Edited Collection Cities both near and far communicate in a variety of ways Travel between through and among urban centers initiates contact and cities themselves are sites of ever changing cultural and historical encounters Predictable and surprising challenges and opportunities arise when city borders are crossed voices meet and artistic traditions find their counterparts Using the Latin word for translation translatio or to carry across as a point of departure Avenues of Translation explores how translation perpetuates diversifies deepens and expands the literary production of cities in their greater cultural context and how translation shapes an understanding of and access to a city s past and present literary and cultural practices Thinking about translation and the city is a way to tell the backstories of the cities texts and authors that are united by acts of translation Published by Bucknell University Press Distributed worldwide by Rutgers University Press Power from the North Caroline Desbiens, 2013-05-03 In the 1970s Hydro Qu bec declared in a publicity campaign We Are Hydro Qu b cois The slogan symbolized the extent to which hydroelectric development in the North had come to both reflect and fuel French Canada s aspirations The slogan helped Quebecers relate to the province s northern territory and to accept the exploitation of its resources In Power from the North Caroline Desbiens explores how this culture of hydroelectricity helped shape the landscape during the first phase of the James Bay hydroelectric project Policy makers and citizens did not she argues view those who built the dams as mere workers they saw them as pioneers in a previously uninhabited land now inscribed with the codes of culture and spectacle This insightful work shows that if Quebec hopes to engage in truly sustainable resource development all actors must bring an awareness of their cultural histories and visions of nature North and nation to the negotiating table Canadian Civilization Jacques Dorin, Michèle Kaltemback, Sheryl Rahal, 2007

Make it Modern Brandon Taylor, 2022-01-01 A fascinating journey through Western art from the 1910s to the 1960s charting how artists wrestled with the headlong changes of a turbulent and conflict ridden world From the chaos of the First World War to the ravages of the Second from the Great Depression to the rise of consumer culture artists we call modern faced the challenge of responding imaginatively to utterly new circumstances of life Original thought startling artistic techniques and new attitudes to experimentation were required to produce exceptional and timely work Make It Modern guides the reader through the art of the modern world Works of celebrated artists from Pablo Picasso and Wassily Kandinsky to Frida Kahlo Jackson Pollock and Yayoi Kusama alongside a panoply of undervalued or less known figures populate this decade by decade narrative Make It Modern tells an unforgettable story of how art was changed forever RACAR, Revue D'art Canadienne, 1996 America Unbound Antonio Barrenechea, 2016-11-15 This original contribution to hemispheric American literary studies comprises readings of three important novels from Mexico Canada and the United States Carlos Fuentes s Terra Nostra Quebecois writer Jacques Poulin s Volkswagen Blues and Native American writer Leslie Marmon Silko s Almanac of the Dead The encyclopedic novel has particular generic characteristics that serve these writers as a vehicle for the reincorporation of hemispheric histories Starting with an examination of Moby Dick as precursor Barrenechea shows how this narrative genre allows Fuentes Poulin and Silko to reflect the interconnected world of today as well as to dramatize indigenous and colonial values in their narratives His close attention to written documents visual representations and oral traditions in these encyclopedic novels sheds light on their comparative cultural relations and the New World from pole to pole This study amplifies the scope of America across cultures and languages time and tradition
