Strategies to Achieve a Binding International Agreement on Regulating Cartels John Sanghyun Lee, 2016-11-24 This book addresses the lack of binding multi lateral international agreement on cartels through analysis of trials and failures It also suggests strategic approaches to overcome current standstills In addition the book contrasts international agreement on cartels with inter governmental commodity agreement which has been developed separately through international law Through this project the author puts forth that successful international law on cartels needs to reflect the interests and arguments of developing countries

PERSPECTIVES ON INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS John Kuada, 2016-04-04

Globalization has produced opportunities and challenges that countries and firms respond to with a variety of policies and strategies. Approaches that scholars may find intuitively appealing may be considered inappropriate in some contexts. This book highlights the diversity of challenges, opportunities, as well as the policy and strategy options that governments and businesses have considered useful in different operational contexts. It brings together research done by scholars at the International Business Centre, Department of Business and Management at Aalborg University, Denmark, and seeks to provide inspiration for further research into some key international business issues. Issues discussed include the following:

- A The role of social capital in the internationalization process of firms
- A Downstream and upstream aspects of internationalization
- A Network organizational perspective on globalized innovation processes
- A Performance assessment in cross border mergers and acquisitions
- A The human side of national and firm level competitiveness
- A Country of origin effect on brand perception
- A Role of culture international joint venture management
- A Multiculturalism and strategizing in international firms
