accidentally shot and killed a cop While drunk A cop who happened to be his brother Now Axbrewder Brew to his friends is trying to make his way back to self respect It isn't easy It doesn't help that Ginny has moved them to the sprawling heartless Sunbelt city of Carner where he can't get the feel of the streets At least he has work handling security in the booming martial arts industry centered in Carner A world of modern commercial competition and ancient resentments A world with hidden stakes over which someone is evidently willing to kill But Brew's real job isn't the one for which he's been hired His real job is regaining his own self respect At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

The Leprous Man Kate Simons, 2010 This book explores the extraordinarily violent and abusive nature of Stephen Donaldson's male protagonists Thomas Covenant of The Chronicles is a leper rotten and physically collapsing In Mordant's Need and The Gap series the male characters are moral lepers The Gap offers a Janus faced male lead in the form of two men who are both multiple rapists The male hero in Mordant's Need is outwardly socially acceptable but his alter egos are overly corporeal and sexually obsessed In spite of their unappealing condition all these protagonists yearn to be loved Using the psychoanalytical theories of Julia Kristeva this book identifies reasons for Donaldson's derogatory characterization and provides an insight into why these novels cannot allow their male protagonists to establish viable love relationships This study also explains why maternal characters are jettisoned from the narratives considers the problematic nature of father figures and examines the incipient undertow of psychosis
