Sunday the Seventh Day Frederick Joseph Spencer, 1904 God's Signature: Beyond Intelligent Design , Seven Days That Divide the World John C. Lennox, 2011-08-23 What did the writer of Genesis mean by the first day Is it a literal week or a series of time periods If I believe that the earth is 4 5 billion years old am I denying the authority of Scripture In response to the continuing controversy over the interpretation of the creation narrative in Genesis John Lennox proposes a succinct method of reading and interpreting the first chapters of Genesis without discounting either science or Scripture With examples from history a brief but thorough exploration of the major interpretations and a look into the particular significance of the creation of human beings Lennox suggests that Christians can heed modern scientific knowledge while staying faithful to the biblical narrative He moves beyond a simple response to the controversy insisting that Genesis teaches us far more about the God of Jesus Christ and about God s intention for creation than it does about the age of the earth With this book Lennox offers a careful yet accessible introduction to a scientifically savvy theologically astute and Scripturally faithful interpretation of Genesis

From Sabbath to Lord's Day D. A. Carson,1999-11-05 A series of authors assert the premise that Sunday is a new day of worship that was chosen to commemorate the unique salvation historical event of the death and resurrection of Christ rather than merely being another day for celebrating the Sabbath The Bahir Aryeh Kaplan,2001-01-15 The Bahir is one of the oldest and most influential of all classical Kabbalah texts Until the publication of the Zohar the Bahir was the most widely quoted primary source of Kabbalistic teachings The Bahir is quoted in every major book on Kabbalah the earliest being the Raavad s commentary on Sefer Yetzirah and it is cited numerous times by Rabbi Moshe ben Nachman Ramban in his commentary on the Torah It is also quoted many times in the Zohar It was first published around 1176 by the Provence school of Kabbalists the first printed edition appeared in Amsterdam in 1651 The name Bahir is derived from the first verse quoted in the text Job 37 21 And now they do not see light it is brilliant Bahir in the skies It is also called the Midrash of

Rabbi Nehuniah ben HaKana particularly by the Ramban The reason might be that Rabbi Nehuniah's name is at the very beginning of the book but most Kabbalists actually attribute the Bahir to him and his school Some consider it the oldest kabbalistic text ever written Although the Bahir is a fairly small book some 12 000 words in all it was very highly esteemed among those who probed its mysteries Rabbi Judah Chayit a prominent fifteenth century Kabbalist writes Make this book a crown for your head Much of the text is very difficult to understand and Rabbi Moshe Cordevero 1522 1570 head of the Safed school of Kabbalah says The words of this text are bright Bahir and sparkling but their brilliance can blind the eye One of the most important concepts revealed in the Bahir is that of the Ten Sefirot and careful analysis of these discussions yields much of what will be found in later kabbalistic works as well as their relation to anthropomorphism and the reason for the commandments Also included is a discussion of reincarnation or Gilgul an interpretation of the letters of the Hebrew alphabet the Thirty two Paths of Wisdom and the concept of Tzimtzum Genesis 1-11 Thomas A. Keiser,2013-08-21 Although the object of centuries of study only relatively recently has Genesis 1 11 been analyzed with attention to its literary unity and theological purpose With the latter twentieth century's increased attention to synchronic approaches many scholars began to consider Genesis 1 11 from the perspective of a literary unity in its final form and therefore to consider matters of intent and theological content Yet in spite of these treatments there have been virtually no attempts to view the entire section of Genesis 1 11 as a literary and theological unity presenting a coherent message This book begins to fill this void by seeking to identify the message of these chapters through utilization of a literary theological approach The study focuses on literary features including the broader issues of surface and deep structure while other topics of special concern include rhetoric as the art of composition for the purpose of communication and persuasion and the use of speech as an important indicator of key issues in Hebrew narrative A Life in Time, My Story Joe Barfield,2010-11-28 As a child I was called Tiger because I was always into things As a teenager the death of my father died and we began to move around I became angry a SRebel I had conflicts with religion When my children were four and six I became a single parent I learned a lot from them I hope my stories will keep you laughing Some that are sad but that is life Living Blessedly Forever Win Groseclose,2015-01-22 This is a primer on Systematic Theology designed to introduce the student or the general reader to the vocabulary necessary to understand a deeper study of theology to follow Originally designed as a textbook for Advanced High School Seniors or Bible College Students this should be accessible to all who are interested in the topic Covers seven Loci of Systematics Prolegomena Theology Proper Anthropology Christology Soteriology Ecclesiology and Eschatology along with a chapter on Symbolics the study of the Creeds
