Governing Failure Jacqueline Best, 2014-01-09 Jacqueline Best argues that the 1990s changes in IMF World Bank and donor policies towards what some have called the Post Washington Consensus were driven by an erosion of expert authority and an increasing preoccupation with policy failure Failures such as the Asian financial crisis and the decades of despair in sub Saharan Africa led these institutions to develop governance strategies designed to avoid failure fostering country ownership developing global standards managing risk and vulnerability and measuring results In contrast to the structural adjustment era when policymakers were confident in their solutions this is an era of provisional governance in which key actors are aware of the possibility of failure even as they seek to inoculate themselves against it Best considers the implications of this shift asking if it is a positive change and whether it is sustainable This title is available as Open Access on Cambridge Books Online and via Knowledge Unlatched

Theatre of the Rule of Law Stephen Humphreys, 2010-11-11 Theatre of the Rule of Law presents a sustained critique of global rule of law promotion an expansive industry at the heart of international development post conflict reconstruction and security policy today While successful in articulating and disseminating an effective global public policy rule of law promotion has largely failed in its stated objectives of raising countries out of poverty and taming violent conflict Furthermore in its execution this work deviates sharply from the rule of law as commonly conceived To explain this Stephen Humphreys draws on the history of the rule of law as a concept examples of legal export during colonial times and a spectrum of contemporary interventions by development agencies and international organisations Rule of law promotion is shown to be a kind of theatre the staging of a morality tale about the good life intended for edification and emulation but blind to its own internal contradictions
