Re-inventing the Corporation John Naisbitt, Patricia Aburdene, 1986      Re-inventing the Corporation John Naisbitt, Patricia Aburdene, 1986      Arguing for Equality J. Baker, 1988      Reinventing the Corporation John Naisbitt, Outlet, 1988-03-09 Describes how the new information society is altering the nature of the workplace and how some corporations are responding      Summary: Re-Inventing the Corporation BusinessNews Publishing, 2014-09-29 The must read summary of John Naisbitt and Patricia Aburdene's book Re Inventing the Corporation Transforming Your Job and Your Company for the New Information Society This complete summary of the ideas from John Naisbitt and Patricia Aburdene's book Re Inventing the Corporation shows that there is currently a window of opportunity open to re invent the way business and society is structured This opportunity has been generated by two trends which have converged at this specific point in history In their book the authors explain that as a result the concept of the corporation as a business unit must be re invented if the corporation is to remain the building block of the business infrastructure This summary provides guidelines that you can follow to transform your job and your company in line with the new information society Added value of this summary Save time Understand key concepts Expand your knowledge To learn more read Re Inventing the Corporation and discover the key to evolving and moving towards the future      Reinventing the Factory II Roy L. Harmon, Leroy D. Peterson, 1992 Documents more than a hundred real life applications of productivity improvement      Re-Inventing the Corporation John Naisbitt, 1985-09-01      Reinventing Bankruptcy Law Virginia Torrie, 2020-05-26 Reinventing Bankruptcy Law explodes conventional wisdom about the history of the Companies Creditors Arrangement Act and in its place offers the first historical account of Canada's premier corporate restructuring statute The book adopts a novel research approach that combines legal history socio legal theory ideas from political science and doctrinal legal analysis Meticulously researched and multi disciplinary Reinventing Bankruptcy Law provides a comprehensive and concise history of CCAA law over the course of the twentieth century framing developments within broader changes in Canadian institutions including federalism judicial review and statutory interpretation Examining the influence of private parties and commercial practices on lawmaking Virginia Torrie argues that CCAA law was shaped by the commercial needs of powerful creditors to restructure corporate borrowers providing a compelling thesis about the dynamics of legal change in the context of corporate restructuring Torrie exposes the errors in recent case law to devastating effect and argues that courts and the legislature have switched roles leading to the conclusion that contemporary CCAA courts function like a modern day Court of Chancery This book is essential reading for the Canadian insolvency community as well as those interested in Canadian institutions legal history and the dynamics of change      Reinventing Government David Osborne, Ted Gaebler, 1993-02-01 A landmark in the debate on the future of public policy The Washington Post      The Wind and Beyond: Reinventing the airplane, 2003      The Wind and Beyond: Reinventing the airplane James R. Hansen, 2003      Reinventing the Propeller Jeremy R. Kinney, 2017-03-24 An international community of specialists reinvented the propeller during the Aeronautical Revolution a vibrant period of innovation in North America and Europe from World War I to the end of World War II They experienced both success and failure as they created competing designs that enabled increasingly sophisticated and modern commercial and military aircraft to climb quicker and cruise faster using less power Reinventing the Propeller nimbly moves from the minds of these inventors to their drawing boards workshops research and development facilities and factories and then shows us how their work performed in the air both commercially and militarily Reinventing the Propeller documents this story of a forgotten technology to reveal new perspectives on engineering research and development design and the multi layered social cultural financial commercial industrial and military infrastructure of aviation Reinventing Government for the Twenty-first Century Dennis A. Rondinelli,G. Shabbir Cheema,2003 Melds theoretical models with practical experience Written by world renowned experts on public administration Guides future policy debates on helping to build effective and efficient states How does a government seeking to participate in and benefit from an integrated and interdependent world become more professional technologically proficient deregulated and accountable Reinventing Government for the Twenty First Century tells you how The authors identify the forces of globalization and the structural changes needed to increase state capacity and enhance global scale participation Professionals directly involved in assisting governments show public leaders and administrators how to improve the quality of their performance in government Reinventing Public Service Delivery in India Vikram Chand,2006-07-05 This volume focuses on successful cases of innovative change in public service delivery and offers comment on initiatives to continue change and further develop best practice Reinventing Free Labor Gunther Peck,2000-05-22 One of the most infamous villains in North America during the Progressive Era was the padrone a mafia like immigrant boss who allegedly enslaved his compatriots and kept them uncivilized unmanly and unfree In this history of the padrone first published in 2000 Gunther Peck analyzes the figure s deep cultural resonance by examining the lives of three padrones and the workers they imported to North America He argues that the padrones were not primitive men but rather thoroughly modern entrepreneurs who used corporations the labour contract and the right to quit to create far flung coercive networks Drawing on Greek Spanish and Italian language sources Peck analyzes how immigrant workers emancipated themselves using the tools of padrone power to their own advantage Reinventing Giants Bill Fischer,Umberto Lago,Fang Liu,2013-03-07 A compelling profile of an emerging Chinese competitor Chinese firms are reinventing their business models their corporate cultures and themselves becoming global competitors who increasingly offer knowledge rather than cheap labour in their quest to join the ranks of the world s best companies This book offers a compelling profile of the most ambitious of these emerging Chinese competitors the Haier Corporation the world s largest manufacturer of home appliances and shares insights on how one organization has repeatedly reinvented its business model and corporate culture in an effort to sustain its success Reinventing Giants provides an exclusive look within the Haier Corporation and shows how managerial accountability and responsibility have been repositioned at every level of the organization with the core value of market centricity while aligning strategy on each level of management It includes actual work reports that show this process in detail from the ground up The authors emphasize how a belief in the liberation of employee talent has consistently been the driving force underlying Haier s success Includes the remarkable story of Haier s turnaround and how these lessons can be applied to other organizations Contains information for any company grappling with competition in the global marketplace Shows how to liberate employees talent to drive business success Written by Bill Fischer Professor of Innovation Management at IMD in Switzerland Umberto Lago Professor of Management at Bologna University Italy and Fang Liu Research Associate of IMD Reinventing Giants helps global managers rethink their own business models and accompanying corporate cultures in order to be able to apply Haier s lessons directly to their own organizations Reinventing

Democratic Socialism Robert Corfe,2000 This work reformulates the theory and practice of socialism in the view of the transformation of society over the past 60 years Corfe aims to fulfill the hopes of those who feel that the Labour party and socialism worldwide has lost its way and is in need of a philosophy to point the way ahead Reinventing Fire Amory Lovins,2013-09-11 Oil and coal have built our civilisation created our wealth and enriched the lives of billions Yet their rising costs to our security economy health and environment are starting to outweigh their benefits Moreover the tipping point where alternatives work better and compete purely on cost is not decades in the future it is here and now And that tipping point has become the fulcrum of economic transformation In Reinventing Fire Amory Lovins and the Rocky Mountain Institute offer a new vision to revitalise business models and win the clean energy race not forced by public policy but led by business for long term advantage This independent and rigorous account offers market based solutions integrating transportation buildings industry and electricity It maps pathways for running a 158% bigger US economy in 2050 but needing no oil no coal no nuclear energy one third less natural gas and no new inventions This transition would cost 5 trillion less than business as usual without counting fossil fuels huge hidden costs Whether you care most about profits and jobs or national security or environmental stewardship climate and health Reinventing Fire makes sense It s a story of astounding opportunities for creating the new energy era Publisher description Reinventing the City? Head of Civic Engagement Dublin City University and Visiting Professor of Development Studies University of Liverpool and St Mary's University Nova Scotia Ronaldo Munck,2003-01-01 Although Liverpool is the central theme of this book the author gives an informed comparative overview of the city in a worldwide context Chapters examine in detail the cultural social and economic legacy of the city Reinventing the Heartland Nicholas Lalla,2025-03-04 The story of one Heartland city s efforts to reinvent itself for the innovation age is a powerful example of the change America needs Every city in America wants to become a tech hub yet so few succeed and that s the problem Tech jobs venture capital and R D are concentrated in a handful of big coastal cities while the broad middle of the country is left out But to thrive in the twenty first century cities must create innovation economies of their own and grow in more inclusive ways In January 2020 Nicholas Lalla founded Tulsa Innovation Labs to help Tulsa Oklahoma transition from its oil and gas legacy to tech Lalla s organization would go on to build the first tech led economic development strategy in northeast Oklahoma s history raise over 200 million and create thousands of tech jobs This success catalyzed a massive city wide endeavor the first time in American history a city has dedicated itself in such a concerted way to becoming a player in the innovation economy Drawing upon Lalla s experience in Tulsa Reinventing the Heartland lays out a bold and pragmatic plan for urban reinvention showing cities how to reorient their entire civic ecosystems toward inclusive tech led growth Each chapter covers a core plank of the action plan from how cities can establish their own tech niche based on existing assets to how they can rapidly up skill talent in the era of AI to how to build urban rural partnerships and compete for federal funding as a region In Reinventing the Heartland Lalla provides the path forward not just for Tulsa but for any city ready to embrace the future
