New Europe in Transition Peter Anderson, Georg Wiessala, Christopher Williams, 2001-01-01 The essays address the key questions currently confronting Europe seeking to provide a broad based introduction to the post millennial politics of this complex continent These questions are addressed on three levels first at the level of the major institutions which straddle large parts of Europe NATO and the OSCE and the E U second from the perspective of a large sample of European countries including parts of the former Soviet Union and third with regard to the economic cultural and social dimensions of European society both East and West

Resounding Transcendence Jeffers Engelhardt, Philip Bohlman, 2016-03-04 Resounding Transcendence is a pathbreaking set of ethnographic and historical essays by leading scholars exploring the ways sacred music effects cultural political and religious transitions in the contemporary world With chapters covering Christian Muslim Jewish and Buddhist practices in East and Southeast Asia the Indian subcontinent North America the Caribbean North Africa and Europe the volume establishes the theoretical and methodological foundations for music scholarship to engage in current debates about modern religion and secular epistemologies It also transforms those debates through sophisticated nuanced treatments of sound and music ubiquitous elements of ritual and religion often glossed over in other disciplines Resounding Transcendence confronts the relationship of sound divinity and religious practice in diverse post secular contexts By examining the immanence of transcendence in specific social and historical contexts and rethinking the reified nature of religion and world religions these authors examine the dynamics of difference and transition within and between sacred musical practices The work in this volume transitions between traditional spaces of sacred musical practice and emerging public spaces for popular religious performance between the transformative experience of ritual and the sacred musical affordances of media technologies between the charisma of individual performers and the power of the marketplace and between the making of authenticity and hybridity in religious repertoires and practices Broad in scope rich in ethnographic and historical detail and theoretically ambitious Resounding Transcendence is an essential contribution to the study of music and religion

Small Transformations János Mátyás Kovács, 2003 East Central Europe is about to bring its welfare reforms to the European Union Nevertheless in the course of the Accession one could hardly fix the European standards of social policy or examine to what degree the newcomers may have approached them Evidently there has always been a variety of welfare regimes in the EU Moreover today's experts in post communist countries do not find stable policies and institutional arrangements in the West but rather another reform process the domestication of the classical welfare states True the general trends are not dissimilar partial retrenchment decentralization marketisation and privatisation of public welfare services as well as an upsurge of the voluntary sector are the main characteristic features of regulating welfare on both sides of the former Iron Curtain These issues are addressed by the contributors of this volume leading representatives of their professions in an unprecedented way In avoiding the convenient cliché

Models of Capitalism in the European Union Beáta Farkas,2016-09-07 This book uses comparative economic analysis to provide a common conceptual framework for all current European Union member states Based on empirical investigation the author identifies the Nordic North western Mediterranean and Central and Eastern models of capitalism on the threshold of the 2008 global financial and economic crisis The chapters also examine the resulting institutional responses to the crisis and the methods of crisis management adopted by each member state The analysis reveals that the crisis has not triggered radical institutional change but instead highlighted deep institutional differences not between the old and new member states but between the Nordic North western Mediterranean and Central and Eastern European countries These institutional differences are so significant that they require the rethinking of European integration theory Models of Capitalism in the European Union serves as a useful handbook for academics advanced students policy makers and advisors who are interested in European economic issues

The International Monetary System Hans Genberg,2012-12-06 HANSGENBERG An international monetary system should provide a stable and predictable environment for international trade and investment At the very least it should not by itself be a source of disturbances in the world economy and it should be designed so that policy errors or unforeseen shocks are not unduly transmitted between countries In this perspective worldwide integration of goods and financial markets present a particular challenge Such integration increases the cross border effects of economic policies at the same time as interlocking payments and financial systems transmit financial disturbances rapidly throughout the world As the degree of integration and interdependence changes over time is not a foregone conclusion that international monetary institutions and mechanisms always remain well adapted to the state of the world economy Occasional review of the performance of the system as well as proposals for improvements are therefore necessary The contributions to this volume have l been brought together with this in mind Developments in Central and East European Politics 2 Stephen White,Judy Batt,Paul G. Lewis,1998
