Bennett,2017-12-02 The past two decades have seen the growth of well coordinated networks of political activists who have managed to obtain hundreds of millions of taxpayers dollars for political lobbying Although federal regulations prohibit such activities loopholes in the law allow these monies to be masked as private resources State and federal taxpayers monies fund the lobbying efforts of private advocacy groups on both the political left and the right In Tax Funded Politics James Bennett argues that governmental agencies rather than combating theses abuses aid and abet them in order to increase their own size and scope Drawing on a broad range of examples Bennett shows how the ideals of the nation s Founding Fathers have been subverted by molding and manipulating the will of the people through government orchestrated propaganda Government agencies far from being indifferent to self aggrandizement and the consolidation of wealth and power are concerned with their own self interest whether it is enhancing their budget or supporting a particular political agenda Likewise nonprofit entities claim to operate solely in the public interest but also engage in political advocacy and lobbying activities But when charities do the lobbying blatant self interest is wrapped in the halo of the public interest Tax Funded Politics exposes dozens of mutually beneficial arrangements between government and charities involving hundreds of millions of dollars It then explores their implications Groups that receive government funds are loath to criticize failed government programs and are advocates for the expansion of the agencies that provide their support Even charities learn not to bite the hand that feeds them Although the vast majority of the funds are directed to nonprofit groups on the left of the political spectrum so called conservative organizations have also sought and received taxpayers funds despite promise to get g The Literature of the Nonprofit Sector ,1996 The first volume was a cumulative volume which contained the Foundation Center collection Subsequent editions include all the Foundation Center acquisitions acquired annually as well as other current literature The Workbook ,1994 National Guide to Funding in Arts and Culture ,2002
