Church Michael G. Lawler, Thomas J. Shanahan, 1995 It is taken for granted today among theologians that the principal achievement of the Second Vatican Council was its Dogmatic Constitution on the Church Lumen Gentium It is beginning to be equally taken for granted that the core of this central document is its vision of Church as communion Communion Pope John Paul II has said is the very mystery of the Church Church A Spirited Communion grows out of the ecclesiology of the Council as a systematic treatment of this notion of communion Church A Spirited Communion is not however a book only about the Church It is a book about the God whom Christians confess as Triune who calls the Church into existence and who seeks its commitment in every age It is a book about the Church only to the extent that the Church is in communion with this God To the extent that it is a book which is primarily theo logical and only secondarily ecclesio logical it is a book which adheres to God rather than to men and summons the Church to do the same

Finding Salvation in Christ Christopher D. Denny, Christopher McMahon, 2011-05-01 Finding Salvation in Christ brings together some of the most important figures in contemporary theology to honor the work of William Loewe systematic theologian and specialist in the theology of Bernard Lonergan SJ For over three decades Loewe's writings have sought to make classic christological and soteriological doctrines comprehensible to a Catholic Church that is working to integrate individual subjectivity communal living and historical consciousness in the wake of the Second Vatican Council Essays included in this volume assess Loewe's reinterpretation of patristic and medieval Christology from Irenaeus to Anselm of Canterbury and explain the significance of the theology of Lonergan and Loewe for the fields of soteriology economics family life and interreligious theology While some recent postliberal theologies have polarized the church's relationship with contemporary culture by minimizing similarities between Christianity and other worldviews the contributors in this volume continue Lonergan's project of integrating the findings of various intellectual disciplines with Christian theology and use Loewe's historical and systematic work as a guide in that endeavor While Lonergan's transcendental Thomism has been criticized by both traditionalists and revisionists essays in this collection apply Loewe's theological methodology in a variety of ways to demonstrate that time honored doctrines about Christ can be transplanted into new cultural contexts and gain intelligibility and credibility in this process Having lived and labored through the far reaching changes in Catholic thought introduced in recent decades Loewe's career provides a model for theologians attempting to build bridges between the past and the present and between the church and the world The Evangelical Herald ,1918 God, the World, and Hope Harald Hegstad, 2018-10-31 Who is Jesus Christ What does it mean to say that we are created in the image of God What does salvation mean What is the meaning of baptism What characterizes the Christian fellowship What hope does a Christian faith give for the future These are only a few of the questions that this textbook on dogmatics takes up This book begins the discussion of the various topics by looking at what the Bible has to say Hegstad then examines how the church's doctrine has developed over the course of history and discusses how the Christian faith can best be formulated today This book understands the Christian faith as an answer to universal existential questions that challenge all religions and worldviews Dogmatics is understood here as the expression of a Christian interpretation of life Hegstad himself belongs to the Lutheran church tradition but his perspective is consistently ecumenical This introduction to dogmatics will interest not only students but everyone who is looking for a deeper insight into the Christian faith

Popular Commentary of the Bible: Old Testament : the poetical and the prophetic books Paul Edward Kretzmann,1922 GENTLE SHEPHERD MINISTRIES DISCIPLESHIP AND SUPPLEMENTATION COURSES Rayola Kelley,2013-07-30 In your hands you hold the combination of the works of Rayola Kelley and Jeannette Haley Co founders of Gentle shepherd Ministries in 1989 they have striven to make the glorious truth of Jesus Christ and His redemption a living reality to the hearts of His followers Included in this book are the Gentle Shepherd Ministries Discipleship Course that has been requested and used by people throughout the world along with Bible Studies excerpts from sermons and articles Every bit of material in this resource of information has been compiled with one goal in mind and that is to build up and nurture the life of Christ in the members of His Body the Church Although some information will seem repetitious one must remember the subjects and themes are eternal truths that can and must be approached from different angles to ensure a sound spiritual foundation and a sturdy structure that clearly expresses the new creation mentioned in 2 Corinthians 5 17 The information and challenges put forth in this book will not only nurture the serious disciple of Jesus but it will bring a well rounded understanding as to the fundamental beliefs that make up the Christian faith

Love Makes No Sense Jennifer Strawbridge ,Jarred Mercer,Peter Groves ,2019-01-30 The Christian faith is something people practice The Church prays listens to the Scriptures celebrates the sacraments cares for the suffering and liberates the oppressed This is where the task of theology begins In Love Makes No Sense each chapter engages central issues of theology but remains focused on the Christian life Although it is a book about doctrine Christian teaching it insists that one cannot present a doctrine of the Trinity or Incarnation or anything else in the abstract Teaching divorced from everyday life is not Christian teaching This does not mean this book is primarily practical as opposed to theological It is an invitation to Christian theology that refuses to separate the two The aim of this book is not to satisfy the intellect but to train its readers through approachable theological teaching to live the love that Christian theology proclaims Suitable for people looking to explore Christian theology more deeply be they life long Christians who want a deeper understanding of their faith new Christians or those who are interested in the Christian faith and looking to find out more

The Sunday Magazine ,1889 Death as Transformation Dr Henry L Novello,2013-06-28 A key tenet of Christian faith is that the crucifixion of Jesus Christ is a unique death by which the powers of death in the world have been conquered so that Christian life in the Spirit is marked by the promise and hope of new life already anticipated in the community of baptized believers Notwithstanding this basic tenet regarding the Christian life as a participation in the redemptive death of Jesus Christ theology in the past as well as much contemporary theology tends to assign no salvific significance to the event of our own death focusing instead on death in negative terms as the wages of sin This work is a significant retort to theological neglect both Catholic and Protestant of the positive and transformative aspect of our death when conceived as a dying into the redemptive death of Jesus Christ The development of Henry L Novello s proposed theology of death takes place in conversation with the pre eminent contemporary contributors to this field of theological inquiry By offering comprehensive critiques of Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Karl Barth Eberhard J ngel and J rgen Moltmann Novello painstakingly pieces together a positive construal of death as salvific and transformative What is especially distinctive about Novello s work is that he develops the idea of death as a sharing in the admirable exchange of natures in the person of Jesus Christ from which emerges his theory of resurrection at death for all The reach of the work is extended by exploring some pastoral and liturgical implications of a theology of death conceived as the privileged moment for the actualization of God s grace in Jesus Christ and thus being created anew in the power of the Spirit The Miracles of Jesus Vern S. Poythress,2015-11-17

Christians often view Jesus s miracles simply as proofs of his divinity However as prolific author Vern Poythress shows in this new book they also serve as signs of redemption foreshadowing the salvation that Christ accomplished through his cross and resurrection This means that the stories of Jesus s miracles like the calming of the storm or the feeding of the 5 000 are relevant for both Christians and non Christians alike clearly pointing to the gospel After setting forth a framework for viewing all of Jesus s miracles through this lens Poythress then reflects on the meaning and significance of 26 distinct miracles recorded in the Gospel of Matthew helping modern readers understand and apply them to their own lives today

Death, Society, and Human Experience Robert Kastenbaum,Christopher M. Moreman,2024-03-28 The 13th edition of Death Society and Human Experience provides a panoramic overview of the ways that we are touched by death and dying both as individuals and as members of society A landmark text in the field the authors draw on contributions from the social and behavioral sciences as well as the humanities including perspectives offered through history philosophy religion literature and the arts to provide thorough coverage and understanding of topics associated with the end of life and death and dying By approaching the subject from multiple angles the authors explain the various ways that individual cultural and societal attitudes influence both how and when we die and how we live and deal with the knowledge of death and loss Originally written by Robert Kastenbaum a renowned scholar who developed one of the world s first death education courses Christopher M Moreman who has worked in the field of death studies for two decades has updated this edition In addition to infusing his close areas of focus both in afterlife beliefs and experiences and how these might affect how people live their lives he s weaved in new coverage of current affairs including The impact of COVID 19 on experiences of death bereavement mourning and more Expanded legalization of physician assisted dying in the United States and several countries Changes in bereavement rituals and traditions stemming from technology use and social media With additional content and classroom extensions available online Death Society and Human Experience remains a thoughtful exploratory and impressively comprehensive overview for undergraduate and graduate courses in death dying and bereavement Storied Revelations Gisela H Kreglinger,2014-08-28 Parables were used by Jesus to reveal to us the kingdom of God and to move us from being bystanders to active recipients of God s work of revelation However parables are constantly at risk of being buried as mummies of prose as George MacDonald puts it We become so familiar with the language of Scripture that Jesus parables no longer work on us in this revelatory and transforming way George MacDonald the Victorian poet and theologian observed this very process at work in Victorian society It was a culture saturated with Christian jargon but often devoid of a profound understanding of the gospel for its own time and culture The language of Scripture no longer penetrated people s hearts imaginations and attitudes it no longer transformed people s lives MacDonald called to be a pastor turned a story and more specifically the parabolic as a means of spiritual awakening He created fictive worlds in which the language of Jesus would find a new home and regain its revelatory power for his particular Victorian audience Magic In You Ratneshwar K.
