Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide Michelle J. Morris,2020-03-31 There was a time when discipleship was taken for granted It was assumed that people could be persuaded to believe and that each person would step into the path that took them to Jesus That assumption is no longer valid As early as the Gospels Jesus and his biographers recognize that each person brings experience to the journey which travels through different times and places The discipleship path for each individual disciple is assessed and determined through this Gospel Discipleship Participant Guide while the Gospel Discipleship Congregation Guide serves as the implementation guide for church leaders It also assesses the discipleship path for the congregation as a whole By understanding what type of disciple you are participants in Gospel Discipleship can clarify the path they need to walk Some people love to go on mission trips some people really thrive learning from a great teacher some people connect to God through painting and music and some people just want to have a cup of coffee and talk about life and eventually get around to talking about Jesus Participants in Gospel Discipleship can be set free from the guilt of not feeling like a real disciple because they don t feel called to experience the journey the same way as everyone else Instead participants can become the disciple Jesus wants them to be They can spend their valuable time and energy living and walking on the path where Jesus is calling them to follow

While a wonderful wedding day is important, it's the last day of marriage that really counts. Will the last day of your marriage come prematurely through divorce? Will it be filled with regrets as you sit at the funeral of your spouse? Or by God's grace will the last day be a day to rejoice in the life you lived together? Pastor Mark Driscoll and his wife Grace want you to finish well on the last day. In this interactive DVD-based study, they share private and painful issues that damaged their own marriage, including his introduction to pornography in elementary school and her abuse as a teenager at the hands of a boyfriend, and how they overcame them to experience healing and joy with each other again. Together they tackle the tough issues such as: Should I confess my pre-marital sexual sin to my husband/wife? Is it okay to have a work husband/wife? Can I say no to my husband when I really do have a headache? What does the Bible say about masturbation and oral sex? From fun date night tips to the most tricky, can we do that? Sex questions Mark and Grace share practical help and hope with people just like them who entered marriage a complete mess or who are planning to be married someday and want to avoid some sticky pitfalls.
