Penfold Time Honoured:

Wine and Identity Matt Harvey, Leanne White, Warwick Frost, 2014-01-10 In an increasingly competitive global market winemakers are seeking to increase their sales and wine regions to attract tourists To achieve these aims there is a trend towards linking wine marketing with identity Such an approach seeks to distinguish wine products whether wine or wine tourism from their competitors by focusing on cultural and geographical attributes that contribute to the image and experience In essence marketing wine and wine regions has become increasingly about telling stories engaging and provocative stories which engage consumers and tourists and translate into sales This timely book examines this phenomena and how it is leading to changes in the wine and tourism industries for the first time It takes a global approach drawing on research studies from around the world including old and new world wine regions The volume is divided into three parts The first branding investigates cases where established regions have sought to strengthen their brands or newer regions are striving to create effective emerging brands The second heritage considers cases where there are strong linkages between cultural heritage and wine marketing The third section terroir explores how a sense of place is inherent in winescapes and regional identities and is increasingly being used as a distinctive selling proposition This significant volume showcasing the connections between place identity variety and wine will be valuable reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism marketing and wine studies

Fights of My Life Greg Combet, Mark Davis, 2014-08-01 Greg Combet has been central to some of the biggest public struggles of our time on the waterfront the collapse of an airline compensation for asbestos victims the campaign against unfair workplace laws and then climate change From an idyllic childhood on the Minchinbury estate in the western suburbs of Sydney Combet's world changed dramatically with the early death of his wine maker father The shy child was uprooted to the suburbs and an uncertain future A scholarship allowed him to study engineering and saw him appreciate first hand the role of unions in the workplace He rose to lead the Australian trade union movement and become a senior minister in the Rudd and Gillard Labor governments Along the way he has battled his own struggles with political ideology the impact of work on families and the loneliness of the parliamentary life His story is not just a personal memoir it is an insight into how power works in Australia who holds it how it is used and the ruthless ways in which it is snatched The Fights of My Life is the story of a man who faces up to the power structures of politics big business and the media His latest target is the labour movement arguing that the Labor Party and the trade unions must democratise to engage the next generation of activists to fight the good fight to achieve a more fair and just Australia
