Cush, 2024-07-15 In 1990 Pope John Paul II spoke of a crisis of priestly identity Decades later the crisis is not over and the lack of a clear sense of priestly identity is the single greatest obstacle to the proper formation of priests today In Nothing But You Lord longtime seminary professor and formation advisor Fr John Cush draws on the thought of Bishop Robert Barron to recover the fundamentals of what it means to be a Catholic priest Fr Cush explores the qualities and character of the priest the role of hope amidst priestly abuses and failures and the four dimensions of priestly formation human intellectual spiritual and pastoral outlined by Pope John Paul II Featuring a foreword by Bishop John Barres Nothing But You Lord is an encouraging return to the basics of the Catholic priesthood The Priestly Office Avery Dulles, 1997 The past three decades have witnessed a decline in the number of Roman Catholic priests in Europe and North America the result of resignations from the priesthood and of fewer people entering seminaries A major cause contributing to this situation has been the ambiguity surrounding the role and identity of the priest in light of new theological paradigms This book attempts to restore clarity to that matter by drawing primarily although not exclusively on the teachings of the Second Vatican Council postconciliar theology and the pronouncements of Pope John Paul II The first chapter probes the relationship of the priest to Christ and the church This is the basic theme of the book since the manner in which the relationship is perceived colors all aspects of priestly life The following three chapters examine the three forms of ministry the priest renders to the community the ministry of the word of worship and of pastoral care The book ends with a consideration of the most fundamental role of the priest a disciple of Jesus So the book comes full circle returning to the primary relationship of the priest to Christ and to the church as a community of disciples BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Theological Reflections Elaine Graham, 2013-01-08 Following the same topics as the Methods volume this reader is aimed at postgraduates and academics interested in the expanding volume of work and research surrounding theological reflection Brought together in this second volume are materials relating to the same topics and dealt with by the same divisions descriptions and features The identified models being The Living Human Document Constructive Narrative Theology Canonical Narrative Theology Corporate Theological Reflection The Correlative Method Performative or Praxis Theological Reflection and Theology in the Vernacular or local theologies Volume one described and identified the various models whilst this new second volume fleshes out these descriptions by allowing the reader access to a variety of sources and examples of writings within these models Priestly Formation Revisited Jose Varickasseril, Abraham M. Antony, 2018

Priestly Identity Thomas J. McGovern, 2010-04-01 It is generally accepted that since the end of Vatican II there has been a crisis in the Catholic priesthood This is reflected in two areas in particular defections from the priesthood and a serious decline in vocations primarily in the developed countries of the West John Paul II has addressed this situation many times during his pontificate especially in Pastores dabo vobis where he offers a clear theological vision and a program of formation to overcome the current crisis of priestly identity In his new book McGovern offers a deep analysis of the Pope's theology of priesthood drawing not only from Pastores dabo vobis but also from his Holy Thursday Letters and other important writings on this topic In this study the author deals with core aspects of priestly identity under three main headings theological spiritual and pastoral in the context of service to the lay faithful and the evangelization required of the Church in the new millennium Practical Reflections on the Ordination Services for Deacons and Priests, in the United Church of England and Ireland ... To which are added appropriate prayers for clergymen, etc John BREWSTER (Rector of Eggescliffe.), 1817 *Practical reflections on the ordination services for deacons and priests, in the United Church of England and Ireland.
