Mum and Pat got out and pushed the car safely to the side of the road and sat and pushed the car safely to the side of the road and looked around. There was nothing but desert and distant mountains. Not a car in sight. Later, a cold wind started and they both got back in. The sun had disappeared. A few hours went by when Pat finally spotted headlights. Nina perked over her shoulder. She could see dark and heavy clouds creeping towards her. Suddenly, she could hear the trees howling and dancing from side to side. Nina made sure her beanie was firmly on her head before she continued. She pedalled as fast as she could and did not look back. Nina was almost home. All she had to do was cross the bridge and make the long and slow ride up James Street.
