New Life: New Room June Jordan, 1975 Encouraged by Father three children move into and decorate their own room while Mother is in the hospital having a new baby sister

Growgirl Heather Donahue, 2012-12-31 A wry and entertaining memoir about growing up growing pot and life after your career goes up in smoke At age thirty four Heather Donahue's life went to pot Literally After starring in The Blair Witch Project the tiny indie film turned blockbuster that Roger Ebert named one of the ten Most Influential Movies of the Century she became a household name But the afterglow of the movie faded her acting career stalled Determined to start a new life she left most remnants of the old one in the desert meditated on things for a few days then followed her brand new boyfriend to her brand new life growing pot Growgirl is Heather's year living on a pot farm in Nuggettown California among The Community a collection of growers their pot wives and the reason for it all The Girls They help one another build grow rooms tend to their crops and provide a glimpse into this rarely seen world Though her relationship hits rocky territory Heather's new life brings unexpected solace and she's surprised to finally find normalcy in the least likely of places

Astrotopia Mary-Jane Rubenstein, 2022-11-25 A revealing look at the parallel mythologies behind the colonization of Earth and space and a bold vision for a more equitable responsible future both on and beyond our planet As environmental political and public health crises multiply on Earth we are also at the dawn of a new space race in which governments team up with celebrity billionaires to exploit the cosmos for human gain The best known of these pioneers are selling different visions of the future while Elon Musk and SpaceX seek to establish a human presence on Mars Jeff Bezos and Blue Origin work toward moving millions of earthlings into rotating near Earth habitats Despite these distinctions these two billionaires share a core utopian project the salvation of humanity through the exploitation of space In Astrotopia philosopher of science and religion Mary Jane Rubenstein pulls back the curtain on the not so new myths these space barons are peddling like growth without limit energy without guilt and salvation in a brand new world As Rubenstein reveals we have already seen the destructive effects of this frontier zealotry in the centuries long history of European colonialism Much like the imperial project on Earth this renewed effort to conquer space is presented as a religious calling in the face of a coming apocalypse some very wealthy messiahs are offering an other worldly escape to a chosen few But Rubenstein does more than expose the values of capitalist technoscience as the product of bad mythologies She offers a vision of exploring space without reproducing the atrocities of earthly colonialism encouraging us to find and even make stories that put cosmic caretaking over profiteering

Songs Without Words Ann Packer, 2008-07-29 Liz and Sarabeth were girlhood neighbors in the suburbs of Northern California brought as close as sisters by the suicide of Sarabeth's mother In the decades that followed their relationship remained a source of continuity and strength But when Liz's adolescent daughter enters dangerous waters the women's friendship takes a devastating turn forcing Liz and Sarabeth to question their most deeply held beliefs about their connection From the bestselling author of The Dive from Clausen's Pier Songs Without

Kuykendall,2023-09-13 We walked down the steps of the church into the cold December air laughing Then I suddenly saw a boy of about fourteen in a cap running past the church shouting The Japs bombed Pearl Harbor The Japs bombed Pearl Harbor For a moment in time Dad and Mom froze and my hair stood on end I didn't even know where Pearl Harbor was located I only knew it must be somewhere in the United States The story of my own family has intrigued me ever since I was a little boy For years I have sat and listened to my parents grandparents and great grandparents besides many aunts uncles and other relatives to hear bits and pieces of our story Life is made up of stories It is how we understand the world around us We need to understand our own lives and choices in light of a historical context We need to have the ability to identify where we align with and don't align with values and ways of life from the past In so doing our lives will feel more grounded People today talk about how they feel a disconnect between themselves in the twenty first century and the untouchable past But the past really holds a lot of the key to the future The right proven ways from the past are ours for the taking if we would but take the time to learn about them And that is what this book is all about Yes it will take time to complete But I don't want it to seem like a homework assignment Enjoy Think about it as a stepping stone to your own historical discoveries May Music Comes in Springtime inspire you as you continue this odyssey called life      Big Timber Amanda Baxton, There's no way it could work with him Emma was tired of all the demands being put on her so as soon as she graduated law school she headed back to the small town she was born in Her overbearing parents had relocated with her to the big city when she was fifteen and she'd missed the small town life ever since The city hustle and bustle just didn't connect with her soul and there's no reason to do anything if your soul's not in it She was happy to see that some things didn't change including her childhood friend Jake Well he changed in some ways but deep down he was still the special person she knew him to be When her mother demands she return to the city to meet the suitors that have been arranged for her Emma does the only thing she can she lies to her mother and says she's engaged to Jake Can these two pretend to be engaged and keep this a temporary arrangement or will their feelings for one another bloom into a cherished relationship
