Kett, 1987 An argument for establishing a core curriculum of the basic information everyone needs to know based on the author's hypothesis that being culturally literate is the foundation of intellectual competence The New First Dictionary of Cultural Literacy Eric Donald Hirsch, 2004 Provides an outline of the knowledge that should be acquired by the end of sixth grade in twenty one subject areas

Learning Cultural Literacy through Creative Practices in Schools Tuuli Lähdesmäki, Jūratė Baranova, Susanne C. Ylönen, Aino-Kaisa Koistinen, Katja Mäkinen, Vaiva Juškiene, Irena Zaleskiene, 2021-11-02 This open access book discusses how cultural literacy can be taught and learned through creative practices It approaches cultural literacy as a dialogic social process based on learning and gaining knowledge through emphatic tolerant and inclusive interaction The book focuses on meaning making in children and young people's visual and multimodal artefacts created by students aged 5-15 as an outcome of the Cultural Literacy Learning Programme implemented in schools in Cyprus Germany Israel Lithuania Spain Portugal and the UK The lessons in the program address different social and cultural themes ranging from one's cultural attachments to being part of a community and engaging more broadly in society The artefacts are explored through data driven content analysis and self reflexive and collaborative interpretation and discussed through multimodality and a sociocultural approach to children's visual expression This interdisciplinary volume draws on cultural studies communication studies art education and educational sciences Time and Space in Literacy Research Catherine Compton-Lilly, Erica Halverson, 2014-04-24 Literacy researchers interested in how specific sites of learning situate students and the ways they make sense of their worlds are asking new questions and thinking in new ways about how time and space operate as contextual dimensions in the learning lives of students teachers and families These investigations inform questions related to history identity methodology in school and out of school spaces and local global literacies An engaging blend of methodological theoretical and empirical work featuring well known researchers on the topic this book provides a conceptual framework for extending existing conceptions of context and provides unique and ground breaking examples of empirical research The Oxford Handbook of the Science of Science Communication Kathleen Hall Jamieson, Dan M. Kahan, Dietram Scheufele, 2017 On topics from genetic engineering and mad cow disease to vaccination and climate change this Handbook draws on the insights of 57 leading science of science communication scholars who explore what social scientists know about how citizens come to understand and act on what is known by science How Children Learn Terese Fayden, 2015-11-17 The inspirational stories of young learners in this book discredit assumptions behind recent educational reforms including high stakes testing and No Child Left Behind policies The experiences of the American Indian children and the author a kindergarten teacher challenge the widely held assumption that minority children enter school at risk Deficit theory assumes that minority children are responsible for their failure by cultural deficiency or family ineptitude Fayden vividly shows how truly equitable treatment of minority children can improve students inherent abilities to learn and can result in higher achievement for minority and all young children Engaging the Age of Jane Austen Bridget Draxler, Danielle Spratt, 2019-01-03

Humanities scholars in general often have a difficult time explaining to others why their work matters and eighteenth century literary scholars are certainly no exception To help remedy this problem literary scholars Bridget Draxler and Danielle Spratt offer this collection of essays to defend the field s relevance and demonstrate its ability to help us better understand current events from the proliferation of media to ongoing social justice battles The result is a book that offers a range of approaches to engaging with undergraduates non professionals and broader publics into an appreciation of eighteenth century literature Essays draw on innovative projects ranging from a Jane Austen reading group held at the public library to students working with an archive to digitize an overlooked writer s novel Reminding us that the eighteenth century was an exhilarating age of lively political culture marked by the rise of libraries and museums the explosion of the press and other platforms for public intellectual debates Draxler and Spratt provide a book that will not only be useful to eighteenth century scholars but can also serve as a model for other periods as well This book will appeal to librarians archivists museum directors scholars and others interested in digital humanities in the public life Contributors Gabriela Almendarez Jessica Bybee Nora Chatchoomsai Gillian Dow Bridget Draxler Joan Gillespie Larisa Good Elizabeth K Goodhue Susan Celia Greenfield Liz Grumbach Kellen Hinrichsen Ellen Jarosz Hannah Jorgenson John C Keller Naz Keynejad Stephen Kutay Chuck Lewis Nicole Linton Devoney Looser Whitney Mannies Ai Miller Tiffany Ouellette Carol Parrish Paul Schuytema David Spadafora Danielle Spratt Anne McKee Stapleton Jessica Stewart Colleen Tripp Susan Twomey Nikki JD White Amy Weldon A Troubling Inheritance Seth A. McCall, 2024-06-15 As long as there have been formal curricula there have been disappointing curricula In an increasingly authoritarian world problematic curricula are on the rise leaving teachers in a bind When faced with these problematic curricula some teachers will submit and do as they are told while other teachers will oppose the problematic curricula and in some cases face the consequences Instead Seth McCall argues for reworking problematic curricula Turning to the nearest bookshelf he engages with his own troubling inheritance a problematic curriculum E D Hirsch et al s The New Dictionary of Cultural Literacy As a gift from a beloved family member that text proved too dear to discard and too problematic to accept unchanged Drawing on examples of assemblage art the author reworks the problematic curriculum through cutting juxtaposing with other materials and re contextualizing in a different setting Navigating in the wake of reactionary movements A Troubling Inheritance Reworking Problematic Curricula encourages teachers to find forms of subsistence while continuing to work toward a larger vision of social justice Losing Heart H. Svi Shapiro, 2006-08-15 In this book Svi Shapiro explores the ideological and attitudinal functions of schools looking especially at what is called the hidden curriculum He offers both an analysis of the role of education in producing and maintaining attitudes and values that contribute to our competitive socially unequal instrumental consumerist and self oriented culture and a radically different vision for what our schools should be about a vision that focuses on education s role in supporting a more critically reflective socially responsible and compassionate culture Federal and state legislation have propelled schools today in the direction of an increasingly test driven instrumental and individually competitive regime Under these legislative mandates schools are increasingly alienating and stressful places for both students and teachers Most disturbing is that this form of education is not conducive to providing young people with the capacity to cope with the moral cultural spiritual and political challenges of the world they inhabit More than only offering a critique of schools Shapiro proposes a counter vision that can lead to a different kind of culture and society and he discusses strategies for advocating and implementing it Written in a style that is very accessible to a wide range of readers Losing Heart The Moral and Spiritual Miseducation of America s Children is also carefully researched and draws on relevant theory to make a strong case This book speaks to a wide range of readers including academics and students in education sociology anthropology political science and cultural studies public school professionals and the general public interested in education It will appeal to faculty in schools of education who are looking for a text that offers both a critical language and one that speaks to possibility and change

Making Education

Educational Halvor Hoveid, Marit Honerød Hoveid, 2019-09-26 This book is an argument for reflexivity in the act of teaching which means to acknowledge that intention guides the act of teaching Teaching must create attention towards processes of collectivity in the classroom Today teaching is both acts of expressing knowledge and acts of securing justice to all students through a mediation of knowledge Teaching therefore expresses both knowledge with reference to school subjects and justice according to the distribution of this knowledge The authors argue for teaching as the driver of education To pay attention to teaching is to pay attention to that which is inside the system of education To consider education as a mediation of knowledge between generations places teaching as an act of performing the content of education in a class in a school The complexity of these processes is easily overlooked when education is used as a means in competitive economies The approach taken in this text is that deliberations about teaching must be based on historicity The support for this argument builds on a reading of the French philosopher Paul Ricoeur The book addresses teaching as an integral part of the learning process In education today everything seems to be concentrated around learning as if teaching no longer takes place Teachers and teacher educators need a language to discuss and understand teaching both as personal and institutional actions A Ricoeurian approach to a discussion on teaching as a reflexive and institutional practice provides a timely approach to important questions related to teaching in our day and age
