Re Visioning The Way We Work:

Re-Visioning The Way We Work Ginger Grant, 2005-08 The tools of business are dynamic capital people markets and ideas all are living entities in a constant state of flux To take these tools to work with them and reorganize them in new and different ways to produce a positive effect in your life and your organization is the essence of the creative process How to get there This work will provide a working map for the journey toward your own potential A lucid gateway to Joseph Campbell's monomyth of the hero's journey particularly as it can be applied to one's career Ginger Grant is an excellent interpreter of this invaluable but sometimes rather difficult body of work I recommend her highly William Gibson author of Pattern Recognition A most remarkable technique born of a most remarkable vision This book grounds the world of business management and corporate organization in a mythological psychology It demonstrates practically a way to give creativity and imagination to the real life of the workplace A unique and important contribution to the field David L Miller PhD Watson Ledden Professor Emeritus Syracuse University Ginger Grant's creative reimagining of the work place promises any who will consider her mythic approach to doing business a more flexible and humane corridor out of the stilted and calcified set of rules and formats that govern its behavior Her leading impulse that the corporate ethos will change dramatically only when it understands and accepts its own functioning mythology promises to reanimate the place where we spend the best energies of our lives Dennis Patrick Slaterry Core Faculty Pacifica Graduate Institute and author of Grace in the Desert and The Wounded Body

Re-visioning Mission Richard G. Cote, 1996 This book explores mission and culture in the postmodern context of the United States by drawing upon the metaphor of marriage to illustrate the reciprocal relationship between faith and culture

How the Way We Talk Can Change the Way We Work Robert Kegan, Lisa Laskow Lahey, 2002-12-13 Why is the gap so great between our hopes our intentions even our decisions and what we are actually able to bring about Even when we are able to make important changes in our own lives or the groups we lead at work why are the changes so frequently short lived and we are soon back to business as usual What can we do to transform this troubling reality In this intensely practical book Harvard psychologists Robert Kegan and Lisa Laskow Lahey take us on a carefully guided journey designed to help us answer these very questions And not just generally or in the abstract They help each of us arrive at our own particular answers that can solve the puzzling gap between what we intend and what we are able to accomplish How the Way We Talk Can Change the Way We Work provides you with the tools to create a powerful new build it yourself mental technology

Re-visioning Family Therapy Monica McGoldrick, Kenneth V. Hardy, 2008-07-29 Now in a significantly revised and expanded second edition this groundbreaking work illuminates how racism sexism and other forms of oppression constrain the lives of diverse clients and family therapy itself Practitioners and students gain vital tools for re-evaluating prevailing conceptions of family health and pathology tapping into clients cultural resources and developing more inclusive theories and therapeutic practices From leaders in the field the second edition features many new chapters case examples and specific recommendations for culturally competent assessment treatment and clinical training The section in which authors reflect on their own cultural and family legacies also has been significantly expanded

Revisioning Christology Oliver D. Crisp, 2016-04-08 Constructive contemporary theology requires serious engagement with the theologians of the past This book offers a series of studies in the Christology of key representatives in the Reformed tradition engaging their thought for contemporary dogmatics Thinkers from each of the five centuries in which Reformed theology has flourished are represented John Calvin John Owen Jonathan Edwards William Shedd Donald Baillie and Kathryn Tanner each of whom in different ways challenge conventional accounts of Christology The book is organized thematically linking historic and contemporary discussions of Christology in theology and philosophy by engaging the thinking of these theologians in a collegial way using their work as means of promoting constructive systematic theology today Oliver Crisp presents an important contribution to broadening our understanding of Reformed theology by showing how important theologians have taken views often at odds with textbook accounts of the tradition Written in an accessible style this book will appeal to a wide range of readers including upper level undergraduates graduate students and scholars of Christian theology philosophy and religious studies

Revisioning Duras James S. Williams, 2000-12-01 The extraordinary range complexity and power of Marguerite Duras novelist dramatist film maker essayist has been justly recognised Yet in the years following her death in 1996 there has been an increasing tendency to consecrate her work particularly by those critics who approach it primarily in biographical terms The British and American specialists featured in this interdisciplinary collection aim to resurrect the Duras corpus in all its forms by submitting it theoretically to three main areas of enquiry By establishing how far Duras's work questions and redefines the parameters of literary and cinematic form as well as the categories of race and ethnicity homosexuality and heterosexuality fantasy and violence the contributors to this volume revision Duras's work in the widest sense of the term

Revisioning The Political Nancy J Hirschmann, 2018-03-05 Feminist scholars have been remaking the landscape in political theory and in this important book some of the most important feminist political theorists provide reconstructions of those concepts most central to the tradition of political philosophy The goal is nothing less than the construction of a blueprint for a positive feminist theory Many of these papers are completely new others are extensions of important earlier work two are reprints of classic papers The result is a progress report on the continuing feminist project to re envision traditional political theory As such it constitutes essential reading not only for feminist thinkers but also for traditional philosophers and political theorists who will need to come to terms with these contemporary critiques and readings

Rescuing Psychoanalysis from Freud and Other Essays in Re-Vision Peter L. Rudnytsky, 2018-05-08 In his latest groundbreaking book the author examines the history of psychoanalysis from a resolutely independent perspective At once spellbinding case histories and meticulously crafted gems of scholarship Rudnytsky's essays are revisions in that each sheds fresh light on its subject but they are also avowedly revisionist in their scepticism towards all forms of psychoanalytic orthodoxy Beginning with a judicious reappraisal of Freud and ranging in scope from King Lear to contemporary neuroscience the author treats in depth the lives and work of Ferenczi Jung Stekel Winnicott Coltart and Little each of whom sought to rescue psychoanalysis by summoning it to live up to its highest ideals

Re-Visioning Family Therapy, Third Edition Monica McGoldrick, Kenneth V. Hardy, 2019-06-14 A leading text for courses that go beyond the basics of family systems theory intervention techniques and diversity this influential work has now been significantly revised with 65% new material The volume explores how family relationships and therapy itself are profoundly shaped by race social class gender religion sexual orientation and other intersecting dimensions of marginalization and privilege Chapters from leading experts guide the practitioner to challenge assumptions about family health and pathology understand the psychosocial impact of oppression and tap into clients cultural resources for healing Practical clinical strategies are interwoven with theoretical insights case examples training ideas and therapists reflections on their own cultural and family legacies New to This Edition Existing chapters have been thoroughly updated and 21 chapters added expanding the perspectives in the book Reflects over a decade of theoretical and clinical advances and the growing diversity of the United States New sections on re visioning clinical research trauma and psychological homelessness and larger systems

Revisioning Emerson as a Theorist of Reading Michael Boatright, 2024-12-31 Pushing beyond the anthologized writings of Ralph Waldo Emerson frequently taught in American literature courses this book examines the corpus of his published work to cultivate a unique understanding of his ideas in relation to reading By following the history of Emersonian criticism over the years including research surrounding Emerson and reading theory these chapters provide a persuasive and accessible exploration of Emerson that highlight the value of his work for both literary and reading scholars Boatright argues that while Emerson predates the research in reading studies that emerged in the early twentieth century his ideas around reading engagement shared reading experiences and experimentation with reading are exceedingly relevant for encouraging healthy reading practices in the literature classroom

Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Jorge N. Ferrer, 2001-10-19 In his striking debut Jorge N Ferrer deconstructs and reconstructs the entire transpersonal project articulating a more sophisticated pluralistic and spiritually grounded transpersonal theory He brings recent ideas in epistemology and the philosophy of science to bear upon core issues in the psychology and philosophy of religion The book s first half Deconstruction describes the nature and origins of the prevailing vision that has guided transpersonal scholarship so far and identifies some of its main conceptual and practical limitations subtle Cartesianism spiritual narcissism intrasubjective empiricism and reductionistic universalism In the second half of the book Reconstruction Ferrer suggests a way of reconceiving transpersonal ideas without these limitations a participatory vision of human spirituality one which not only places transpersonal studies in greater alignment with the values of the spiritual quest but also discloses a rich variety of spiritual liberations spiritual worlds and even ultimate realities

Re-Vision Clifford Chalmers Cain, 2015-03-25 Re Vision addresses four issues that lie at the crux of the relationship between science and religion the origin of the cosmos and creation in Genesis evolutionary theory and God's action in the world genes and human freedom and whether intelligent design is good science and or good theology This book includes commentary on each of these issues from three scientists a philosopher and a theologian The contributors represent a wide variety of worldviews and beliefs and readers are encouraged to use their thoughts as springboards for personal reactions and conclusions

Re-Visioning Person-Centred Therapy Manu Bazzano, 2018-06-27 By exploring various ways to assimilate recent progressive developments and to renew its vital links with its radical roots Re Visioning Person Centred Therapy Theory and Practice of a Radical Paradigm takes a fresh look at this revolutionary therapeutic approach Bringing together leading figures in PCT and new writers from around the world the essays in this book create fertile links with phenomenology meditation and spirituality critical theory contemporary thought and culture and philosophy of science In doing so they create an outline that renews and re visions person centred therapy's radical paradigm providing fertile material in both theory and practice Shot through with clinical studies vignettes and in depth discussions on aspects of theory Re Visioning Person Centred Therapy will be stimulating reading for therapists in training and practice as well as those interested in the development of PCT
