Adoption and Foster Care, 1975, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Children and Youth of ..., 94-1, April 28 & 29, 1975; July 14 & 18, 1975 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1975 Decision Making: Recent Developments and Worldwide Applications Stelios H. Zanakis, Georgios Doukidis, Constantin Zopounidis, 2013-04-17 This chapter describes a study conducted at the Swinburne University of Technology in Australia in their School of Business The study was to explore the applicability of a judgment analytic decision support system to the assessment of the likelihood of an applicant being selected for admission to the School's Graduate Certificate in Business Administration GCBA program The likelihood of a program administrator selecting a particular applicant is directly linked to the assessment of the likelihood of that applicant's success in the GCBA program The purpose of this study in effect was to analyze the administrative judgment process in assessment of an applicant's likelihood of success in the program THE PROCESS OF HUMAN JUDGMENT Human judgment is a process through which an individual uses social information to make decisions. The social information is obtained from an individual's environment and is interpreted through the individual's cognitive image of the environment. The cognitive image provides a representation of the environment based on past experiences and training and essentially predisposes the person to respond to social information in predictable ways. An individual's policies or beliefs about the environment represent these patterns. Human judgments are based then upon one's interpretation of available information. They are probability statements about one's environment and how one reacts to it. This condition leads to the human judgment process being inherently limited. It is fundamentally a covert process. It is seldom possible for an individual to accurately describe his or her judgment process accurately. Rutter's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry Anita Thapar, Daniel S. Pine, James F. Leckman, Stephen Scott, Margaret J. Snowling, Eric A. Taylor, 2017-12-26

Rutter's Child and Adolescent Psychiatry is the leading textbook in its field. Both interdisciplinary and international, it provides a coherent appraisal of the current state of the field to help researchers, trainees, and practicing clinicians in their daily work. Integrating science and clinical practice, it is a comprehensive reference for all aspects of child and adolescent psychiatry. New to this full color edition are expanded coverage on classification including the newly revised Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders DSM 5 and new chapters on systems neuroscience, relationship based treatments, resilience, global psychiatry, and infant mental health. From an international team of expert editors and contributors, this sixth edition is essential reading for all professionals working and learning in the fields of child and adolescent mental health and developmental psychopathology as well as for clinicians working in primary care and pediatric settings. Michael Rutter has contributed a number of new chapters and a Foreword for this edition. I greatly welcome this new edition as providing both a continuity with the past and a substantial new look. Professor Sir Michael Rutter extract from Foreword. Reviews of previous editions: This book is by far the best textbook of Child Adolescent Psychiatry written to date. Dr Judith Rapoport, NIH. The editors and the authors are to be congratulated for providing us with such a high standard for a textbook on modern child psychiatry. I strongly recommend this book to every child psychiatrist who wants a reliable up to date comprehensive informative and very useful textbook. To my mind, this is the best book of its kind available today. Journal of Child Psychology and Psychiatry.
