New International Economic Order Mangat Ram Aggarwal,1987 Globalisation and Interdependence in the International Political Economy R. J. Barry Jones,2013-11-07 Globalisation and Interdependence in the International Political Economy addresses central developments within the contemporary international system The notions of interdependence and globalisation that have accompanied the political discourse of a new world disorder are replete with definitional ambiguities theoretical difficulties and empirical complexities Barry Jones offers a critical review and analysis of these concepts their significance and place within the wider debates of international political economy He argues that contemporary conditions are complex with regionalising tendencies cross cutting those of increasing globalisation and national impulses surviving even in the face of powerful internationalising forces Future developments it is concluded may also be far more uncertain and turbulent than is widely anticipated Written by a leading authority this volume is an effective and compelling introduction to the complex study of international political economy World Bank and Economic Development of India L. N. Dash,2000 Covers the period from the 1950s to 1990s Grand Strategies of the Left Van Jackson,2023-11-02 This book maps the constellation of left progressive foreign policy thought and conceptualizes grand strategy as worldmaking The American Role in the Global Economy Susan J. Whitson,1988 U.S. Foreign Policy and the UN System Frances K. Scott,1995 Democratization and the Protection of Human Rights in Africa Brendalyn P. Ambrose,1995-08-24 Development was achieved in the West by capitalism and industrialization before liberal democracy was introduced as a viable form of government Africa is grappling with the problems of underdevelopment Yet the West insists on liberal democracy for Africa a form of government which has no economic and social foundations in Africa The West now faults the African people for not being able to establish and sustain democratic institutions Ambrose an African development practitioner who recently returning from the continent after three intense years of fact finding research and consultation argues that the solution to Africa s problems does not lie in externally imposed liberal institutions shored up by top down bureaucracy that most often is ignorant unresponsive or outright hostile to the needs of the impoverished majority Her investigations lead her to believe that the solution for Africa lies in a collective approach based on empowerment of the masses and economic reforms Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library,1988 Special Bibliography Series ,1957 The New International Economic Order Karl P Sauvart,Hajo Hasenpflug,2019-06-10 In the face of the continuing economic gap between the industrialized and the developing countries the Third World began to demand a reorganization of the international economic system its mechanisms organizations purposes that would make the system responsive to the needs of all of its members The United Nations Sixth Special Session in 1974 The Indian Journal of Agricultural Economics ,1987 Vols include Proceedings of the conference of the Indian Society of Agricultural Economics Illicit Financial Flows from South Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga,2021-09-21 This book examines the detrimental impact of illicit financial flows on South Africa's development political economy and transformation in the 21st century Over the years illicit financial flows have led to the systematic looting and channelling away of South African resources yet they are rarely studied by researchers looking to explain the country's underdevelopment and political economy This book looks across sectors showing that illicit financial flows cut across all the key pillars of development frustrating the betterment of people's lives in South Africa Investigating the problem from a decolonial perspective the book delves deep into the catastrophic impacts of illicit financial flows for people and the economy discusses how the problem is being combatted and ultimately suggests solutions for rebuilding social trust between people and the state Making an important contribution to the decolonial debate as well as to discussions of South Africa's political economy this book will be of interest to researchers across African studies global development political science law and corruption studies

The New International Economic Order Paul Stubbs, 2025-09-05 The New International Economic Order NIEO was an attempt underpinned by the agency of the Global South to articulate global economic and social rights consequent upon political rights gained through processes of decolonisation The New International Economic Order Lives and Afterlives situates the NIEO within the interregnum of the 1970s addressing its core features intellectual antecedents contradictions absences and afterlives Particular attention is paid to the role of the Non Aligned Movement NAM alongside the G 77 and UNCTAD The book traces the orchestrated United States opposition to the NIEO and the growth of neoliberalism at the end of the 1970s before discussing some of the NIEO's many afterlives It argues that analysing translating and adapting the NIEO is important for any re-envisioning of emancipatory global economic political and social relations today Using a mixture of documentary and archive material The New International Economic Order will be of interest to students and researchers in diplomatic history international relations development studies and sociology It brings together a large number of themes that are not usually considered together in the existing literature combining theory and empirics in innovative ways

Perspectives on the right to development Carol C Ngang, Serges Djoyou Kamga, Vusi Gumede, 2018-01-01 The last couple of decades has not only witnessed an increased convergence between human rights and development but also a significant shift towards rights-based approaches to development including especially responsiveness to the fact that development in itself is a human right guaranteed to be enjoyed by all peoples This edited volume of peer-reviewed papers constitutes the first product resulting from the annual international conference series on the right to development organised by the Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria and the Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute at the University of South Africa It explores the complex nature of the right to development from a diversified perspective including from a conceptual thematic country and regional points of view Conceived with the purpose to overshadow dominant economic growth approaches to development the perspectives on the right to development articulated in this publication seek to locate the developmentalist discourse within the framework of accountability and people-centred development programming necessitating appropriate policy formulation to ensure the constant improvement in human well being The book is written with the aim to reach out to researchers academics practitioners and policy makers who desire an in depth understanding of the right to development as it applies universally
