Erickson Lamia Doumato, 1984 Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey, University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives, Michael McMordie, Geoffrey Simmins, 1995. This publication is part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library. It examines twelve architect-created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada. The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period, including Raymond T. Affleck, Raymond Moriyama, Arthur Erickson, Douglas Cardinal, John B. Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects. Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included, such as the Vancouver-based firm of McCarter Nairne, Calgary's Jack Long and Edmonton's Peter Hemingway. Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses, drawings and photos, there are interpretative essays on each. A co-authored introductory essay explores several related themes: modernity, the contemporary house, approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice. Modern Movement Heritage Allen Cunningham, 2013-10-18. An introduction to the subject and the specific problems related to the conservation of modern structures. Celebrating the first five years of DoCoMoMo's role and influence, this collection covers policy, planning and construction.
