Reflections On J C Dahl:

Adolph Tidemands Darstellungen des Volkslebens Katrin S. Knopp, 2017-07-10 Adolph Tidemand 1814 1876 feierte zu Lebzeiten Erfolge auf den Weltausstellungen in London und Paris war international ausgestelltter Künstler und fand Käufer und Auftraggeber von Russland über Europa bis Amerika Nach Johan Christian Clausen Dahl war Tidemand der erste norwegische Künstler von internationalem Rang Ihm gebührt das Verdienst an der Düsseldorfer Akademie das ethnographische Genre entwickelt zu haben Auch berieferte er Prinzipien aus der Historie in die Genremalerei und beeinflusste dadurch maßgeblich nachfolgende Künstlergenerationen Da Adolph Tidemand nach seinem Tod außerhalb Norwegens dem Vergessen anheimfiel machte es sich die vorliegende Arbeit zur Aufgabe eine umfassende Darstellung seines Oeuvre vorzunehmen und dieses im kunsthistorischen Kontext zu verorten Darauf aufbauend folgt eine Neudeutung verschiedener Werkgruppen als Ausdruck bürgerlicher Identität Tidemands Kunst ist ein wichtiges historisches Zeugnis für die Erforschung bürgerlicher Mentalität im 19. Jahrhundert und kann als Referenz für die Charakterisierung des Zeitgeistes herangezogen werden Darüber hinaus lassen sich die hier formulierten Thesen auch auf andere Maler und Kunstwerke der offiziellen akademischen Malerei übertragen und sind daher von allgemeinem historischen Interesse Mission and Moral

Reflection in Paul Michael D. Barram, 2006 The Apostle Paul sought to exert his influence and authority over the congregations he founded long after they had been established Such ongoing oversight by Christianity's prototypical evangelist has not been adequately understood In a brief 1987 article W Paul Bowers challenged John Knox's assertion that Paul's pastoral and administrative work irked him and that he wanted to be free of it This book confirms and significantly develops Bowers's little known thesis examining a wide range of passages in the apostle's undisputed letters and highlighting crucial implications of Paul's broadly conceived vocation for understanding his mission and moral reflection Palliative

Baldwin, Mark Haugaard, 2017-10-02 This book is devoted to the work of Robert A Dahl who passed away in 2014 Dahl was one of the most important American political scientists and normative democratic theorists of the post war era and he was also an influential teacher who mentored some of the most significant academics of the next two generations of American political science As an incredibly productive scholar he had a career that spanned more than half a century his first book was published in 1950 his last was in 2007 at the age of 92 As a political scientist he was respected even by those who were critical of his works This theoretical significance and profound influence is reflected in the collection of chapters in this volume which reads like a who's who of the contemporary US political science scene His co author Bruce Stinebrickner documents the evolution of his and Dahl's seminal text Modern Political Analysis and how it became the standard introduction to American political science for nearly fifty years Katharine MacKinnon's chapter is of significance for its insights upon Dahl and also represents a succinct statement of a feminist reading and critique of contemporary political science Steven Lukes contributes a highly concise statement of the difference between one dimensional and three dimensional power This work will be a standard reference work for any researchers or those interested in the work of Robert Dahl among both established academics and students This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Political Power

Experiencing ACT from the Inside Out Dennis Tirsch, Laura R. Silberstein-Tirsch, R. Trent Codd, Martin J. Brock, M. Joann Wright, 2019-09-03 This book invites therapists to enhance their effectiveness from the inside out using self practice self reflection It leads therapists through a structured three stage process of focusing on a personal or professional issue they want to change practicing therapeutic techniques on themselves self practice and reflecting on the experience self reflection Research supports the unique benefits of SP SR for providing insights and skills not readily available through more conventional training procedures The approach is suitable for therapists at all levels of experience from trainees to experienced supervisors

The Confidence Game Alex Berg, 2023-02-18 She's a thief He's a grifter Game on For Natalia Levin life as a professional art thief is everything she hoped it would be She travels the world the pay is fantastic and she gets to work in sweet sweet solitude But when a rival crew reaches out about joining forces to steal the one painting she's always dreamed of that's an invitation she can't resist Natalia figures it'll be easy to keep the new crew at arm's length but her plans hit a snag when she meets their leader smooth talking grifter Diego Cabrera He's a liar a con man and too slick for his own good but he's beguiling and handsome and one hell of a storyteller Too bad she's going to screw him over anyway But as Diego cranks up the charm Natalia's finding it harder and harder to keep up her charade Not because she can't outwit him but because she's starting to do the one thing she told herself she'd never do trust him With passions igniting Natalia is starting to realize she's made a terrible mistake she put her heart on the line while playing a confidence game

The Drama of History Kristin Gjesdal, 2021 The Drama of History plumbs the rich relationship between drama and philosophy Kristin Gjesdal offers a lively and accessible discussion of the philosophical aspects of Henrik Ibsen's work She shows how well known nineteenth century philosophers such as Hegel and Nietzsche develop their thoughts in interaction with the dramatic arts At the heart of this interaction is a shared interest in exploring the existential condition of human life as lived and experienced in history In this sense Gjesdal engages philosophy's capacity beyond its narrow academic confines Baltic Light Catherine Johnston, Helmut Borsch-Supan, Helmut R. Leppien, National Gallery of Canada, Kasper Monrad, 1999-01-01 During the first half of the nineteenth century Danish and German artists studying in Paris and Rome brought back the concept of plein air painting and began to paint out of doors on their native soil They introduced a whole new aesthetic that was sensitive to the light and atmospheric conditions peculiar to the north especially during the long summer days This beautiful book focuses on the painters and paintings of this period particularly Caspar David Friedrich who produced many fine works before he developed the romantic style for which he is better known The book presents topographical landscapes panoramas and some group and individual portraits that often include a window from which light emanates Essays by eminent authorities discuss various aspects of the Danish and North German open air movement They note for example that the paintings reflect a direct view of nature devoid of the intellectual and moral overtones of the neoclassical paintings that preceded them They also discuss the fact that Schleswig Holstein was closely allied with Denmark until 1848 and this favored many Hamburg and north German artists studying at the Academy in Copenhagen where painting out of doors was encouraged In addition to the essays the book presents 108 works by twenty three artists catalogue entries for each work and a biography of each artist The Stark family. From the Swed. of J. C. Johanna Christina A. von Hofsten, 1874

Swedish Society for the Publication of Manuscripts Relating to Scandinavian History and the role it played in the construction of national memory and heritage a discussion of Philippe Jacques de Loutherbourg's and John Martin's iconographies of the sublime in the intersection between art and popular visual spectacle archival discoveries related to the publication of medieval romance in early nineteenth century Britain and a reassessment of The Prelude as a formation narrative arguing that William Wordsworth displays a conflicted attitude to the growth and progress usually found in the Bildungsroman The journal also contains reviews of new books on the romantic period published in the Nordic countries

From Antiquities to Heritage Anne Eriksen, 2014-05-01 Eighteenth century gentleman scholars collected antiquities Nineteenth century nation states built museums to preserve their historical monuments In the present world heritage is a global concern as well as an issue of identity politics What does it mean when runic stones or medieval churches are transformed from antiquities to monuments to heritage sites This book argues that the transformations concern more than words alone They reflect fundamental changes in the way we experience the past and the way historical objects are assigned meaning and value in the present This book presents a series of cases from Norwegian culture to explore how historical objects and sites have changed in meaning over time It contributes to the contemporary debates over collective memory and cultural heritage as well to our knowledge about early modern antiquarianism The Moonlight Doctor Jaan

Valsiner, 2024-03-22 This is the very first authoritative book on the role of Carl Gustav Carus 1789-1869 in the history of psychology Carus was the initiator of the notions of development unconscious and archetype in psychology The book emphasizes the interdisciplinary focus of Carus work as it was based on the literature and art of his time and is closely related with medicine and Naturphilosophie The readership of the book will get access to the life course of a key figure of science of the 19th century Critical Thinking in Moral Development, 2024-12-09 This book is for anyone interested in these topics whether they are veterans or relative newcomers to the field because the editors have assembled a stellar group of seventeen international contributors There are four sections devoted respectively to philosophical perspectives developmental psychology educational practices and assessment Each section consists of three initial chapters followed by a commentary that highlights notable themes and gives guidance for further inquiry Along with the Introduction and Epilogue contributed by the editors Daniel Fasko and Frank Fair the chapters develop themes such as the role of the ideas of Aristotle and Kant in shaping our moral development and educational practices Here readers will encounter informative discussions of among other things The 4Es of Virtuous Purpose The Rational Construction of Morality and Philosophy Goes to High School Readers are also led to consider Measures of Moral Identity The EQUIP Program and Assessing Value Clarity and Moral Blueprints The diversity of expertise and the international vantage points of the contributors make this book an informative overview for the expert and a useful introduction for the beginning student concerning the issues involved Contributors are Jennifer Baker Marvin W Berkowitz M Neil Browne Michael W Creane Juan P Dabdoub Frank Fair Daniel Fasko Jr John C

Goulder and the Gospels is the first comprehensive response to the radical challenge Michael Goulder has posed for New Testament scholarship Goulder dispenses with all hypothetical sources Q M and L and postulates highly creative evangelists who write in the light of the liturgy In this penetrating critique Goodacre provides a critical overview of Goulder s work focusing on several key areas the vocabulary of Q the language of the Minor Agreements the creativity of Luke and the lectionary theory He does not simply assess the plausibility of Goulder s ideas but also develops new ways to test them The theories are sometimes found to be wanting but at the same time Goulder is reaffirmed as one of the most important and stimulating Biblical scholars of this generation The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe Marsha Morton,Barbara Larson,2021-03-25

Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe investigates the visual imagery of race construction in Scandinavia Austro Hungary Germany and Russia It covers a period when historic disciplines of ethnography and anthropology were expanding and theorists of race were debating competing conceptions of biological geographic linguistic and cultural determinants Beginning in 1850 and extending into the early 21st century this book explores how paintings photographs prints and other artistic media engaged with these discourses and shaped visual representations of subordinate ethnic populations and material cultures in countries associated with theorizations of white identity The chapters contribute to postcolonial research by documenting the colonial style treatment of minority groups by exploring the anomalies and complexities that emerge when binary systems are seen from the perspective of the fine and applied arts and by representing the voices of those who produced images or objects that adopted altered or critiqued ethnographic and anthropological information In doing so Constructing Race on the Borders of Europe uncovers instances of unexpected connections establishes the fabricated nature of ethnic identity and challenges the certainties of racial categorization Clothes and Monasticism in Ancient Christian Egypt Ingvild Sælid Gilhus,2021-03-08 This book is an exploration of the ideals and values of the ascetic and monastic life as expressed through clothes Clothes are often seen as an extension of us as humans a determinant of who we are and how we experience and interact with the world In this way they can play a significant role in the embodied and material aspects of religious practice The focus of this book is on clothing and garments among ancient monastics and ascetics in Egypt but with a broader outlook to the general meaning and function of clothes in religion The garments of the Egyptian ascetics and monastics are important because they belong to a period of transition in the history of Christianity and very much represent this way of living This study combines a cognitive perspective on clothes with an attempt to grasp the embodied experiences of being clothed as well as viewing clothes as potential actors Using sources such as travelogues biographies letters contracts images and garments from monastic burials the role of clothes is brought into conversation with material religion more generally This unique study builds links between ancient and contemporary uses of religious clothing It will therefore be of interest to any scholar of religious studies religious history religion in antiquity and material religion
