Risking It All My Student My Lover My Story:

Risking it All Heather Elizabeth Ingram, 2003 Heather Ingram was one of the most respected teachers at a British Columbia secondary school Trapped at age 30 in an unhappy relationship Ingram found herself increasingly drawn to 17 year old Troy a rebellious student Here in unstinting detail she describes their passionate relationship of several years duration that had the full support of Troy's family She reveals the pain of going public the loss of her job and status in the community her trial and conviction and the ten months she spent under house arrest This frank moving story offers an intimate look at why a teacher would risk everything and what it means to live as a convicted criminal for engaging in a consensual if unconventional relationship

Risking It All Heather E. Ingram, 2009-07-01 In the spring of 2000 Heather Ingram a 30 year old high school teacher in a small town on the coast of British Columbia was convicted of the sexual exploitation of a minor for having an affair with a 17 year old student A straight A student who graduated at the top of her high school class and won the award for top student in the secondary education program at the University of British Columbia Ingram went on to become one of the most popular and highly respected teachers at Chatelech Secondary School in Sechelt B C Trapped in an unhappy relationship that was undermining her self confidence Ingram found herself more and more drawn to Troy a rebellious young student in her accounting class She describes in unstinting detail how what began as a mild flirtation developed into a powerful attraction and then into a relationship of several years duration which had the full support of Troy's family Ingram also describes the pain of going public with the affair the loss of her job and her status in the community her trial and conviction and the ten months she spent under house arrest

Sexing the Teacher Sheila Cavanagh, 2007-05-10 Sexing the Teacher is a provocative study of public and professional responses to female teacher sex scandals in Canada the United States and Britain Sheila Cavanagh examines the moral and professional panic over sexual transgressions in the educational milieu by analyzing several sensationalized legal cases including Mary Kay Letourneau Amy Gehring and Heather Ingram Deploying queer theory psychoanalysis postcolonial theory and feminist film theory Cavanagh analyses deep seated anxieties about white female teacher sexualities and offers a critique of the damage that gets done in the name of child protectionism Arguing that foundational assumptions about race gender class sexuality and family are all central to the panic Cavanagh questions the conventional wisdom and politics governing our conceptualization of sex scandals in education She also demonstrates that public upset over female teacher sexual transgressions ostensibly about child welfare is also about the regulation of gender heteronormative and white reproductive futures a hidden curriculum in Western educational systems Timely original and controversial Sexing the Teacher will appeal to scholars and students in education sociology gender sexuality and cultural studies as well as to general readers interested in the sensationalism over school sex scandals that has dominated recent headlines

From Teacher to Lover Tara Star Johnson, 2008 In the decade since Mary Kay Letourneau's infamous liaison with her sixth grade student was exposed the reporting of sexual misconduct cases among teachers has proliferated The amount of media attention to women teachers in particular has increased because the public is titillated and baffled by such cases of aberrant female sexuality This is a qualitative case study of two high school English teachers Hannah and Kim who each had a sexual relationship with a student Their cases are examined along with those of Letourneau and Heather Ingram two headline heavy teachers whose backgrounds and patterns of behavior within the relationships are similar to Hannah s and Kim s Without judging or sympathizing this book elucidates the process by which these women crossed the ethical and professional line from teacher to lover Teacher educators concerned about raising issues of gender sexuality and embodiment in their classes will find this a thorny but compelling text for generating dialogue about the taboo topic of bodies in education

Sex Offenders J. V. Fenner,2008 This book deals with society s responses to sex offenders This issue is of vital interest to law enforcement professionals and society at large This subsection of the population generates as much or more fear than virtually any other segment in the community The chapters in this book deal with recidivism tracking and location impulsivity long term care and reunification
