Jonathan P. Smithe

Regards Sur Les Litteratures Coloniales Vol II:

Travel in Twentieth-Century French and Francophone Cultures Charles Forsdick, 2005-05-19 This book is one of the first studies of twentieth century travel literature in French tracking the form from the colonial past to the postcolonial present Whereas most recent explorations of travel literature have addressed English language material Forsdick's study complements these by presenting a body of material that has previously attracted little attention ranging from conventional travel writing to other cultural phenomena such as the Colonial Exposition of 1931 in which changing attitudes to travel are apparent Travel in Twentieth Century French and Francophone Cultures explores the evolution of attitudes to cultural diversity explaining how each generation seems simultaneously to foretell the collapse and reinvention of elsewhere It also follows the progressive renegotiation of understandings of travel and travel literature across the twentieth century focusing in particular on the emergence of travel narratives from France's former colonies The book suggests that an exclusive colonial understanding of travel as a practice defined along the lines of class gender and ethnicity has slowly been transformed so that travel has become an enabling figure encapsulated in notions such as James Clifford's traveling cultures central to analyses of contemporary global culture Engaging initially with Victor Segalen's early twentieth century reflection on travel and exoticism and Albert Kahn's Archives de la Plan te Forsdick goes on to examine a series of interrelated texts and phenomena early African travel narratives inter war ethnography post war accounts of Citro n 2CV journeys the travel stories of immigrant workers the work of Nicholas Bouvier and the Pour une litt rature voyageuse movement narratives of recent walking journeys and contemporary Polynesian literature In delineating a francophone space stretching far beyond metropolitan France itself the book contributes to new understandings of French and Francophone Studies and will also be of interest to those interested in issues of comparatism as well as colonial and postcolonial culture and identity Developing Africa Joseph Hodge, Gerald Hodl, Martina Kopf, 2016-05-16 This book investigates development in British French and Portuguese colonial Africa during the last decades of colonial rule During this period development became the central concept underpinning the relationship between metropolitan Europe and colonial Africa Combining historiographical accounts with analyses from other academic viewpoints this book investigates a range of contexts from agriculture to mass media With its focus on the conceptual side of development and its broad geographical scope it offers new and unique perspectives An extensive introduction contextualises the individual chapters and makes the book an up to date point of entry into the subject of colonial development not only for a specialist readership but also for students of history development and postcolonial studies Written by scholars from Africa Europe and North America Developing Africa is a uniquely international dialogue on this vital chapter of twentieth century transnational history Black African Literature in English, 1997-1999 Bernth Lindfors, 2003 This volume lists the work produced on anglophone black African literature between 1997 and 1999 This bibliographic work is a continuation of the highly acclaimed earlier volumes compiled by Bernth Lindfors

Containing about 10 000 entries some of which are annotated to identify the authors discussed it covers books periodical articles papers in edited collections and selective coverage of other relevant sources Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett,2018-07-17 In Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett explores the taboo subject of male homoerotic desire between black Africans and white Europeans in francophone colonial and postcolonial literatures Everett exposes the intersection of power and desire in blanc noir relationships in colonial and postcolonial black Africa and postimperial Europe Reading these literatures for their portrayals of race gender and sexuality Everett begins a conversation about personal and political violence in the face of forbidden desires Historicizing Colonial Nostalgia P. Lorcin,2011-12-15 Comparative study of the writings and strategies of European women in two colonies French Algeria and British Kenya during the twentieth century Its central theme is women s discursive contribution to the construction of colonial nostalgia Moving Pictures Laura Jane Loth,2005 The Politics of Biography in Africa Anaïs Angelo,2021-08-31 Bringing together historians political scientists and literary analysts this volume shows how biographical narratives can shed light on alternative little known or under researched aspects of state power in African politics Part 1 shows how biographical narratives breathe new life into subjects who upon decolonization had been reduced to silence women workers and radical politicians The contributors analyze the complex relationship between biographical narratives and power questioning either the power of biographical codes peculiar to western colonial origins or the power to shape public memory Part 2 reflects on the act of auto biography writing as an exercise of power one that blurs the lines between truth and invention Auto biographical narratives appear as politicized ambiguous stories Part 3 focuses on female leadership during and after colonization exploring on how women gained lost or reinvented power Brought together the contributions of this volume show that the function of biographical narratives should no longer oscillate between romanticized narratives and historical evidence their varied formats all offer fruitful opportunities for a multidisciplinary dialogue This book will be of interest to scholars from various disciplinary backgrounds working on the African postcolonial state the decolonization process women s and gender studies and biography writing Disciplines and Interdisciplinarity in Foreign Language Studies Hans Lauge Hansen,2004 In the last part of the twentieth century the human sciences witnessed three paradigmatic turns that made it possible to comprehend each individual discipline in the light of a unitary object of study the text the pragmatic turn within linguistics the linguistic turn within historical and cultural studies and the cultural turn within literary studies Combined with the more comprehensive nature of the texts studied the mass media postcolonial studies etc reflection on the theoretical approach is more important today than ever as a means of interdisciplinary practice across both disciplines and languages Most of the contributions in this book were originally presented at a conference on Disciplines and Interdisciplinarity in Foreign Language Studies The conference took place at the University of Aarhus Denmark 19 20 September 2003 and was organised by The Language and Culture Network Founded in 2002 the network promotes interdisciplinary collaboration between the traditional branches of

Foreign Language Studies French Decadence in a Global Context Julia Hartley, Wanrug Suwanwattana, Jennifer Yee, 2022-07-12 Decadence is seldom looked at in the context of colonialism and yet its heyday in the 1880s and 1890s is directly contemporary with the expansion of France's modern colonial empire Ever a slippery signifier Decadence figures alternately as pro colonial anticolonial and apolitical This edited volume gives a sense of the sheer range and diversity of intersections between colonialism and Decadence from anticolonial anarchist writers to colonial discourse from nineteenth century women writers to our contemporary Michel Houellebecq Different chapters explore these intersections in the cultural imagination of dance the novel travel writing historiographical theory and literary networks Decadence is often seen as an essentially metropolitan urban movement but this study identifies key spaces elsewhere from fin de siècle Saigon to India in the heyday of French colonialism from Byzantium to ancient Persia Although the colonies were held up by some as an antidote to the threat of French decline other writings reveal anxiety that the antidote might itself be a form of poison Colonial contact might exacerbate degeneration whether through cultural mixing or through the violence of colonial aggression itself A profound anxiety about French identity and France's so called mission civilisatrice is played out through the imagery the style and the pose of Decadence African Literature Jonathan P. Smithe, 2002 African literature like the continent itself is enormous and diverse East Africa's literature is different from West Africa's which is quite different from South Africa's which has different influences on it than North Africa's Africa's literature is based on a widespread heritage of oral literature some of which has now been recorded Arabic influence can be detected as well as European especially French and English Legends myths proverbs riddles and folktales form the mother load of the oral literature This book presents an overview of African literature as well as a comprehensive bibliography primarily of English language sources Accessed by subject author and title indexes
