New Langston Arts The First Fifteen Year:

The Impact of Race Woodie King, 2003-11 Looks at the evolution of the American black theater movement and includes coverage of the National Black Theatre Festival and the National Black Arts Festival in Atlanta Shaping Memories Joanne V. Gabbin, 2009 This anthology offers short chapters by notable black women writers on pivotal moments that strongly influenced their careers It provides a thorough overview of the formal concerns and thematic issues facing contemporary black women writers and includes an introduction that places these writers in the context of American literature in general and African American literature in particular Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers Yolanda Williams Page, 2007-01-30 African American women writers published extensively during the Harlem Renaissance and have been extraordinarily prolific since the 1970s This book surveys the world of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars The Encyclopedia covers established contemporary authors such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor along with a range of neglected and emerging figures Each entry is written by an expert contributor and provides a brief biography a discussion of major works a survey of the author's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Literature students will value this book for its exploration of African American literature while social studies students will appreciate its examination of social issues through literature African American women writers have made an enormous contribution to our culture Many of these authors wrote during the Harlem Renaissance a particularly vital time in African American arts and letters while others have been especially active since the 1970s an era in which works by African American women are adapted into films and are widely read in book clubs Literature by African American women is important for its aesthetic qualities and it also illuminates the social issues which these authors have confronted This book conveniently surveys the lives and works of African American women writers Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 150 African American women novelists poets playwrights short fiction writers autobiographers essayists and influential scholars Some of these figures such as Toni Morrison and Gloria Naylor are among the most popular authors writing today while others have been largely neglected or are recently emerging Each entry provides a biography a discussion of major works a survey of the writer's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies The Encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography Students and general readers will welcome this guide to the rich achievement of African American women Literature students will value its exploration of the works of these writers while social studies students will appreciate its examination of the social issues these women confront in their works The Black Chicago Renaissance Darlene Clark Hine, John McCluskey, 2012-06-15 Beginning in the 1930s Black Chicago experienced a cultural renaissance that lasted into the 1950s and rivaled the cultural outpouring in the Harlem Renaissance of the 1920s The contributors to this volume analyze this prolific period of African American creativity in music performance art social science scholarship and visual and literary artistic expression Unlike Harlem Chicago was an urban industrial center that gave a unique working class and internationalist perspective to the cultural work being done in Chicago This collection s various essays discuss the forces that distinguished the Black Chicago Renaissance from the Harlem Renaissance and placed the development of black culture in a national and international context Among the topics discussed in this volume are Chicago writers Gwendolyn Brooks and Richard Wright The Chicago Defender and Tivoli Theater African American music and visual arts and the American Negro Exposition of 1940 Contributors are Hilary Mac Austin David T Bailey Murry N DePillars Samuel A Floyd Jr Erik S Gellman Jeffrey Helgeson Darlene Clark Hine John McCluskey Jr Christopher Robert Reed Elizabeth Schlabach and Clovis E Semmes The Routledge Companion to American Literary Journalism William Dow,Roberta Maguire,2019-11-13 Taking a thematic approach this new companion provides an interdisciplinary cross cultural and international study of American literary journalism From the work of Frederick Douglass and Walt Whitman to that of Joan Didion and Dorothy Parker literary journalism is a genre that both reveals and shapes American history and identity This volume not only calls attention to literary journalism as a distinctive genre but also provides a critical foundation for future scholarship It brings together cutting edge research from literary journalism scholars examining historical perspectives themes venues and genres across time theoretical approaches and disciplinary intersections and new directions for scholarly inquiry Provoking reconsideration and inquiry while providing new historical interpretations this companion recognizes interacts with and honors the tradition and legacies of American literary journalism scholarship Engaging the work of disciplines such as sociology anthropology African American studies gender studies visual studies media studies and American studies in addition to journalism and literary studies this book is perfect for students and scholars of those disciplines Disintegrating the Musical Arthur Knight,2002-08-14 The history of African Americans in film musicals and their reception by Black audiences and critics History of Greene County, Ohio Michael A. Broadstone,1918 Aaron Douglas Aaron Douglas,Renée Ater,2007-01-01 The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell,2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism Northwestern University Alumni News, 1938 A Centennial Celebration of The Brownies' Book Dianne Johnson-Feelings, Jonda C. McNair, 2022-10-21 Contributions by Jani L Barker Rudine Sims Bishop Julia S Charles Linen Paige Gray Dianne Johnson Feelings Jonda C McNair Sara C VanderHaagen and Michelle Taylor Watts The Brownies Book occupies a special place in the history of African American children's literature Informally the children's counterpart to the NAACP's The Crisis magazine it was one of the first periodicals created primarily for Black youth Several of the objectives the creators delineated in 1919 when announcing the arrival of the publication To make them familiar with the history and achievements of the Negro race and To make colored children realize that being colored is a beautiful normal thing still resonate with contemporary creators readers and scholars of African American children's literature The meticulously researched essays in A Centennial Celebration of The Brownies Book get to the heart of The Brownies Book project using critical approaches both varied and illuminating Contributors to the volume explore the underappreciated role of Jessie Redmon Fauset in creating The Brownies Book and in the cultural life of Black America describe the young people who immersed themselves in the pages of the periodical focus on the role of Black heroes and heroines address The Brownies Book in the context of critical literacy theory and place The Brownies Book within the context of Black futurity and justice Bookending the essays are reprinted in full the first and last issues of the magazine A Centennial Celebration of The Brownies Book illuminates the many ways in which the magazine simultaneously beautiful complicated problematic and inspiring remains worthy of attention well into this century Hickory Stick Douglas M. Cooper, 2004-08-18 Hickory Stick is a novel about revenge deferred It concerns Leonard Merygates a shy retired highschool administrator who feels that had corporal punishment been sustained in America's public school systems the country would not be in the condition it is today Children would respect adults adults would embrace social and cultural values beyond material wealth and the streets of Hamilton City USA would be a lot safer Hickory Stick also concerns the adventures of HCPD homicide detectives Walter T Fleischmann and Willis Loveday who must find the vigilante that is ridding Hamilton City of its social detritus before he kills someone else Romare Bearden Sally Price, Richard Price, 2006-11-21 This book relocates Bearden's Caribbean experience to the center of the work he did during the most productive period of his life Produced in full color it includes 130 Bearden paintings almost all Caribbean watercolors and collages few of which have ever been published America's Art Museums Suzanne Loeb, 2002 A tour of America's most notable museums is also a history of the nation's art that highlights each location's top works while discussing the backgrounds of each building and featured piece of art Toni Morrison Carmen Gillespie, 2012-11-30 Toni Morrison the only living American Nobel laureate in literature published her first novel in 1970 In the ensuing forty plus years Morrison s work has become synonymous with the most significant literary art and intellectual engagements of our time The publication of Home May 2012 as well as her 2011 play Desdemona affirm the range and acuity of Morrison s imagination Toni Morrison Forty Years in The Clearing enables audiences readers critics and students to review Morrison s cultural and literary impacts and to consider the import and influence of her legacies in her multiple roles as writer editor publisher reader scholar artist and teacher over the last four decades Some of the highlights of the collection include contributions from many of the major scholars of Morrison s canon as well as art pieces music photographs and commentary from poets Nikki Giovanni and Sonia Sanchez novelist A J Verdelle playwright Lydia Diamond composer Richard Danielpour photographer Timothy Greenfield Sanders the first published interview with Morrison s friends from Howard University Florence Ladd and Mary Wilburn and commentary from President Barack Obama What distinguishes this book from the many other publications that engage Morrison s work is that the collection is not exclusively a work of critical interpretation or reference This is the first publication to contextualize and to consider the interdisciplinary artistic and intellectual impacts of Toni Morrison using the formal fluidity and dynamism that characterize her work This book adopts Morrison s metaphor as articulated in her Pulitzer Prize winning novel Beloved The narrative describes the clearing as a wide open place cut deep in the woods nobody knew for what In the heat of every Saturday afternoon she sat in the clearing while the people waited among the trees Morrison s Clearing is a complicated and dynamic space Like the intricacies of Morrison s intellectual and artistic voyages the Clearing is both verdant and deadly a sanctuary and a prison Morrison s vision invites consideration of these complexities and confronts these most basic human conundrums with courage resolve and grace This collection attempts to reproduce the character and spirit of this metaphorical terrain A Historical Guide to Ralph Ellison Steven C. Tracy, 2004-05-13 Ralph Ellison has been a controversial figure both lionized and vilified since he seemed to burst onto the national literary scene in 1952 with the publication of Invisible Man In this volume Steven C Tracy has gathered a broad range of critics who look not only at Ellison s seminal novel but also at the fiction and nonfiction work that both preceded and followed it focusing on important historical and cultural influences that help contextualize Ellison s thematic concerns and artistic aesthetic These essays all previously unpublished explore how Ellison s various apprenticeships in politics as a Black radical in music as an admirer and practitioner of European American and African American music and in literature as heir to his realist naturalist and modernist forebears affected his mature literary productions including his own careful molding of his literary reputation They present us with a man negotiating the difficult sociopolitical intellectual and artistic terrain facing African Americans as America was increasingly forced to confront its own failures with regard to the promise of the American dream to its diverse populations These wide ranging historical essays along with a brief biography and an illustrated chronology provide a concise yet authoritative discussion of a twentieth century American writer whose continued presence on the stage of American and world literature and culture is now assured Encyclopedia of African American Society Gerald D. Jaynes, 2005-02-01 Do your students or patrons ever ask you about African Americans in sports How about African American Academy Award winners Or perhaps you re asked about more complex social issues regarding the unemployment rate among African Americans or the number of African American men on death row If these questions sound familiar the Encyclopedia of African American Society is a must have for your library This two volume reference seeks to capture the ways in which the tenets and foundations of African American culture have given rise to today s society Approaching the field from a street level perspective these two volumes cover topics of universal interest in America rap music sports television cinema racism religion literature and much more The Encyclopedia of African American Society is also the first comprehensive yet accessible reference set in this field to give voice to the turbulent historical trends slavery segregation separate but equal that are often ignored in favor of mere facts This is a definitive reliable and accessible entry point to learning the basics about African American society The encyclopedia is anchored by alphabetically arranged essays on such topics as abolitionism affirmative action and the civil rights movement More than just a who s who these volumes emphasize social issues and events those filled with significance and consequence through history Civil Rights economic growth law and justice and politics with all of their numerous subcategories receive substantial coverage The encyclopedia naturally contains hundreds of articles on notable African Americans Martin Luther King Jr Jackie Robinson Miles Davis groundbreaking events Emancipation Proclamation Los Angeles Riots sports and culture Rap Music Jazz and significant heritage sites Apollo Theater This much needed two volume encyclopedia should become a staple in collections at school public and academic libraries Readers of all ages backgrounds and ethnic or racial groups will find fascinating material on every page Key Features Nearly 700 signed articles Almost 50 photographs Complete list of African Americans in sports Halls of Fame Cross referenced for easy links from one topic to another Reader s guide facilitates easy browsing for relevant articles Clear accessible writing style appropriate for high school and college students and interested lay readers Comprehensive index and bibliography Topics Covered Concepts and Theories Fine Arts Theater and Entertainment Health and Education History and Heritage Literature Media Movements and Events Music and Dance Organizations and Institutions Places Politics and Policy Popular Culture Religion and Beliefs The Road to Freedom Science Technology and Business Social Issues Special Populations Sports Advisory Board Sherri L Barnes Davidson Library University of California Santa Barbara W Maurice Shipley Ph D Ohio State University William H Wiggins Jr Ph D Indiana University The Visual Arts in Washington, D.C. Brett L.
