials for Language Teaching Brian Tomlinson, 2014-08-01 This supplementary ebook contains the 12 chapters from the first edition of Brian Tomlinson's comprehensive Developing Materials for Language Teaching on various aspects of materials development for language teaching that did not for reasons of space appear in the second edition

New Perspectives on CALL for Second Language Classrooms Sandra Fotos, Charles M. Browne, 2013-06-17 This practical handbook is designed to help language teachers, teacher trainers and students learn more about their options for using computer assisted language learning CALL and develop an understanding of the theory and research supporting these options. The chapters in New Perspectives on CALL for Second Language Classrooms synthesize previous CALL theory and research and describe practical applications to both second and foreign language classrooms including procedures for evaluating these applications. The implementation of CALL at the institutional level is also addressed with attention to designing multimedia language laboratories and creating collaborative CALL based projects between educational institutions. Although many chapters locate their descriptions of CALL activities and projects within the ESL/EFL setting, the principles and activities described are equally useful for other language settings. The book does not require prior knowledge of CALL, computers or software. To assist readers, a glossary of CALL terms and an appendix of CALL Web sites are provided. The book also has its own accompanying Web site <http://www.eri.baum.com/callforL2classrooms> presenting chapter abstracts, author contact information and regularly updated links to pedagogical research and teacher development sites. By integrating theoretical issues, research findings and practical guidelines on different aspects of CALL, this book offers teachers multiple levels of resources for their own professional development for needs based creation of specific CALL activities for curriculum design and for implementation of institutional and inter institutional CALL projects.

Academic Evaluation K. Hyland, G. Diani, 2009-08-12 This book explores how academics publically evaluate each others work. Focusing on blurbs, book reviews, review articles and literature reviews, the international contributors to the volume show how writers manage to critically engage with others' ideas, argue their own viewpoints and establish academic credibility.

The Construction of English J. Gray, 2010-09-29 This book takes the view that ELT global coursebooks, in addition to being curriculum artefacts, are also highly wrought cultural artefacts which seek to make English mean in highly selective ways and it argues that the textual construction and imaging of English parallels the processes of commodity promotion more generally.

Grammar in ELT and ELT Materials Graham Burton, 2023-06-06 This book investigates the content of the grammar syllabus typically employed in mainstream English Language Teaching. Using a mixed methods approach, the author examines how the syllabuses used in coursebooks are actually constructed, how they evolved and how valid their contents are as a basis for teaching. The research reported consists of a broad exploration of primary sources in order to outline the evolution of ELT pedagogical grammar.

interviews with key ELT authors and publishing professionals which allows for the investigation of the decision making processes underlying the choice of grammar content in ELT teaching materials and finally the presentation of case studies which examine three areas of grammar analysing the evolution of their treatment in ELT materials both historical and contemporary and comparing their current treatment to data on real learner use This book contributes to the literature on syllabus design and pedagogical grammar and builds on existing research into materials design It will be of interest to researchers and professionals working in the fields of applied linguistics pedagogical grammar curriculum design and materials design

Critical Cultural Awareness Yumiko Furumura, Maria Lebedko, Yau Tsai, 2014-09-26 In a rapidly globalizing world one of the most challenging barriers to be overcome is the stereotype This book aims to promote understanding of the nature of stereotypes and to suggest ways in which teachers can manage them by developing critical cultural awareness as an intrinsic part of the intercultural communicative competence of their students Part 1 of the book explores ways of defining eliciting and illustrating stereotypes from theoretical standpoints Part 2 showcases ways of addressing stereotypes through intercultural language education to provide teachers with a firm platform for the practical application of their knowledge and skills when attempting to manage stereotypes in the classroom

Alternative Voices Imtiaz Hasnain, 2013-07-16 This edited volume presents Alternative Voices in the contexts of present day and historical globalisation the emergence of the knowledge society increased global local or glocal migration flows the explosion of social media and disparate regional growth that have both impacted and shaped the sociocultural fabric of geopolitical spaces across the world The volume builds upon twenty seven contributions that focus upon issues related to language culture and identity from a multidisciplinary nexus of historical philosophical and empirically based traditions Positioned in post colonial emic heritage the research presented here challenges the monolingual including monocultural bias and the linguacentric bias in the Language Sciences This volume is an important contribution in terms of analyzing and demonstrating issues related to the complexity of culture and language and their links with social political economic forces particularly the tensions related to glocal identity positions that are evoked and played out in geopolitically heterogeneous spaces Given its multidisciplinary nature this volume presents individual comprehensive accounts of complexities that have been poorly understood and inadequately covered in the existing literature both in Southern and Northern contexts
