The Event of Style in Literature M. Aquilina, 2014-09-16 The Event of Style in Literature brings discussions about the question of style up to date by schematising the principal issues relating to the topic through a critical overview of the canon of style studies It reads the work of Jacques Derrida Maurice Blanchot and

Hans Georg Gadamer as groundbreaking and eventful interventions Political Writings, 1953-1993 Maurice Blanchot, 2010 Maurice Blanchot is a towering yet enigmatic figure in 20th century French thought Both his fiction and his criticism played a determining role in how postwar French philosophy was written This volume collects his political writings from 1953 and 1993 Poetics of Singularity Timothy Clark, 2019-06-01 This polemical book reveals the basic tenets of what may be called a poetics of singularity in Martin Heidegger Maurice Blanchot Jacques Derrida and the strange late essays of Hans Georg Gadamer At issue is the at first simple even familiar idea that literary or poetic meaning cannot be stated in terms other than its own that a text strives towards the status of being an example if of anything only of itself sole witness of what it alone projects This issue opens a series of powerful questions concerning basic features of Western thought about the nature of understanding on Kierkegaard's singular individual that is yet each human life in its exceptionality of the uniqueness of historical testimony the nature of community The Poetics of Singularity forms an ethically compelling alternative to the currently dominant cultural social studies paradigm in literary criticism a neo Darwinian understanding of art and life which is sometimes only a disguised version of American nationalism Features An original work of scholarship combining elucidation research and polemics Identifies a forceful tradition of twentieth century poetics which differs from received ideas of deconstruction which the author names the poetics of singularity Makes available in English some previously untranslated material in the chapters on Heidegger and Gadamer and covers relatively unknown texts by Blanchot and some very recent work by Derrida Contesting Media Power James Curran, Nick Couldry, 2003-09-22 Contesting Media Power is the most ambitious international collection to date on the worldwide growth of alternative media that are challenging the power concentration in large media corporations Media scholars and political scientists develop a broad comparative framework for analyzing alternative media in Australia Chile China Indonesia Malaysia Russia Sweden South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States Topics include independent media centers gay online networks and alternative web discussion forums feminist film political journalism and social networks indigenous communication and church sponsored media This important book will help shape debates on the media's role in current global struggles such as the anti globalization movement Contesting Illness Katherine Anne Teghtsoonian, Pamela Moss, 2008-01-01 Contesting Illness offers valuable insights into the assumptions practices and interactions that shape illness in the twenty first century Genre and Extravagance in the Novel Jed Rasula, 2021 Examines the form of the novel capaciously defined and across its history exploring the interplay of conformity and experimentation in classic and outlier examples of the genre with a focus on Joseph Conrad Henry James and Virginia Woolf Geo-economics and Power Politics in the 21st Century Mikael Wigell, Sören Scholvin, Mika Aaltola, 2018-07-06 Starting from the key concept of geo economics this book investigates the new power politics and argues that the changing structural features of the contemporary international system are recasting the strategic imperatives of foreign policy practice States increasingly practice power politics by economic means Whether it is about Iran's nuclear programme or Russia's annexation of Crimea. Western states prefer economic sanctions to military force. Most rising powers have also become cunning agents of economic statecraft. China for instance is using finance investment and trade as means to gain strategic influence and embed its global rise. Yet the way states use economic power to pursue strategic aims remains an understudied topic in International Political Economy and International Relations. The contributions to this volume assess geo economics as a form of power politics. They show how power and security are no longer simply coupled to the physical control of territory by military means but also to commanding and manipulating the economic binds that are decisive in today's globalised and highly interconnected world. Indeed as the volume shows the ability to wield economic power forms an essential means in the foreign policies of major powers. In so doing the book challenges simplistic accounts of a return to traditional military driven geopolitics while not succumbing to any unfounded idealism based on the supposedly stabilising effects of interdependence on international relations. As such it advances our understanding of geo economics as a strategic practice and as an innovative and timely analytical approach. This book will be of much interest to students of security studies international political economy foreign policy and International Relations in general.

Friendship Maurice Blanchot, Elizabeth Rottenberg, 1997. For the past half century Maurice Blanchot has been an extraordinarily influential figure on the French literary and cultural scene. He is arguably the key figure after Sartre in exploring the relation between literature and philosophy. This collection of 29 critical essays and reviews on art, politics, literature and philosophy documents the wide range of Blanchot's interests from the enigmatic paintings in the Lascaux caves to the atomic era. Essays are devoted to works of fiction: Louis Ren des For ts, Pierre Klossowski, Roger Laporte, Marguerite Duras to autobiographies or testimonies: Michel Leiris, Robert Antelme, Andr Gorz, Franz Kafka or to authors who are more than ever contemporary: Jean Paulhan, Albert Camus. Several essays focus on questions of Judaism as expressed in the works of Edmond Jab s, Emmanuel, Levinas and Martin Buber. Among the other topics covered are Andr Malraux's imaginary museum, the Pl iade Encyclopedia project of Raymond Queneau, paperback publishing, the work of Claude L vi Strauss, Benjamin's Task of the Translator, Marx and communism, writings on the Holocaust and the difference between art and writing. The book concludes with an eloquent invocation to friendship on the occasion of the death of Georges Bataille.

Contested World Orders Matthew D. Stephen, Michael Zürn, 2019-07-11. World orders are increasingly contested. As international institutions have taken on ever more ambitious tasks they have been challenged by rising powers dissatisfied with existing institutional inequalities, by non governmental organizations worried about the direction of global governance and even by some established powers no longer content to lead the institutions they themselves created. For the first time this volume examines these sources of contestation under a common and systematic institutionalist framework. While the authority of institutions has deepened at the same time it has fuelled contestation and resistance. In a series of rigorous and empirically revealing chapters the authors of Contested World Orders examine systematically the demands of key actors in the contestation of international institutions Ranging in scope from the World Trade Organization and the Nuclear Non proliferation Regime to the Kimberley Process on conflict diamonds and the climate finance provisions of the UNFCCC the chapters deploy a variety of methods to reveal just to what extent and along which lines of conflict rising powers and NGOs contest international institutions Contested World Orders seeks answers to the key questions of our time Exactly how deeply are international institutions contested Which actors seek the most fundamental changes Which aspects of international institutions have generated the most transnational conflicts And what does this mean for the future of world order
