Power of Innocence Arthur J. Westermayr, 1909 Systematic Theology Miner Raymond, 1879 Reports of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of Alabama Alabama. Supreme Court, 1910 Report of Cases Argued and Determined in the Supreme Court of Alabama Alabama. Supreme Court, 1910 Humanitarianism and Human Rights Michael N. Barnett, 2020-10-15 This book explores the fluctuating relationship between human rights and humanitarianism For most of their lives human rights and humanitarianism have been distant cousins Humanitarianism focused on situations in faraway places dealing with large scale loss of life that demanded urgent attention whilst human rights advanced the cause of individual liberty and equality at home However the twentieth century saw the two coming much more directly into dialogue particularly following the end of the Cold War as both began working in war zones and post conflict situations Leading scholars probe how the shifting meanings of human rights and humanitarianism converge and diverge from a variety of disciplinary perspectives ranging from philosophical inquiries that consider whether and how differences are constructed at the level of ethics obligations and duties to historical inquiries that attempt to locate core differences within and between historical periods and to practice oriented perspectives that suggest how differences are created and recreated in response to concrete problems and through different kinds of organised activities with different goals and meanings Year Book Illinois Farmers' Institute.
