Power To Rise The Story Of The National Ballet Of Canada:

Power to Rise James E. Neufeld, 1996 Power to Rise is the first fully documented account of the artistic and organizational history of this remarkable Canadian cultural institution Based on archival sources many hitherto unavailable of the National Ballet of Canada and the National Archives of Canada the book includes first hand accounts of more than fifty of the personalities closely associated with the company throughout its life In Power to Rise we learn of the inhospitable environment in which the National Ballet struggled to establish itself of its close calls with bankruptcy and of its evolution into a full fledged professional company We witness the events that led to Franca's arrival from England the uncompromising and often controversial idealism of her artistic leadership the company's dramatic and sometimes perilous growth to a level that prompted the greatest dancers of the age among them Rudolf Nureyev and Erik Bruhn to come to work with company's own stars including Karen Kain and Veronica Tennant The text is illustrated with over 140 photographs drawn from the company's enormous archives as well as from private sources that re-create the characters settings moods and artistry of the company BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Lois

Grand a famous theatre in London Ontario reminiscences from the early days of radio the history of the renowned Stratford Festival and a lavish history of the famous National Ballet of Canada Canada s performing artists blossomed in the twentieth century and you can learn all about it here Includes Broadway North Let s Go to The Grand Once Upon a Time in Paradise Passion to Dance Sky Train Romancing the Bard Stardust and Shadows Louis Applebaum Walter Pitman,2002-10-01

Canadian composer Louis Applebaum devoted his life to the cultural awakening of his native land and this magnificent obsession drove him to become a founder of the Canadian League of Composers and the Canadian Music Centre He was an instrumental figure in the early development of the National Film Board the Stratford Festival and the National Art Centre in Ottawa For nearly half a century he composed music for the Stratford Festival television radio and films This illustrated biography explores the man who was beloved by his fellow artists and the icon to whom every Canadian knowingly or not is indebted Nutcracker Nation Jennifer Fisher,2008-10-01

The Nutcracker is the most popular ballet in the world adopted and adapted by hundreds of communities across the United States and Canada every Christmas season In this entertainingly informative book Jennifer Fisher offers new insights into the Nutcracker phenomenon examining it as a dance scholar and critic a former participant an observer of popular culture and an interviewer of those who dance present and watch the beloved ballet Fisher traces The Nutcracker s history from its St Petersburg premiere in 1892 through its emigration to North America in the mid twentieth century to the many productions of recent years She notes that after it was choreographed by another Russian immigrant to the New World George Balanchine the ballet began to thrive and variegate Hawaiians added hula Canadians added hockey Mark Morris set it in the swinging sixties and Donald Byrd placed it in Harlem The dance world underestimates The Nutcracker at its peril Fisher suggests because the ballet is one of its most powerfully resonant traditions After starting life as a Russian ballet based on a German tale about a little girl s imagination The Nutcracker has become a way for Americans to tell a story about their communal values and themselves Oxford Dictionary of National Biography 2005-2008 Lawrence Goldman,2013-03-07

Who made modern Britain This book drawn from the award winning Oxford Dictionary of National Biography tells the story of our recent past through the lives of those who shaped national life Following on from the Oxford DNB s first supplement volume noteworthy people who died between 2001 and 2004 this new volume offers biographies of more than 850 men and women who left their mark on twentieth and twenty first century Britain and who died in the years 2005 to 2008 Here are the people responsible for major developments in national life from politics the arts business technology and law to military service sport education science and medicine Many are closely connected to specific periods in Britain s recent history From the 1950s the young Harold Pinter or the Yorkshire cricketer Fred Trueman for example From the Sixties the footballer George Best photographer Patrick Lichfield and the Pink Floyd musician Syd Barrett It s hard to look back to the 1970s without thinking of Edward Heath and James Callaghan who led the country for seven years in that turbulent decade or similarly Freddie Laker pioneer of budget air travel and the comedians Ronnie Barker and Dave Allen who entertained with their sketch shows and sit coms A decade later you probably browsed in Anita Roddick's Body Shop or danced to the music of Factory Records established by the Manchester entrepreneur Tony Wilson In the 1990s you may have hoped that Things can only get better with a New Labour government which included Robin Cook and Mo Mowlam Many in this volume are remembered for lives dedicated to a profession or cause Bill Deedes or Conor Cruise O'Brien in journalism Ned Sherrin in broadcasting or indeed Ted Heath whose political career spanned more than 50 years Others were responsible for discoveries or innovations of lasting legacy and benefit among them the epidemiologist Richard Doll who made the link between smoking and lung cancer Cicely Saunders creator of the hospice movement and Chad Varah founder of the Samaritans With John Profumo who gave his name to a scandal policeman Malcolm Fewtrell who investigated the Great Train Robbery or the Russian dissident Aleksandr Litvinenko who was killed in London in 2006 we have individuals best known for specific moments in our recent past Others are synonymous with popular objects and experiences evocative of recent decades Mastermind with Magnus Magnusson the PG Tips chimpanzees trained by Molly Badham John DeLorean's gull wing car or the new British Library designed by Colin St John Wilson though as rounded and balanced accounts Oxford DNB biographies also set these events in the wider context of a person's life story Authoritative and accessible the biographies in this volume are written by specialist authors many of them leading figures in their field Here you will find Michael Billington on Harold Pinter Michael Crick on George Best Richard Davenport Hines on Anita Roddick Brenda Hale on Rose Heilbron Roy Hattersley on James Callaghan Simon Heffer on John Profumo Douglas Hurd on Edward Heath Alex Jennings on Paul Scofield Hermione Lee on Pat Kavanagh Geoffrey Wheatcroft on Conor Cruise O'Brien and Peregrine Worsthorne on Bill Deedes Many in this volume are naturally household names But a good number are also remembered for lives away from the headlines What in the 1980s became Thatcherism owed much to behind the scenes advice from Ralph Harris and Alfred Sherman children who learned to read with Ladybird Books must thank their creator Douglas Keen while without its first producer Verity Lambert there would have been no Doctor Who Others are ordinary people capable of remarkable acts Take for instance Arthur Bywater who over two days in 1944 cleared thousands of bombs from a Liverpool munitions factory following an explosion only to do the same months later in another factory Awarded the George Cross and the George Medal Bywater remains the only non-combatant to have received Britain's two highest awards for civilian bravery
