Montgomery, 2011-12-01 An elucidating collection of ten original essays Making Animal Meaning reconceptualizes methods for researching animal histories and rethinks the contingency of the human animal relationship The vibrant and diverse field of animal studies is detailed in these interdisciplinary discussions which include voices from a broad range of scholars and have an extensive chronological and geographical reach These exciting discourses capture the most compelling theoretical underpinnings of animal significance while exploring meaning making through the study of specific spaces species and human animal relations A deeply thoughtful collection vital to understanding central questions of agency kinship and animal consumption these essays tackle the history and philosophy of constructing animal meaning

Fish Peter B. Moyle, 1995-03-01 Engagingly written with both learning and humor Fish bridges the gap between purely pictorial books and scholarly texts and provides a succinct summary of fish biology and conservation for students and fish enthusiasts      In My Ever After Robert J. Geis, 2010 In My Ever After is not a mass media style general readership book on immortality rather it is an argument against a current school neurophilosophy's virtual equation of consciousness and the world Without exposing the equation's weaknesses the question of immortality Geis argues is moot Part I identifies many epistemic and scientific grounds for a real world outside consciousness and self refutational flaws in quantum physics It employs the phenomenological method to situate consciousness and other in their relations Part II sets forth why consciousness cannot be electrical in origin and then how partibility and subjectivity in tandem with the power of conceptualization evince reasons for accepting immortal consciousness as a condition of all human awareness A discussion of why pharmacologic explanations for the OBE and NDE are wanting plus neurologic arguments for memory's non localizability and how animal sentience adds to philosophic conviction coordinate with Scripture on animal existence beyond the grave concludes the argument      Marshall Cavendish International Wildlife Encyclopedia: CRO-EGR, 1989
