F. Macdonald, 1968      Perception and Personal Identity, 1969      The Truthful and the Good J.J. Drummond, J.G. Hart, 2013-12-11 This volume was occasioned by the desire of its contributors to honor Robert Sokolowski on his sixtieth birthday The desire first took form on the streets of an American metropolis when several of us while attending a philosophy conference were bemoaning the lack of passion for doing philosophy as we all conceived it In this expression of our discontent we all had a common exemplar in mind someone for whom the passion for the truthful and the good is embodied in every sentence of his rich writings Felicitously this very thinker was someone whom we all regard as manifesting in his person and life these same properties which his writings exhibit and pursue as luminous ideals As a result John Brough John Drummond and I came up with the idea that we hold our own conference and do philosophy as we envisage it and at the same time honor its foremost exemplary practitioner whose sixtieth birthday was the following year Immediately the idea took wings among the handful of us and the dreariness of that philosophy congress receded The first task of thinking of possible speakers was easy The issue of the venue for our symposium what I like to call the Sokofest had to be decided as well as the details of its realization
