5 Kinds of Nonfiction Melissa Stewart, Marlene Correia, 2023-10-10 Once upon a time children's nonfiction books were stodgy concise and not very kid friendly Most were text heavy with just a few scattered images decorating the content and meaning rather than enhancing it Over the last 20 years children's nonfiction has evolved into a new breed of visually dynamic and engaging texts In 5 Kinds of Nonfiction Enriching Reading and Writing Instruction with Children's Books Melissa Stewart and Dr Marlene Correia present a new way to sort nonfiction into five major categories and show how doing so can help teachers and librarians build stronger readers and writers Along the way they introduce the 5 kinds of nonfiction Active Browseable Traditional Expository Literature and Narrative and explore each category through discussions classroom examples and insights from leading children's book authors Offer tips for building strong diverse classroom texts and library collections Provide more than 20 activities to enhance literacy instruction Include innovative strategies for sharing and celebrating nonfiction with students With more than 150 exemplary nonfiction book recommendations and Stewart and Correia's extensive knowledge of literacy instruction 5 Kinds of Nonfiction will elevate your understanding of nonfiction in ways that speak specifically to the info kids in your classrooms but will inspire all readers and writers

Reading, Writing, and Thinking Paul L. Thomas, Joe Kincheloe, 2006-01-01 In a world gone mad with standardized curricula and the degradation of the profession of teaching P L Thomas and Joe Kincheloe attempt to bring sanity back to the discussion of the teaching of some of the basic features of the educational process In Reading Writing and Thinking The Postformal Basics the authors take on the rational irrationality of current imperial pedagogical practices providing readers with provocative insights into the bizarre assumptions surrounding the contemporary teaching of reading writing and thinking The authors are obsessed with producing an accessible book for multiple audiences parents teachers scholars of education that moves beyond critique to a new domain of the social and educational imagination Readers of Thomas and Kincheloe's book embark on a mind trip beginning with what is and moving to the realm of what could be In this context they introduce readers to a critical theory of thinking postformalism that moves the social and educational conversation to a new terrain of individual and social consciousness Tired of the same educational policies and solutions in the teaching of reading writing and thinking the authors become socio psychic explorers who move readers past the boundaries of contemporary pedagogical perception Reading and Writing Nonfiction Genres Kathleen Buss, Lee Karnowski, 2002 Offers guidance to teachers who want to introduce their elementary students to nonfiction writing discussing the genres of recount procedural informational and persuasive and including student writing samples as well as a children's literature bibliography Teaching Evidence-based Writing Leslie Blauman, 2017 One in a million Yes that's how rare it is to have so many write about reading strategies so beautifully put to use Each year Leslie Blauman guides her students to become highly skilled at supporting their thinking about texts and in Evidence Based Writing Nonfiction she shares her win-win process Leslie combed the ELA standards and all her favorite books and built a lesson structure you can use in two ways with an entire text or with just the excerpts she's included in the book Addressing Evidence Relationships Main Idea Point of View Visuals Words and Structure each section includes Lessons you can use as teacher demonstrations or for guided practice with Best the Test tips on how to authentically teach the skills that show up on exams with the texts you teach Prompt Pages serve as handy references giving students the key questions to ask themselves as they read any text and consider how an author's meaning and structure combine Excerpts to Write About Pages feature carefully selected passages from current biographies informational books and articles on the topics you teach and questions that require students to discover a text's literal and deeper meanings Write About Reading Templates scaffold students to think about a text efficiently by focusing on its critical craft elements or text structure demands and help them rehearse for more extensive responses Writing Tasks invite students to transform their notes into a more developed paragraph or essay with sufficiently challenging tasks geared for grades 6-8 And best of all your students gain a confidence in responding to complex texts and ideas that will serve them well in school on tests and in any situation when they are asked What are you basing that on Show me how you know Teaching EFL Reading and Writing in Georgia Natela Doghonadze, 2017-03-07 Reading and writing are skills which can be easily practiced in an English as a Foreign Language EFL environment and are particularly important for academic improvement and life-long learning The book includes an overview of theoretical and practical issues of methods of teaching EFL reading and writing as well as some research on related topics in Georgia It deals with such issues as theories of reading and writing reading and writing activities motivation and assessment It focuses on EFL as in Georgia there is no English language environment apart from the classroom where students can develop their communicative skills The contributors to this volume work at the International Black Sea University where tuition is mostly conducted in English and correspondingly teaching English is one of the main research priorities The Reading Lives of Teens Chin Ee Loh, 2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment researchers policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings Bringing together contributions from well-known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens volitional print and digital reading whether in school or out of school contexts The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading With chapters from North America Europe Australia Asia and the Middle East the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies
