Russia In Pictures From Moscow To Samark:

Russia and Eastern Europe, 1789-1985 Raymond Pearson, 1989 The Forsaken Tim Tzouliadis, 2008 Tzouliadis presents this remarkable piece of forgotten history the story of how thousands of Americans were lured to Soviet Russia by the promise of jobs and better lives only to meet a tragic and until now forgotten end Russian Rule in Samarkand 1868-1910 Alexander Morrison, 2008-09-11 Russian Rule in Samarkand examines the structures personnel and ideologies of Russian imperialism in Turkestan taking Samarkand and the surrounding region as a case study The creation of a colonial administration in Central Asia presented Russia with similar problems to those faced by the British in India but different approaches to governance meant that the two regimes often stood in stark contrast to one another While the Russian administration was characterised by corruption and inefficiency British rule in India was often more violent and its subjects much more heavily taxed Opening with the background to the political situation in Central Asia and a narrative of the Russian conquest itself the book moves on to analyse official attitudes to Islam and to pre colonial elites and the earliest attempts to establish a functioning system of revenue collection Uncovering the religious and ethnic composition of the military bureaucracy and the social background education and training of its personnel Alexander Morrison assesses the competence of these officers vis vis their Anglo Indian counterparts Subsequent chapters look at the role of the so called native administration in governing the countryside and collecting taxes the attempt to administer the complex systems of irrigation leading from the Zarafshan and Syr Darya rivers and the nature and functions of the Islamic judiciary under colonial rule Based on extensive archival research in Russia India and Uzbekistan and containing much rare source material translated from the original Russian Russian Rule in Samarkand will be of interest to all those interested in the history of the Russian Empire and European Imperialism more generally Russian Pictures Drawn with Pen and Pencil Thomas Michell, 1889 Russia and the Soviet Union R. R. Milner-Gulland, 1991 A lively and authoritative text is complemented by high quality photography A Russian Journey: from Suzdal to Samarkand Alaric Jacob, 1969 Archives in Russia: A Directory and Bibliographic Guide to Holdings in Moscow and St. Petersburg Patricia Kennedy Grimsted, Patricia Kennedy Grimstead, 2016-04-01 This is a comprehensive directory and bibliographic guide to Russian archives and manuscript repositories in the capital cities of Moscow and St Petersburg It is an essential resource for any researcher interested in Russian sources for topics in diplomatic military and church history art dance film literature science ethnography and geography The first part lists general bibliographies of relevant reference literature directories bibliographic works and specialized subject related sources In the following sections of the directory archival listings are grouped in institutional categories Coverage includes federal ministerial agency presidential local university Academy of Sciences organizational library and museum holdings Individual entries include the name of the repository in Russian and English basic information on location staffing institutional history holdings access and finding aids More comprehensive and up to date than the 1997 Russian Version this edition includes Web site information dozens of additional repositories several hundred more bibliographical entries coverage of reorganization issues four indexes and a glossary Samarkand Marco Buttino,2021-07-21T17:41:00+02:00 Samarkand located along the Silk Road has a history that is often confused with a fabled image of the East This book however deals with a real city narrating the changes that took place while it was part of the USSR and in the period following all the way up to the present In Samarkand the passage between these two eras reflects the broader transformation that affected Uzbekistan and the other Central Asian countries which were internal colonies first of Russia and then of the Soviet Union before becoming independent states Step by step the reader enters the city its various districts private homes public places and hears the stories of diverse individuals and families Based on archival records interviews and photographs the book traces the changes in cultures and ways of life in Samarkand over this period and investigates the tensions of the post Soviet years The Russians vanished from the city they had colonised or guided through the years of Soviet modernisation as did many populations that had been deported there during the Second World War and various local minorities The city experienced a period of profound crisis was transformed in terms of the composition of its population constructed a new national image rewrote its history and finally emerged ready to receive tourists with their cameras Observers from Abroad Martin A. Miller,2025-03-31 Observers from Abroad offers an examination of published and archival images of Soviet Russia providing a deeper understanding of the complexities and vicissitudes of its political culture The book argues that photography when accurately interpreted can be utilized as primary historical evidence that has the potential to both enhance and counter traditional verbal analysis Employing a number of images of the Soviet Union captured by gifted documentary photographers from the West who received visas to work in Moscow from the Bolshevik seizure of power in 1917 to the collapse of the USSR in 1991 the book also assesses the intentions of the photographers who acted as conscious observers capturing visual evidence under the restraining conditions of state surveillance Each chapter provides a closer look at the life and work of these photographers with a wealth of historical images and discussion Richly illustrated and engaging this volume will be ideal for students scholars and readers interested in Soviet history twentieth century history and the history of photography Russia in Pictures Alfred Fichelle,1956 Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair,C. H. Bleaney,Pablo García Suárez,2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies The Russian Conquest of Central Asia Alexander Morrison,2020-12-10 The Russian conquest of Central Asia was perhaps the nineteenth century s most dramatic and successful example of European imperial expansion adding 1 5 million square miles and at least 6 million people most of them Muslims to the Tsar's domains Alexander Morrison provides the first comprehensive military and diplomatic history of the conquest to be published for over a hundred years From the earliest conflicts on the steppe frontier in the 1830s to the annexation of the Pamirs in the early 1900s he gives a detailed account of the logistics and operational history of Russian wars against Khoqand Bukhara and Khiva the capture of Tashkent and Samarkand and the bloody subjection of the Turkmen as well as Russian diplomatic relations with China Persia and the British Empire Based on archival research in Russia Kazakhstan Uzbekistan Georgia and India memoirs and Islamic chronicles this book explains how Russia conquered a colonial empire in Central Asia with consequences that still resonate today Journey Into the Mind's Eye

Lesley Blanch, 2018-07-10 A stunning tale set in England Paris and Moscow chronicling Blanch's love for an older Russian man and the passionate obsession that takes her to Siberia and beyond My book is not altogether autobiography nor altogether travel or history either You will just have to invent a new category Lesley Blanch wrote about Journey into the Mind's Eye a book that remains as singularly adventurous and intoxicating now as when it first came out in 1968 Russia seized Lesley Blanch when she was still a child A mysterious traveler swathed in Siberian furs bearing Fabergé eggs and icons as gifts along with Russian fairy tales and fairy tales of Russia came to visit her parents and left her starry-eyed Years later the same man returned to sweep her off her feet Her love affair with the Traveller as she calls him transformed her life and fueled an abiding fascination with Russia and Russian culture one that would lead her to dingy apartments reeking of cabbage soup and piroshki on the outskirts of Paris in the 1960s and to Siberia and beyond Historical Dictionary of

Russian and Soviet Cinema Peter Rollberg, 2016-07-20 Russian and Soviet cinema occupies a unique place in the history of world cinema Legendary filmmakers such as Sergei Eisenstein Vsevolod Pudovkin Dziga Vertov Andrei Tarkovsky and Sergei Paradjanov have created oeuvres that are being screened and studied all over the world The Soviet film industry was different from others because its main criterion of success was not profit but the ideological and aesthetic effect on the viewer Another important feature is Soviet cinema's multinational Eurasian character while Russian cinema was the largest other national cinemas such as Georgian Kazakh and Ukrainian played a decisive role for Soviet cinema as a whole The Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Cinema provides a rich tapestry of factual information together with detailed critical assessments of individual artistic accomplishments This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Russian and Soviet Cinema contains a chronology an introduction and a bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross-referenced entries on directors performers cinematographers composers designers producers and studios This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Russian and Soviet Cinema

Photographing Central Asia Svetlana Gorshenina, Sergei Abashin, Bruno De Cordier, Tatiana Saburova, 2022-09-06 This volume addresses new theoretical approaches in visual and memory studies that prompted to rethink of the photography of Russian Turkestan of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Attempts to relate the visual unknown documentations to postcolonial criticism also opened up new interpretive arenas helping to decentralize the analysis of the history of photography The aim of this volume is to interpret photography as a specific tool that reifies reality subjectively frames it and fits it into various political ideological commercial scientific and artistic contexts Without reducing the entire argument to the binary of photography and power the authors reveal the different modes of seeing that involve distinct cultural norms social practices power relations levels of technology and networks for circulating photography and that determined the manner of its re use in constructing various images of Central Asia The volume demonstrates that photography was the cornerstone of imperial media governance and discourse construction in colonial Turkestan of the tsarist and early Soviet periods The various cases show the complex mechanisms by which images of Turkestan were created remembered or forgotten from the nineteenth until the twenty first century The book should appeal to scholars of the Russian Empire and Central Asia of history of photography and visual culture of memory studies It should be appropriate for use in upper level undergraduate courses and even a broader public
